TO WED SOON

Friends have been apprised of the approaching marriage of Miss Mabel Mathison to Palmer C. Lee, of Bellingham, Washington.

Miss Mathison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Berni Mathison of Bunker Hill, has made her home on the Bay for the past eight years and by her sunny disposition and kind ways, has won a large circle of admiring friends and acquaintances. For some time she has been an efficient employe in the J. Albert Matson store. Mr. Lee is also well known here.

At the last meeting of the Norwegian Lutheran Y. L. A. at the home of Misses Edna and Jennie Johnson last Thursday evening the members tendered Miss Mabel Mathison a miscellaneous shower. The evening was spent in sewing, games and music, after which refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Those present were Mrs. R. O. Thorpe, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Jacobson, Mrs. E. Bergland, Mrs. E. Graudell, Mrs. Jens Hansen, Mrs. O. Larsen, Mrs. C. Lee, Mrs. L. Knutsen, Mrs. Nelson, Miss Sennie Refsland, Miss Elsie Larsen, Miss Hannah Sunne, Misses Cora, Mabel and Alice Mathison, Mrs. B. Mathison, Mrs. Gust Steen, Miss Myrtle Steen, Edna and Jennie Johnson, Andrew Anderson, E. G. Mellem, H. Peterson, Oliver Larsen, Peter Ormlil.

The next meeting will be held Thursday evening with Mr. and Mrs. K. Erickson, of Bunker Hill.

LIBRARY BENEFIT DANCE

The library benefit dance at the Eagles Hall last evening was declared a decided success, and the committee on arrangements, Mrs. J. W. Bennett, chairman, Mrs. H. S. Tower and Mrs. J. H. Flanagan, are to be heartily congratulated.

The decorations made a bow of the hall, pastel shaded garlands hung from baskets of pink rhododendrons and were draped gracefully to the corners of the hall, where they met huge jars of the same flowers. The orchestra was concealed behind a graceful screen of rhododendrons. Pale yellow butterflies, the work of skilful fingers, appeared to be flitting among the flowers and greens and added to the graceful airy scheme of beauty. The punch bowl was prettily decorated in the same shading of green, pink, yellow and lavender, with a lavish arrangement of flowers. The Misses Genevieve Songstacken and Nora Tower had charge of the decorations.

Music was furnished by Anthony's orchestra and was perfect in selection and excellent in quality; the selections being of the highest order. A committee served punch at intervals during the evening.

Those who were present report a thoroughly good time.

COOS BAY WOMEN'S CLUB

Last Monday afternoon the Coos Bay Women's Club met at the home of Mrs. D. A. Jones for a short business session. They will meet again in two weeks with Mrs. I. S. Smith.

The ladies out were: Mrs. A. T. Haines, Mrs. D. C. McCarty, Mrs. M. A. Sweetman, Mrs. Nellie Owen and two visitors: Mrs. J. S. Stubblefield and Mrs. A. E. Dimont.

KLOSTER CLUB

Mrs. R. W. Morrow delightfully entertained the Kloster club ladies last Thursday at an afternoon of fancy work and social chat. Cut flowers of delicate shades were prettily arranged in the parlor. At the close of the afternoon, very dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Grania and Miss Margaret Shaw to Mrs. J. Q. Jarvis, Mrs. D. E. Maloney, Mrs. W. A. Reid, Mrs. Nell MacMillan, Mrs. McKinnon and Miss Jessie Trask.

Mrs. J. W. Motley has invited the club to her home at the next meeting in two weeks.

GOLDEN WEDDING

At their home on North Fourth street, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gettings celebrated their golden wedding on Wednesday afternoon, April 28th.

The afternoon was one of real joy especially to one who had the pleasure of being one of the guests and is now trying to portray a story of real life flashed before our vision for a few moments of this happy old couple who have come straightway to Coos Bay to enjoy the fruits of their labors.

Mr. and Mrs. Gettings were born in Mecklenburg, Germany, where they grew to manhood and womanhood and were married in the year 1865. Shortly after the marriage they set sail for the United States and, after toiling about on the Atlantic for three weeks, they arrived safely in New York City just in time to see the homeward march of Gen. Grant's army after having finished the Civil War. They went on to Freeport, Illinois, with youthful hope and daring but here fortune would not smile upon them; yet with a greater hope they struggled on until ten years had flown by and many hardships endured and they decided to move westward where after a time they arrived in Grundy Center, Iowa. After a short stay here they finally moved to Sanborn, Iowa. Here the days passed swiftly but happily by and their thrift and ambitions were crowned with success. Mr. Gettings is now seventy eight and Mrs. Gettings seventy two years old, yet both are in good health and should have many happy years before them.

Nine children were born to them of which seven are still living. Two of these children have also had the ward fever and have come to Marshfield, these are Mrs. Hattie Culley, wife of Mr. Culley of the Farmers' store and Mr. Geo. Gettings, one of Marshfield's most enterprising young business men and owner of the Coos Bay Tea, Coffee and Spice House. The other children still live in the East.

