MARSHFIELD

NORTH BEND

TIME TO PAINT UP

AS I'VE often said before, you should toddle to the store, if your stand-off's not too faint, and invest in yellow paint; then embellish house and barn, till the neighbors say: "By darn! What a lovely, gorgeous hue! We must get to painting, too!" That's the way great movements start; some wise gent with hero heart sets the pace, and then the guys follows where his pathway lies. If with glad and joyous whoop you should paint your chicken coop, red or yellow, pink or gray, you will see the neighbor jay to the nearest drug store rush, there to buy some paint, a brush; and next day you'll see him hump putting green stripes on his pump, and he'll give a coat of blue to the fence and clothes-line, too. In the spring Dame Nature tries to astonish human eyes, spreading on the colors thick; everything is span and spick; fields of green and skies of blue, everywhere a pleasing hue. And her sunlight often falls on our gray and dingy walls, and it makes her sick and faint that we don't indulge in paint. Buy a gallon can right now! Paint the sidewalk and the cow, paint the house and paint the shed, paint things yellow, paint them red!

THE SHERWIN WILLIAMS PAINT CO. were the inventors of this Brighten-Up Campaign. They made it a success because of their good paint. We sell it.

"Clean Up and Paint Up"

Do you find a bit of dust? Clean it up! Clean it up!
 Do you see a blight of rust? Rub it up! Rub it up!
 If the paint is getting old, New and fresh is being sold, For the town has now been told In a slogan clear and bold That she surely, surely must Clean it up—Paint it up.

Are some buildings on the blink? Clean 'em up; Paint 'em up!
 Are the spoutings in a kink? Slick 'em up; Spic 'em up!
 Are the ashes in a heap? Do the pavings need a sweep? Is the lawn a kind to keep? If you really want to sleep With a resty, easy wink, Clean 'em up; Paint 'em up!

Are the window glasses gray? Wash 'em up; Wash 'em up!
 Has the rubbish gone astray? Burn it up; Burn it up!
 Buy a little spade and rake, Give the muscles all a shake, For the lawn and garden's sake, Never mind the pain and ache, And Ourltown will in a day Be cleaned up to stay.

REMEMBER THE WOMEN

Say! ain't it funny what a lot of things men overlook. They seem to feel we women never do a thing but cook. They really think they run the house and everything that's in it. But gee! they couldn't get along without us for a minute.

We women are the ones who keep the woodwork shining bright—Who buy enamel for the bath to make it glistening white.

We women varnish tables and we buy the stains for chairs, And we buy the proper colors to brighten up the stairs.

We women are the ones who say what paint goes on the halls—Which shades for parlor and for den—for baseboards and for walls.

We women stain and wax the floors, or else we make the man. We women are the ones who keep the whole house spic and span.

So if you men, who sell good paint, Will heed what I have said, You'll get this vital business axiom firmly in your head:

Women are the buyers, so forget about the males, And cater to the women if you want to boost your sales.

CLEAN-UP-WEEK OUR BENEFACTOR.

God bless the man who first invented paint. His name deserves the world's unmitigated praise, in countless measures told. What grievous taint And eulogies proclaimed in deathless lays, Like unto those of warrior, seer and saint, Of rank ingratitude these sordid days Of wealth and selfishness our age displays, Whence comes no voice of protest or complaint!

And that is why we say, God bless the man Who thus onto the race a boon conferred, Wherein vast possibilities we find, And wondrous transformation deftly plan And execute. Belated we are stirred And rise to call him great among mankind.

CLEAN-UP-WEEK The average Coos Bay man will give $1,000,000 worth of advice before he will part with a dollar's worth of assistance.
