WEATHER FORECAST (By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times) OREGON—Fair, Northerly winds. LOCAL TEMPERATURE RECORD For the 24 hours ending at 4:45 a. m., May 3, by Best, Ostlund, special government meteorologist: Maximum... 60 Minimum... 44 At 4:45 a. m. ... 44 Precipitation... none Precipitation since Sept. 1, 1914... 69.69 Precipitation same period last year... 62.40 Wind: Northwest, partly cloudy.

Boy Scout Committee.—There will be a meeting of the Boy Scout committee this evening at 7:30 at the office of W. A. Beld on Front Street. Called as Witnesses.—A. J. Mendel, of the Hub Store; R. A. Coppel, of the Golden Rule, and H. A. Harris, of the Parliament, left shortly after noon today in a special auto for Coquille where they were called as witnesses in the Austrian forgery cases coming up there today.

Berries Rip.—Will Eickworth came in from Millcooma today and brought in quite a few ripe strawberries and wild salmon berries to show that the season is far in advance. Another few days and he will have lots of strawberries. The vines are heavily laden.

Are Obstreperous.—Henry Samson, claiming no relation to the man who waded the jaw-bone, waded out on Front street Saturday afternoon in a waving condition and was immediately "piked" and brought in out of the rain. He left a liver as a remembrance for the general fund. Fred Sanberg made a similar offer for having been orderly.

Epworth League Elects.—The annual meeting of the Epworth League was held Friday evening and officers for the year elected. Charles H. Raymond was elected president; F. E. Ross, first vice-president; Vera Harris, second vice-president; Mrs. F. E. Ross, third vice-president; E. Bolt, fourth vice-president; Dora Brown, secretary; D. Lee Byers, treasurer; Mrs. J. J. Ross, organist; F. A. Stuehl, J. David Leppert was voted in a new member. The new officers will be installed at the meeting on May 16.

More Mine Machinery.—Considerable new machinery is being installed in the Smith-Powers' mine on Isthmus Inlet, and as a result the output of coal will be slightly increased with only about half the payroll. Mr. Hennessey said that he would have only about twenty-five men on the force after this week. The output now is chiefly for the Smith Company and Smith-Powers supply and for the local market. Mr. Hennessey is now operating the mine under lease.

New Man on Program.—Because of the absence of K. G. Perham, who is in Bandon and Curry County, A. B. Gidley, city engineer, has consented to take his topic, "Construction of Permanent Roads," at the Fellowship Banquet on Tuesday night. C. R. Peck will also talk on the legal phases of bonding issues for permanent roads. Word from the ticket committee is to the effect that sales are being rapidly made and there will probably be more present than at the last meeting when 70 sat down to the chicken gravy. There will probably be one other meeting of the club this year, according to John C. Kendall, president.

Buried Cats, Wants Pay.—"Forty-five cats have lost their lives down here" was a message that came into the police station a couple of days ago. Officer Richardson blinked his eyes a couple of times. He couldn't imagine 45 dead cats all in a row. Hastily he went out on South Broadway to the place designated and there in a back shed found five cats, all with their toes turned up toward Heaven. This wasn't right he knew, for the message had mentioned nine times that number—and then he grinned. "Nine lives to each cat. Five cats. Five times nine makes 45." Officer Richardson buried the unfortunate felinae and now has a bill of $2.50

W. S. TURPEN has returned from a week's stay at Powers.

W. ISAACSON AND CORNELL LAGERSTROM left today for Ten Mile to enjoy a few days' fishing. Isaacson said that the six-inch limit on the length of trout never bothered him as he never landed less than a three-pounder. Immediately Cornell started looking for the place that Isaacson secured his fish scales.

L. T. MATHEWS returned today from his South Inlet ranch. He recently sent a large piece of the peculiar mineral formation on his land to J. A. Ward, for exhibit at the Panama Pacific Exposition. His daughter, Miss Ruth, who has been visiting his son, Prof. Mathews at the University of California, may take up an art course there.

Local Shoe Man Files Petition With $1,000 Liabilities. Against Hendrickson, who opened a shoe shop in this city, today filed a petition in bankruptcy. The liabilities are placed at $1,000 and the assets will reach almost that amount.

WILL SHIP RAILS. Material for Siuslaw Jetty to Come to Florence. Regarding the Siuslaw River jetty work the Siuslaw Pilot says: It is learned from F. E. Leece, U. S. Junior Engineer, in charge of the harbor improvements for the Siuslaw, that the Government intends to ship to this location all of the rails necessary to complete both jetties at the mouth of the river. On the last trip of the Patev Mr. Leece received about 53 tons of rails and he expects more soon.

TODAY STARTS MAIL ON NEW SCHEDULE. Change of Train Service Cause—Leaves Here at 7:10 A. M., Returning at 12:38 P. M. Changing of the regular train service to the Coquille Valley has occasioned a change in the mail schedule starting yesterday.