After wishing Mr. and Mrs. Gettings the good fortune of being able to celebrate their diamond wedding we all bid them au revoir.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gettings, Mrs. E. Stevens, Mrs. C. Walker, Mrs. Hattie Culley and children, Mrs. Emma Klahr, Mrs. A. Hagemeister, Mrs. Carl L. Albrecht, Mrs. H. Harkensee, Miss Vera Albrecht, Mrs. Lillian Johanson, Mrs. R. Kruger, Mrs. M. Markovitch and son, and Mrs. E. A. Eickworth.

GUILD OPEN MEETING

Tuesday afternoon was open meeting of the Ladies' Guild which met in Guild hall; a large number of representative women in attendance.

A very instructive paper was prepared and read by Mrs. J. W. Bennett on "Fighting Tuberculosis." This was followed by a splendid paper entitled "Open Window Schoolrooms," by Mrs. Herbert Lockhart, which led up to a general discussion resulting in the appointment of a committee to perfect plans to be laid before proper authorities pertaining to the "open window" method of ventilation. Included in the committee are Mrs. Herbert Lockhart, chairman; Mrs. Charles Stauff, Mrs. A. O. Rogers, Mrs. Arthur McKeown, Mrs. C. H. Walter and Mrs. J. H. Flanagan.

Different matters of business were then transacted. A vote of thanks

CHRISTIAN SISTEHOOD

Mrs. Walter Hill entertained the Christian Sisterhood at her home last Wednesday afternoon, the ladies spending the time in tacking comforts. It was decided that hereafter the monthly food sales would be held on the third instead of the fourth Saturday. Mrs. Fred Smith was added as a member.

The ladies out were Mrs. W. B. Cox, Mrs. Mattie Blahn, Mrs. E. A. McDuffee, Mrs. Hendricks, Mrs. Yates, Mrs. A. Custer, Mrs. Fred Smith, Mrs. M. C. Woods, and Mrs. W. Hill.

In two weeks the ladies will meet again in the new church parlors.

Next Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. E. A. McDuffee will be hostess to the C. W. B. M. at the church parlors.

CLUB MEETING

The Bunker Hill School Industrial met yesterday at 2:30 p. m. with Miss Genevra Archer, president, presiding. All the members, number-was tendered to all those who took part in the Sacred Concert, the success of which was so pronounced. The proceeds of this, however, not being sufficient to cover the entire expense of tinting the church, Mrs. Vernon A. Smith very kindly offered her home in which the ladies might give a silver tea in the near future to acquire the necessary amount. The ladies accepted the offer with thanks. Rev. Browning announced that on next Friday evening would occur the annual parish meeting for the election of vestry-men.

The guild will meet again on Tuesday of next week.

Those out were: Mrs. Otto Schetter, Mrs. Harry Nasburg, Mrs. J. H. Flanagan, Mrs. Emma Nasburg, Mrs. Arthur McKeown, Mrs. C. R. Peck, Mrs. Geo. Godrum, Mrs. J. S. Lyons, Mrs. R. M. Mr. and Mrs. E. Crosthwaite and sons will leave soon to visit the Exposition at San Francisco where they expect to meet friends from the east.

Mrs. E. F. Morrissey will leave the first of the week to join her husband in Los Angeles where they will make their home in the future. Marshfield will greatly regret to lose these people who have won hosts of friends during the years they have lived here.

Mrs. Harry Nasburg is leaving on the Speedwell to visit relatives in Oakland.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH SOCIAL

As a sort of house warming and shower for the new church, the members and friends of the Christian church gathered there last Monday evening for a short program and general good time. Miss Anna Cox sang two very pretty solos, Miss Mabel Immel recited and appropriate remarks were made by Messrs. W. A. Reid, C. A. Schlbrede and Mrs. H. W. Painter.

Nearly everything in the dish line was contributed for the kitchen, besides other articles for the hall. Between sixty and seventy people attended the affair and a delightful time is reported. At a late hour delicious refreshments were served.

SIMPSON-VASEY NUPTIALS

This morning at ten o'clock in the Catholic church, Miss Florence Enola Simpson and John G. Vasey were united in holy wedlock, Rev. Father McDevitt officiating. Both young people are very well known and highly popular among their many friends and acquaintances.

The bride was becomingly attired in a traveling suit of navy blue and was attended by her sister Miss Madge Simpson. George Vasey, brother of the groom, served as best man.

Mrs. Vasey is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Simpson of Bunker Hill and until a few weeks ago was a clerk in the local postoffice which position she had held for more than two years. Mr. Vasey, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Vasey, on Hall avenue, represents the Reserve Loan Life insurance company of Indiana.

Those in attendance at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Simpson, Misses Madge and Winnie Simpson, Archie and Albert Simpson, Miss Marie Vasey and Mr. J. T. Vasey. A 12 o'clock wedding dinner was served at the Simpson home in Bunker Hill. Mr. and Mrs. Vasey left this afternoon for Ten Mile where they will spend a short honeymoon and returning will make their home in Marshfield.

The best wishes of a host of their
