Easter Day In the Churches

Easter day is pre-eminently a day for church-going. Three hundred million people, it is estimated, throng the churches throughout the world on Easter, bending the knee in homage before the King of kings.

The Easter festival is one of the most beautiful in the church calendar, a festival in which flowers and exquisite music play important parts.

Easter is the harbinger of spring, the glorious season of hope, of revived life, presaging the immortality of which man in his philosophic moments has a vague perception.

Let this Easter day bring you into communion with that great church which God established for the redemption of the world.

Go to church on Easter and hear in anthem and sermon that marvelous story of the resurrection. Who knows? By that very act of attending the house of worship you may resurrect in your own soul the latent God hunger which, when it fills one's life, transforms him into a man of wondrous power.

Go to church on Easter day and behold the flower laden chancels, the gorgeous varicolored blooms of spring, so beautiful to the human vision after the sterile winter.

Go listen to the exquisite music, the sacred compositions of many of the world's masters of harmony, which the choirs will render for your edification.

Easter day in church will appeal to all that is noblest and best in you. Go to church and partake of that spiritual uplift for which your soul yearns.

An Easter Vision.

(Written for The Times.)

THE Hebrew Sabbath draws to a close
 The sun sets in the West,
 Leaving the sky in tints of rose
 And sorrow in many a breast.
 The disciples' hearts are heavy
 And hope from them is fled
 For Jesus, their beloved one,
 In Joseph's tomb lies dead.
 The Eastern night descending
 Broods in solemn gloom
 O'er the lonely garden,
 Where Jesus sleeps in his tomb.

BUT the morning dawns
 The sun arises to bathe the earth in gold,
 And through imagining's vista
 This vision I behold.

I hear an anthem swelling,
 As from an angel choir,
 He is risen, they are telling
 And my heart with joy is weling,
 With this message from afar,
 I breathe the scent of lilies,
 That bloomed across the sea,
 The' born upon the winds of time
 They're wondrous sweet to me,
 And in a scented garden
 Lighted by the morning sun
 I see beside an empty tomb
 The Holy Risen One.

Go To Church It Will Please Your Wife, Your Best Friend

GO TO CHURCH.
 It will make your wife feel so happy. It pleases a man when his wife GOES TO CHURCH. If it makes him feel good to see his wife GO TO CHURCH it surely will make his wife feel better still to see him GO TO CHURCH. Next to your old mother who perhaps is dead and gone, the best friend you've ever had is that brave little wife of yours. Remember the time you "WENT WRONG?" If ever you needed a friend it was then. How quick she was to forgive. When through your blunder your money took wings she FIXED UP HER OLD HAT AND TRIMMED HER DRESS ONCE MORE. Tears started to her eyes when neighbors glanced significantly.
 When you were sick she cooked little dainties, sat and read to you, quoted bits of Scripture and stroked your hot temples. Tonight, while you are asleep, she will be up with the children. Get out those old love letters and read the spirit of them, fragrant as lavender. Tomorrow morning, when the stove goes wrong and a harassed face glances across the table, be a lover once more. Praise the breakfast. Kiss her goodbye at the door. See her smile through the tears. She'll sing all day long. Perhaps a year from now you would give all you have in the world to take hold of her hand, tell her you love her and call her your old sweetheart. But, too late! She's gone forever.
 Make your wife happy by GOING TO CHURCH TOMORROW. GO TO CHURCH with her if possible, but GO TO CHURCH if you have to GO TO CHURCH alone. It is in the house of God that you'll find consolation. It is there that you'll find happiness. It is there that you will be instilled with courage to fight the battle of life.
 Make your wife feel happy.
 Be happy yourself.
 GO TO CHURCH.
