AND TUESDAY NIGHT

Your money back if you don't laugh at Marie Dressler in "LILLIAN'S PUNCTURED ROMANCE"

The biggest comedy that the world has ever seen. Nothing like it ever filmed before. A feature that has been recommended to the management of this popular playhouse as being the greatest in the world.

See Charlie Chaplin the best comedian in the motion picture business. It's a sure cure for the blues—a tip tlicker and above all the biggest stream that ever hit Marshfield.

It's a special state right feature—brought to our city by a special representative of the Keystone Film Company.

General admission upstairs or down 12c, children 10c.

Coming Wednesday—THE VIRGINIAN with Dunstie Farrum another big Paramount.

day on Ten Mile Lake in company with a Mr. Brooks and that together they caught 72 trout from their boat. He says there were many fishermen up there yesterday from the Bay.

Change Meeting.—The Methodist quarterly conference by Rev. Abbott will be held in Estacada on Tuesday evening, instead of Wednesday evening, on account of the recall in the local Methodist church.

Thomas Out Again.—L. L. Thomas is out again after an operation for appendicitis two weeks ago. He is kept busy receiving the congratulations of his friends and refusing challenges to run a foot race.

Father Dies.—C. H. Worrel today received a wire telling of the death of his father Franklin Worrel, of Vancouver, Washington, and he at once left via Florence accompanied by his wife. The deceased was 58 years of age, was born in Ohio, lived in Kansas and came west 15 years ago.

Is Near Death.—Mrs. J. G. Horn, of North Bend, several days ago received word of the illness of her father John Anderson, aged 74 years, of LaCade, Ill., and was on the point of departing for the east when she received word that the father is very low and it would be useless for her to make the trip.

No Council Tonight.—For the first time in several weeks there will be no meeting of the city fathers tonight in their chambers, the meeting being deferred until next Monday, when there are several matters of importance scheduled for consideration.

Now Supreme Court Judge.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Van Durn yesterday received a letter from the father of Mrs. Van Durn, J. C. Roberts, that he has just been elected to the Supreme Bench of Oklahoma. Mr. Roberts was at one time attorney general and has also served as circuit court judge.

Man Still Missing.—The officers today stated that R. F. Schronberg is still missing and that in all probability the charge against him for Dr. Bull's white car for a midnight joy ride will have to be dismissed. District Attorney Liljeqvist, calling from Coquille this morning, stated that he would not be over for several weeks.

Have Building Contract.—Payne and Hauser have been awarded the contract for the building of the new Ben Chandler home on 12th Court and it is expected they will start work within about 10 days, practically everything now being in readiness for the beginning.

Fish Bite Well.—Fisherman who returned yesterday from Coos River, whence they went in search of the wily fellows that lurk in the deep, dark holes, brought the story that the fishing was good. Jos. Josephson brought a basket of close to 50 of the speckled beauties. This was practically the first Sunday this year that the fishing has been up to standard.

News for $75.—Suits for $75 and eight per cent interest on the sum for the past five years was instituted in the justice court this morning by Herman Sanford against F. S. Riebe. The former alleges that while in the People's Co-Operative Store with Mr. Riebe, who was manager, the sum of $150 was borrowed at the bank, Mr. Sanford signing the note which he later paid. He asks that Riebe stand half the note.

Now After Jury.—William Wiegand who owns property in Marshfield and who visited here in January for several weeks, is now suing Ex-Governor Oswald West for $1,500, the amount he alleges was lost to him by the mandate closing the Copperfield saloons. A hard time is being experienced in Baker to select a jury by reason of the fact there has been so much publicity on the case that few men have not already formed an opinion on the matter.

Cows in Pound.—Three cows are in the custody of the city, guests of Marshfield in the Pound, having been personally escorted there by Officer Walter Richardson after being found grazing on the well-kept lawns and in the lower beds of South Tenth street residences early yesterday morning. The police say that their hotel bill will amount to at least $2.50 apiece.

Three Were Happy.—Happy "in spirits" were H. Brewster, W. L. Moore and Bert Johnson on Saturday night and one by one Officer Shoup rounded up the stragglers and escorted them to the Carter Hotel where they were given first-class accommodations until yesterday and turned loose under severe reprimands. None of them had any money with which to enrich the general fund.

Renovate Fire Hall.—With spring house cleaning in vogue in all homes of the city the firemen have decided that their Hall must also undergo "a course of sprouts," and to this end two painters today were engaged in repainting the big meeting room, after which the furniture will be cleaned and all put in good order before the next meeting.

Dump Cars Go Back.—On board the Nann Smith when she left for San Francisco on Saturday evening were several dump cars belonging to the Willetts & Burr Company on their way back after completing the work on the grading of the Smith-Powers logging line between Myrtle Point and the new town of Powers, formerly Wagner.

ELDER ARRIVES IN BREAKWATER SAILS

ELDER BRINGS 57 PASSENGERS FROM PORTLAND

Has Quiet Passage Down Coast and After Discharging Cargo to Leave at 6 P. M. for Eureka

Arriving in from Portland early this morning the George W. Elder came in after a quiet passage with 57 passengers for Coos Bay Points and will leave out at 6 p. m. for Eureka. She also brought a fair cargo of freight for here.

Captain August Lofstedt wore a broad smile this morning, broader than usual, and when pressed for the reason of all the bubbling mirth admitted that there is a young mariner in his home in Portland, the said sailor had having arrived several days ago and that mother and son are doing well. The little fellow, says the proud father, is a lusty youth with healthy sea lungs, and is to be named Arthur Lofstedt.
