IF YOU ARE LOOKING FOR A DAIRY RANCH, HOW IS THIS?

180 acres, 4 1/2 miles from Deer Island, Or., 1/2 mile to school, good rock road; excellent rich soil and no rock or gravel; the farm lies fine, with good drainage; 45 acres now in crop; oats and timothy; family orchard; it is all under fence; 60 acres in pasture; the buildings are a good house and a fine barn and best of all, the price is only $95 per acre; just think, $3000 will handle and your own terms on the balance.

YOU CANNOT HELP MAKING MONEY ON THIS PLACE.

270 acres of the choicest Willamette River bottom land, only 12 miles from Salem, Or., 28 miles to Portland and only 3 miles to Oregon Electric. It lies right on the river with boat landing on the place; the buildings are two good houses on concrete foundations; a dandy big barn of 3 stories, stanchions for 30 cows, horse stalls, calf and hogpens; the second floor will hold 100 head of sheep or all the farm implements; hay loft will hold many tons. There is also a fine dipping tank; it is all under woven-wire fence and cross-fence; there is also an old family orchard; this soil will yield in great abundance and corn, alfalfa and onions yield heavily. It is one big pasture of fine grass outside of cultivated land and one wishing to keep cows and hogs will find this place hard to beat; this place belongs to an old man, who is too old and feeble to run it and he has decided to put a price of $12,000 in order to move it; his price has been $18,000 and it is a shame to sell it for any less. The improvements could not be duplicated for $3000. Just think, this makes it less than $35 per acre for the land and where can you pick up river bottom land at that price? $5000 will handle and the balance payable in 10 years at 6 per cent interest.

THIS LAND IS WORTH $40 PER ACRE.

400 acres, Wasco Co., Or., 3 miles from Priest P. O., R. R. station, and 7 miles southwest of Dufur; the roads are good; fine creek through the place; it is all rich, black soil; 220 acres tillable, the balance is fine pasture land; has 120 acres of very nice timber; the price is only $15 per acre and you can buy it for $500 down and easy terms on remainder.

ONE OF THE FINEST STOCK FARMS IN EASTERN OREGON.

2040 acres, 10 miles from Union and 15 miles from La Grande, Or.; 250 acres in cultivation, 2 acres in fine orchard and all kinds of berries; a good 5-room house, new barn, 50x60, and old barn 20x30; blacksmith shop, granary, chicken-house, root cellar, good well and spring water, which can be piped to house; with place go three wagons, 5 sets harness, 1 buggy, 1 spring wagon, all tools, farming implements and machinery; plenty of timber on place for firewood and fine building posts; close to school; 600 acres can be plowed at any time and at least 80 per cent is good, tillable ground; there is no alkali and no mucky places; the bottom land of 250 acres and improvements is worth the price my client is asking for the whole place; I can make a price of $13 per acre, with $12,000 cash payment and give good time on the balance.
