LITTLE MISS ENTERTAINS

Little Miss Buxy Matilda Quist entertained at her first birthday dinner last Monday evening. The table was very attractive in its dainty decorations of pink candles and apple blossoms. Covers were laid for the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Irwin, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Murch, Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Quist, Dr. Geo. Dix, W. Isaacson and Geo. Murch, Jr.

BABY NAMED

Carol Mignonette is the name bestowed upon the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Ott of Allegany.

W. B. M. C.

The Women's Baptist Mission circle will meet next Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. E. W. Lewis.

JOHNSON-GULOVSEN SUPTIALS

Last Wednesday in the Swedish Lutheran Church at 9:30 o'clock occurred the marriage of Selma Johnson and Oscar Gulovsen, two of the best known and most popular of Marshfield's young people. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Merchant. The bride wore a dark green suit and the groom was attired in a suit of dark blue. For the present the young couple are staying at the M. P. Gulovsen home, where on Thursday evening they were given a hearty and rousing reception by an enthusiastic gathering of their friends.

This happy event marks the union of two of the pioneer families of Coos Bay. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Johnson, and is one of Marshfield's most estimable and popular young ladies. Here she was born and has grown to womanhood. She is a young lady of many graces of mind and person, who is capable of filling the home she will adorn with happiness and will prove to be truly a helpmate and companion by the husband she has chosen to honor with her hand.

The groom is from one of the city's best families and is one of the prominent and promising young business men of the city, who will make his mark as a worthy son of honorable parents. He enjoys an extended acquaintance and is universally admired and respected for his many sterling qualities of manhood.

The home which the groom has prepared in Parkham Park will be ready for occupancy in about a week.

The congratulations of a city full of friends are being showered on the happy couple and to this generous complement of felicitation The Times is pleased to add its hearty good wishes with those being so freely extended.

May they live long and prosper and the only shadows that fall across life's pathway be shadows of true loves whose fragrance will fill their lives with joy.

EASTSIDE LADIES' AID

At the meeting of the Eastside Ladies' Aid last Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Perry Post, the ladies decided to give another one of their popular pic suppers Saturday, April 17th. After an hour or two of social chat over the fancy work, the hostess served delectable dainties to Mrs. H. Roger Brinkley, Mrs. W. F. Iyerly, Mrs. J. W. Vineyard, Mrs. Eyerly, Mrs. J. W. Vineyard, Mrs. Elmer Vineyard and Mrs. W. Stechel. Mrs. Brinkley will entertain in two weeks.

SUMNER SOCIAL CLUB

Last Wednesday the ladies of the Sumner Social Club met with Mrs. W. Spade. After an hour of sewing the hostess served dainty refreshments to Mrs. G. C. Motley, Mrs. Chas. Selander, Mrs. J. Mills, Mrs. E. Sherwood, Mrs. J. Stock, Miss Thurber, Miss Besale and Ardeth Spade, Miss Hildur Selander and Master Jean Spade. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. J. Mills.

BAY CITY AID.

Owing to so much sickness there was a small attendance of ladies at the meeting of the Bay City Ladies' Aid with Mrs. Hemmingway last Wednesday afternoon. The ladies are planning to purchase an organ for the church. Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon.

In three weeks the Aid will meet at the Moloney home when Mrs. Moloney and Mrs. Parks will be joint hostesses.

Present Wednesday were Mrs. A. L. Foster, Mrs. W. E. Parks, Mrs. A. C. Allard, Mrs. Mathison, Mrs. Brinkley, Mrs. Hemmingway, Miss Rose Moloney, Rev. Williams and George Foster.

A PORTLAND WEDDING

The following account of a Portland wedding will be of interest here as the groom is one of the men establishing the Scandinavian-American bank in Marshfield. After a honeymoon trip to the San Francisco Fair the happy couple will come to Marshfield to make their future home. A Portland paper says:

"A pretty wedding took place on Friday noon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Hendrickson, 606 Buffalo, when their daughter, Olga Charlotta, became the bride of R. Bugge.

Miss Haynes sang preceding the ceremony and the wedding march from Lohengrin was played by Miss Bertha Schmeier. Miss Hilda Hendrickson was bridesmaid and B. Jounge acted as best man. The Rev. J. Allen Leas, pastor of St. James' Lutheran church, performed the ceremony, which took place under a wedding bell of spiraea and camellias.

The bride wore a white crepe charmerise with beaded trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's room and lilies of the valley. Miss Hilda Hendrickson wore a gown of pink silk with lace overdrapes. Mrs. Hendrickson, mother of the bride, wore a bottle green dress of silk crepe.

About 20 guests sat down to the wedding dinner. The only one of town guests were Mr. H. Baber of Bendon Ore., and Mrs. H. Kallander of Mosier, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Bugge left on the Shasta Limited for San Francisco, which they will visit friends and attend the exposition, after which they will live at Marshfield, where Mr. Bugge is to be connected with the Scandinavian-American bank.
