COTILLION CLUB PICNIC

The Cotillion Club spent a very enjoyable day at Dr. Bartle's summer home last Sunday, a better day couldn't have been picked for this excursion. On the way up Wm. Davis wanted to be alone so tried to entertain the crowd with a high dive, he dove into the row boat in tow and out again in two seconds and almost got a bath in the bargain. After lunch Leo McLain gave an exhibition of snake charming and President Harris featured with a snake dance in a costume suitable for the occasion. Herbert Morton, (The Doomed Bachelor) spent the greater part of the afternoon fishing, others went boat riding and gathering shrubbery.

Dr. and Mrs. Bartle, Mr. and Mrs. Linden, Dr. Mott, Theresa Stein and Percy Phillips arrived on the scene in the afternoon. The luncheon prepared by the young ladies was the best the market afforded. The following took advantage of the days outing, Misses: Catherine and Marie Collins, Elizabeth and Otilla Hoelling, Alice McLain, Eliza McKay, Jessie King, Anna Truman, Freda Holm, Marjorie Swearingen, Maude Martin, Gladys Bean, Vera O'Loun, Hattie Hage, Anna Reed, Olive Phillips, Theresa Stein, President Harris, Shannon Mitchell, Percy Phillips, Tom Hage, Joe Winsor, Jack Hafner, Harry Conroe, Wm. Davis, Herbert Morton, Aug. Hoelling, Al Nunse, Carl Haugquist, Tony Eberhart, Leo McLain, Stanley Briggs, Roy Carr, and Bill Goodrum.

Furniture of Quality Reasonably Priced

Some advertisements seek to arouse your interest by flaring announcements of values extraordinary, of statements of profitless prices that are wide of the mark.

It is not through such curiosity that we hope to thrive but through a simple statement of facts, a simple story of a different store service, of FURNITURE OF QUALITY reasonably priced.

In this way we hope to gain your interest and your confidence, and your confidence thus obtained merit your continued patronage.

We seek to serve others as we would ourselves be served. We know how we would wish others to serve us, what courtesies we would expect a store to extend that hoped for our trade, and we give you just such service.

We want you to come and benefit by this painstaking service, profit by the FURNITURE OF QUALITY reasonably priced.

We want our customers to be our friends and they in turn to make their friends our friends and so make the line grow.

We realize fully that only by serving you well can we hope to serve you often, and to that end we will devote our best efforts. You can come to Johnson-Gulovsen expecting much, for much is waiting here for you.
