Will Make Bid.—G. A. Perkins, road supervisor of North Bend, left this morning for Coquille to bid on the work of constructing part of the North Bend-Empire road.

Parish Meeting.—There will be the regular annual meeting tomorrow evening in guild hall of the Episcopal church at 8 p. m. The confirmation candidates will please come at 7:30 as usual.

Gets Position.—Through the insertion of a Wand Ad in The Times, Mrs. Herbert Stout quickly found a position. Mrs. W. F. Irwin answered the first ad and immediately employed the applicant.

Quick Results.—O. A. Glass inserted a want ad for an apartment and within a few hours after The Times was issued last night he had found just what he desired in the P. W. Bertram home at 1044 Central. There were a number of other answers to the one insertion of the ad.

Recovers Bracelet.—Through a Times Want Ad a valuable bracelet was restored to Mrs. J. C. Swanson of West Marshfield. She had given up hope of recovering it but Mrs. M. A. Scott's little son found the bracelet and through The Times quickly restored it to the owner.

Released on Bonds.—Fred Nieme was released last night from the city jail after Dr. E. E. Straw had promised to go his bonds for $500 and assured Judge Pennock that he would be responsible for Nieme's behaviour. Matt Nieme, the father, who lives at Ten Mile, was expected today to also put his name on the bonds. Fred Nieme was in jail part of yesterday afternoon.

Dedicate Church.—Leo J. Cary, of Coquille, was here last evening to confer with Rev. Father H. J. McDevitt about the dedication of the new Catholic Church in Coquille. The date has been set for May 16. The building is 25x60 and while it is not entirely finished, it will be in readiness for services.

Lay Concrete.—Dr. Bartle was here from North Bend yesterday and stated that a big crowd turned out to witness the laying of the first concrete by the Warren Construction Co. for the first hard surface paving in North Bend, yesterday morning. It is possible that arrangements may be made for more paving this season than have already been constructed.

For Stamp Exhibit.—Fred Magnusson has sent to Spokane for his stamp collection. There are now a number of stamp collectors in Marshfield and he desires to get them together and arrange an exhibit of the collections. He says that F. R. Kirk has a most excellent collection, including some very valuable ones. One of the rare ones in Mr. Kirk's collection is worth more than $200.

Asks Husband's Arrest.—Claiming that her husband "smokes and smokes and smokes," that he refuses to gather swill for the chickens and ducks and once hit her on the head with a bird cage Mrs. Herman Stone appeared in the justice court yesterday afternoon seeking the arrest of her husband. Judge Pennock issued no warrant but urged the woman to return to her home and make peace.

Allegany Trouble.—W. H. Stull, the Allegany roadmaster, was here today on business. He is doing considerable work on the roads and says they are getting in fine shape. Mr. Stull has been informed that a man named Ed. Hansen has entered protest to the county commissioners on the way that he conducts the district but he says he is willing to court investigation. D. L. Foote and other local autoists say that Mr. Stull is one of the best road supervisors in the county and always has his district in fine shape.

For Fire Alarm.—The Marshfield Fire Department is making arrangements to raise sufficient funds to install a fire alarm system in Marshfield. They declare that a good alarm system will do more to add to the efficiency of the Department than anything else. As the City Council will not pay for it, the Department will give a series of dances and benefits and hope to get the required amount within a few months. The first of the series of dances will be given Saturday night at the Eagles Hall and in addition to enjoying a good time, every one there will know that he is assisting a good cause.
