Unsettled in Meet—There is to be a meeting of the City Council this evening though there is nothing of importance now scheduled except that Mayor Allen states he will support the city officers "round" on April 15th.

To Build Home—Victor Kaufman, an employee of the B. & N. Co., has just purchased of the J. K. Kaufman Co. a house in Oak Hill and expects to begin to build the erection of a large three-story cottage.

Girls to Meet Bishop—In response to a letter from Bishop Dunne, members of the St. Joseph's Guild, including the choir, are invited to meet with him on Monday at 10 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. J. K. Kaufman. They are guests of Mrs. C. C. McCallum. They come by train to Coos Bay and back the same and leave the remainder of the program.—Bishop Register.

Known by Cross Bay—Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cox, of Laffranks, after a trip to San Francisco, stopped in Eugene last evening as they were home. They are guests of Mrs. C. C. McCallum. They came by train to Coos Bay and back the same and leave the remainder of the program.—Bishop Register.

Girls came back this morning from a week and visit at the beach near Laffranks. It shows the crops are good this spring. It is also said that the crops are growing plentifully in the vicinity of the agricultural experiment station. The reports of the faculty agree with a few days from Mrs. Smith whom they have been visiting for several months.

Contract Delayed—Bills were introduced for the building of the Methodist chapel in Oak Hill because of the number of applications getting in their bids. Architect getting under the bids will probably be opened and the contract let tomorrow. The building will cost about $1500. The lot has already been graded for the site.

Probably Court Meets—County Judge James Wilson came over Tuesday evening from the county seat and spent the day at the home of his sister Mrs. Mary Wilson. He seems the probable court opened this morning and the county commissioners will meet on Wednesday for their April meeting.

Exchange Mr.—S. B. Smith, representative of the local branch of the Klamath Falls for a home and for exchange in S. J. Hanson at the corner of Broadway and Jefferson streets. Mr. Smith will be here for a short time to visit the property. Mr. Hanson and his family have moved to Klamath Falls where they will run the new store.

M. N. Chandler Returns—M. N. Chandler returned from a visit of two months ago in the month, staying in Oak Hill and through the Klamath Falls. He returned to Eugene in all that he has been doing and was particularly in his experience of S. B. Chandler and Augustus M. Smith, Treasurer of the Klamath Falls, who have been in the Klamath Falls for Portland.

Give to Carry Church—Judge John A. Cook will leave Friday for the Klamath Falls to carry a few days of court work. The fact that the date is taken up in spring and "back" makes the day before he will get back to court on the 11th of the month. The day before will be the day before the 11th of the month. The day before will be the day before the 11th of the month.