PERSONAL MENTION. DR. J. R. WETHERBEE, of the Star ranch, returned today on the Elder. THOMAS R. SHERIDAN came home today on the Elder from Portland. MRS. IDA CONRAD came back from Portland today after several weeks visit there.

FRED VERING was here today from his ranch on Haynes Inlet. BEACHER CROUCH was a visitor here today from his home at Haynes Inlet. MRS. M. E. EVERITT, of North Bend is home after an extended visit in Portland. MRS. J. C. McCULLOCH was down today from Haynes Inlet on a shopping trip.

TOM LAWYORN, of Allegany, was down this morning attending to some shopping. GEORGE NOACH came down from Allegany today on his way to Tar Heel where he will resume his old position. WESLEY NOAH was a Marshfield visitor today from his home at Allegany. R. O. LANDRITH was a visitor in the city yesterday from his Coos River ranch. N. A. NELSON, paymaster of the Hauser & Hauser company at Lakeside, was down yesterday. W. S. CHANDLER is down today from his home on Coos River attending to some business matters. SHERIFF ALFRED JOHNSON returned yesterday to the county seat after coming here Saturday night with several subpoenas. J. P. MORRIS was in Marshfield today on business. He has just erected a temporary home on his property in Boulevard Park, North Marshfield, and moved his family there from North Bend. One of his sons has been in poor health and the move is to benefit his health. HARRY NASBURG will leave in the morning for Coquille where he has been summoned for jury service. He was to have gone over today but got delayed on account of his family planning to leave on the Speedwell for the south. However the Speedwell will not sail until tomorrow afternoon. GEORGE ROTNOR motored down the Cape Arago lighthouse yesterday and states that the roads are in much better condition than he expected to find them. He did not have to use mud chains and his Ford made it through without the slightest difficulty. W. S. TURPEN has returned from a week's stay at Powers. W. ISAACSON AND CORNELL LAGERSTROM left today for Ten Mile to enjoy a few days' fishing. Isaacson said that the six-inch limit on the length of trout never bothered him as he never landed less than a three-pounder. Immediately Cornell started looking for the place that Isaacson secured his fish scales. L. T. MATHEWS returned today from his South Inlet ranch. ALERT CLUB BANQUET. Last Thursday afternoon the Alert Club ladies met with Mrs. F. B. Rood for their usual program and social hour and later in the evening, were joined by their husbands, their children and other special guests to enjoy a big banquet.

Following is the program: Paper: "Moving Picture Shows and Their Effect on Children" Mrs. J. W. Russell. Paper: "The Human Voice and Its Relation to Happiness and Its Success." Mrs. V. K. Rood. Vocal Solo: "O Lovely Flowers." Mrs. F. B. Rood. Accompanied by Mrs. V. K. Rood. Bible Story: Mrs. Jas. Nowlin. At the close of the program, Mrs. Rood served delicious fudge to the members and visitors who were: Mrs. John Price, Mrs. W. B. Piper, Mrs. K. L. Heap, Mrs. C. E. Larson, Mrs. E. C. Barker, Mrs. V. K. Rood, Mrs. J. E. Noah, Mrs. C. D. Piper, Mrs. Jack Nowlin, Miss Odo McClellan, Mrs. J. W. Russell of North Bend and Mrs. J. O. Langworthy of Marshfield. The meeting was then adjourned and the ladies were transformed from active club women to busy cooks and began preparations for the banquet; and such a banquet!

At seven o'clock the families and friends arrived on the launches, Alice H. Vim, Blanco and Millcooma. The banquet room was a glorious sight to behold with its decorations of cut flowers, its heavily laden table with covers laid for eighty two people, each plate graced with a choice rose favor. After every appetite had been more than satisfied, a "singing" program was enjoyed. Vocal selections were well rendered by Mrs. F. B. Rood, the Misses Jeanette Nowlin and Evelyn Piper and then the men of the party proceeded with their stunts as follows: "How a boy cries when a hornet stings him" ... Abe Huendergard "How a dude walks" ... Ivan Noah "How I sing a lullaby to my granddaughter" ... J. E. Noah "Book agent" ... Roy Landrith "How a man acts when just in Marshfield" ... F. B. Rood "A doctor's visit to a very sick patient" ... Harry Russell "A tip of the hat in ten different ways" ... Noel Noah Song ... Men's chorus "Ten laughs in ten different ways" ... James Nowlin

After the outbreak of laughter following the numbers had subsided, Mrs. V. K. and Mrs. F. B. Rood sang a very pretty duet and Miss Esther Holmes contributed with a piano selection.

At a late hour the merry crowd disbanded, every one declaring the affair to be a grand one. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. John Holm, Mr. and Mrs. James Nowlin, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Russell, Mr. and Mrs. White, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Noah, Miss McClellan, Miss Jean Long, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Piper, Mr. and Mrs. K. L. Heap, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Larson, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Piper, Mr. and Mrs. V. K. Rood, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Barker, Mr. and Mrs. James Landrith, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Nowlin, Mr. and Mrs. Glad Mahaffy, Mrs. J. O. Langworthy, Misses Louise Mahaffy, Jen-
