CATCHING INLET SERVICES

Last Sunday in place of the regular morning service, the children of the United Brethren Sunday School of Catching Inlet, gave an Easter program with Mrs. J. L. Parker in charge. The back of the rostrum was a solid mass of woodland greens with the sentence "The Lord is Risen" standing out in gold letters. The altar was covered with fragrant apple blossoms and lilies, while white butterflies were suspended from the ceiling. After the Scripture reading by the pastor, J. L. Parker, there were songs, recitations, dialogues and solos and at the last, several beautiful tablaux. The church was crowded with an appreciative audience.

The following program was given:

First stanza "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name."

NORTH BEND PUBLIC LIBRARY

Among the good things received at the North Bend public library this week is "Penrod," written by Booth-Tarkington and donated to the library by Mrs. Geo. Hazer. Critics have pronounced "Penrod" the greatest boy story since Mark Twain's "Tom Sawyer." Like Tom Sawyer Penrod is not a story for boys but is a story about boys for grown-ups to read. Every teacher of boys and every parent should read Penrod in order to better understand the changes committed to their care. Anyone who carefully reads Penrod must in many instances be carried back in memory to his own youth and thereby have a brotherly sympathy with childhood, particularly with boyhood during that trying period from 12 to 18 years when a boy wants to be let alone to lead his own life, to test his own powers, to work out his own salvation, in a word to find himself a starting point toward what he aspires to become in manhood, without the trammeling, though often necessary, helpful and even useful influence of parental authority or social convention. Read Penrod if you have not done so; you will feel repaid for your trouble.

Other books received last week by the library are "A New England Nun," by Mary E. Wilkins, Judge Burnham's daughter, one of the Parry books; "The Westerner," by Stuart Edward White; "Country Neighbors," by Alice Brown; "Hans Brinker and the Lady of the Mount," by Frederick Jackson.

This story by Frederick Jackson is perhaps the most romantic of his stories, savoring much in theme and style of George Barr McCutcheon's stories which are always so popular with lovers of romance and daring adventure. The spirit of the story is wholesome and good.

The Garden Magazine and The Educator have recently been added to the magazine subscription list. The Educator is kindly donated to the library by the publishers of that useful periodical.

TO REGULATE SPEED

Bandon Port Commission Takes Action to Stop Speeding Which Is Damaging River Banks

Regulation of the speed attained by boats which traverse the river came up at the meeting of the Port of Bandon held in this city Saturday. The speed which some of the boats develop in their efforts to beat one another in time consumed in passage between Bandon and Coquille has steadily increased until it has become a problem. The wash from the propellers and paddle wheels endangers the banks and an ordinance was introduced at the port meeting to deal with this matter. As originally proposed the ordinance limits river carriers to a speed of ten miles per hour. This limit of speed is subject to revision and may be changed some in the final passage but the port seems determined to take some action of the kind.

The commissioners also appropriated $5,000 for piles to be driven so as to strengthen the banks between Bandon and Coquille.

The gap on the north side of the jetty will also receive attention from the commission. A call has been asked for bids for this work.

WATERFRONT NEWS

F. D. Butler, of the F. S. Loop Lumber Company, and Captain F. A. Perry, formerly master of vessels operated by the Simpson interests of Coos Bay, have embarked in the stevedoring business at Portland.

The government dredge Colonel P. S. Michie moved from the Northwest Steel Company's dock last evening to the plant of the Willamette Iron & Steel Works, where the alterations being made to her will be completed.—Telegraph.

In the cargo of the British steamship Hazel Dollar, which loaded at Marshfield for Kobe, was a consignment of 3272 bales, or 1,220,000 pounds, of wood pulp, valued at $23,187. Her manifest has been received at the Portland custom house.—Telegram.

That she may be overhauled from stem to stern and truck to keel the gasoline schooner Roamer is today ready for sea, bound for Gardiner and Florence.

This morning the George W. Elder crossed in from Portland bringing 57 passengers and will leave down at 6 p. m. for Eureka.

At 9 a. m. the Breakwater left her slip and down the Bay bound for Portland.

For lumber the steam schooner Yellowstone, of the Swayne and Hoyt line, crossed in at 8 a. m., and will be here probably until Wednesday loading lumber at North Bend for San Francisco.
