"CAMERA" PICNIC

Boarding the Alice at 8 o'clock yesterday morning, the Coos Bay Steam Laundry girls and a few special guests, supplied with heavy lunch baskets and cameras left for Charleston Beach to enjoy a long day of—well, one could hardly say "rest," since the program provided for no such word. However, it is a day that will long be remembered. The morning was spent in taking pictures, bathing and lively games, including some "daring feats."

At noon a picnic dinner "seemed" to be the main diversion after which Mrs. Phillips, acting as master of ceremonies, called for speeches or stunts from each member of the crowd, failure to respond resulting in a severe penalty.

Leaving the scene of enjoyment about 2:30 o'clock, the picnickers started towards the boat landing, stopping on the way to pick myriads of wild violets which dotted the grassy places with a delicate blue. They reached home about 6:30 o'clock.

Numbered among the party were Mrs. Phillips, Mrs. Toles, Mrs. B. P. Harrington and Master Everett Harrington, Mrs. Oscar Franz, and the Misses Helen McLaughlin, Madge and Winifred Simpson, Eugenia and Lillian Inigle, Anna Holmes, Elsie Baker, Beda Rudberg, Marie Wheeler, Edna Hansen, Mabel and Alpha Mauzey.

MAY DAY BALL FOR LIBRARY

Ladies Plan Benefit Party to Secure Funds for Purchasing New Books

The ladies of the Library Board are making arrangements for an elaborate May day party and dance at the Eagles Hall on the evening of April 30th, the proceeds to be devoted to the home fund of the library. New books, especially late fiction, are the one pressing need at present, the librarian being unable to fill the constant demand for novels now called for.

The decorations for the party will be elaborate, Rhododendrons predominating. Mrs. J. H. Flanagan, Mrs. H. S. Tower and Mrs. F. W. Goodell will have charge of the decorating. Punch will be served and the best of music has been engaged for the evening.

Tickets for the events are now on sale and nothing will be left undone that can in any way add to the success of the affair.

ELIZABETH MEETS ACCIDENT

SAN DIEGO, CAL., April 13.—Captain Bowers of the Steamer reports that the Elizabeth collided with an American-Hawaiian steamer while the latter was leaving the Elizabeth across the San Francisco Bay in discharge her cargo of lumber. The whole stern of the Elizabeth was carved in. Just how serious the damage is can not be determined until the boat goes on dry dock.

The Elizabeth was to leave San Francisco Saturday but will not now leave for several days.

FRANK LOSES FIGHT FOR LIFE

entered, and who had been drinking, attacked and killed the girl after she left Frank's office.

In October, 1913, Frank's attorneys filed a motion for a new trial, alleging 162 errors in admission of testimony and conduct of the trial, and also charging that demonstrations by the crowd within and outside the court room during the trial had interfered with a fair verdict. Judge Roan denied the motion and the Georgia Supreme Court affirmed his action February 17, 1914. A motion for rehearing of the appeal was denied by the State Supreme Court two weeks later.

An extraordinary motion for a new trial and a motion to set aside the verdict were filed simultaneously in Superior Court April 16, 1914. Among the grounds alleged in the motion for a new trial was that of newly discovered evidence. The motion to set aside the verdict was based on the ground that Frank's constitutional rights had been violated by the trial court. His attorneys alleged that Frank had not been given a fair trial because of the "spirit of mob violence that pervaded the court room;" and also that his constitutional rights had been violated because Frank and his attorneys had been absent from the court room, without Frank's consent, when the verdict was returned. This absence, it was claimed, was at the request of the presiding judge who was quoted as saying he feared mob violence against Frank and his lawyers if a verdict of acquittal were returned.

The extraordinary motion for a new trial was denied by the Superior Court May 6, and the decision was affirmed by the State Supreme Court October 14. The Superior Court on June 6, 1914, dismissed the motion to set aside the verdict on constitutional grounds, by sustaining the state's demurrer to the motion. The Supreme Court affirmed this action November 14, 1914, and six days afterward the Supreme Court refused to certify a writ of error to the United States Supreme Court.

To review that action, application was made first to Justice Lamar, then to Justice Holmes and finally to the entire Supreme Court of the United States, for a writ of error. All held that the decision of the Georgia Supreme Court could not be reviewed because its action was based on grounds of procedure, namely, that the plea for setting aside the verdict should have been advanced at the time the motions for new trial were made.

Applications were made December 19 to Judge Newman of the Federal District Court for Northern Georgia, for a writ of habeas corpus, alleging Frank had been convicted without due process of law; that the trial court had lost jurisdiction over him during the trial because it was "dominated by a mob hostile to the prisoner," and that Frank had been absent from the court room when the verdict was returned. Two days later Judge Newman refused the writ of habeas corpus, holding that to grant it would mean that a federal court should review the action of the state courts in a manner not warranted by the law of the country, and that, too, after the Supreme Court of the United States had decided no Federal question remained for consideration in the case. Judge Newman also refused to issue a certificate of "probable cause" for appeal to the Supreme Court, but it was issued by Justice Lamar December 24 and the case came to the Supreme Court for review of Judge Newman's action, argument being made last February.

PARDON ONLY CHANCE NOW

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 13.—Frank appealed from the Federal Court of Georgia, which refused to release him on a writ of habeas corpus. Justice Holmes and Hughes dissented in the majority opinion of the Supreme Court.

Seemingly there is no other avenue of escape from the death penalty open to Frank through the courts. The state pardon officials might relieve him.

"NORCO," A NEW TOWN

Norco is the name of a new proposition to be established ten miles above Port in Douglas county. There are other places in Oregon where "Reading" and "Marking" would be appropriate names. While there may be no log at "Norco," it is also probable that there is no grief, no football, no dueling, no hotel, no railroad, no service, no fish, no amusement.

Smile!

The world takes off its hat to the man with a smile. It turns the cold shoulder to the individual who is sour as a lemon. We all love the man with a hearty laugh. He is our friend, the type of manhood for which we yearn, and success perches on his cheerful shoulders. But you cry: "It's hard to work up even a sickly grin when you're dead broke and up against the cold old world." We will agree with you son. Here's the remedy. Start a bank account with your first earnings. Add to it. Form the saving habit. Watch the account grow. The smile will grow with it. It is no trouble at all to laugh when you have money in the bank.
