"See Reid About It." W. A. REID, 150 Front St.

ALTO—To Mr. and Mrs. Victor Alto, at their home in Eastside, May 15, 1915, a girl.

Service Postponed.—Owing to the absence of the vicar, there will be no service in St. Mary's church, North Bend, until next Wednesday evening.

New Home.—Rudolph Scherych, of the Coos Bay Bakery, and wife, will move into the new house which Carl Evertsen has just completed near Elsworth and Kruse.

Public Card Party.—This evening the ladies of the North Bend Episcopal Church will give a public card party in Taylor's Hall. A pleasant evening for all has been planned.

For Fire Escape.—The Eagle's hall is to be equipped with a new fire escape, an iron stairway leading from the dance hall to the ground. It is to be four feet wide so that it will accommodate a large number.

Cut His Finger.—Stanley Briggs who is employed at the C. A. Smith shingle mill, met with an accident last night. His hand got caught in a saw and the end of his thumb was cut off. He will be unable to work for some time.

Return from Salem.—Deputy Sheriff W. C. Laird returned Saturday to Coquille from Salem where he took some prisoners. J. L. Knight who assisted him in taking the prisoners out returned home Sunday.

Attach Money.—Three banks were attached today by the constable because of a suit brought by George Goodrum against F. Vernon to recover $75 claimed to be due on an automobile. The case was later dropped and settled out of court.

North Bend Council Meets.—There is a special meeting of the North Bend council called for this evening to consider the proposed grading of Virginia Avenue between Pony Slough bridge and the city dock. This was deferred, as far as final action was concerned, at the meeting a few weeks ago.

Double Wedding.—At his residence Saturday evening Rev. D. F. Bengston officiated at a double wedding when two brothers were married. Edwin Erickson was wedded to Miss Lilla Rasmussen and Waldemar Erickson was married to Miss Stella Broff. All four are residents of Bunker Hill.

Prof. Gjerdum in Portland.—At the solicitation of a central committee in Portland, Miss Sofie Hammer and Henrik Gjerdum will give a joint recital June 7th. This is a splendid engagement, and Prof. Gjerdum is to be congratulated upon receiving the invitation.

Auto to Coquille.—Lynn Lambeth made a trip to Coquille and return last night in his taxicab. He went over to get Paul M. Dimmick and E. R. Hickey of the Swayne and Hoyt Lumber company who came up from San Francisco. Despite the continued rains, the roads were not so bad and Mr. Lambeth says he made the run back in an hour and forty minutes.

Baby Contest.—Final arrangements are being completed for the baby contest of Thursday and Friday of this week. Cards have been mailed each mother who has a baby registered, notifying her of the day and hour to present the baby. Should any mother fail to receive a card, she may call 1523 North Bend for information. Every baby scored will receive a certificate. A copy of the certificates is on display with the diplomas. Meeting Deferred.—The meeting of the Port Commissioners for Saturday evening was deferred, according to Secretary Henry Bengstacken, because Engineer Charlson has not yet completed his formal report which he expects to make public regarding the state of the rock shoal in the lower bay. The meeting will probably be held some time during the week.

Loot Desk.—Some one gained entrance to the Orpheum theater with a skeleton key and looted the desk of B. R. Keller. The desk was locked but a key was used to open all the drawers except one and on this one the lock was broken. The papers were rifled. Mr. Keller left before the affair was discovered and Mrs. Keller was unable to say whether anything had been taken.

Business Improving.—Geo. Rotnor of the Woolen Mill stores who returned Sunday evening from a trip to Portland says that business is improving in the Rose City. He had quite a visit with J. L. Bowman who is interested with Mr. Rotnor in the Marshfield and North Bend stores and who is a former Coos Bay man. Mr. Bowman's made-to-measure clothing factory in Portland is building up a large business and he is greatly pleased with it.

Have Mumps.—R. Hendrickson of North Coos River was a Marshfield visitor today and reports that mumps are very prevalent in that section, especially in the Myrtle Bank school district.

Good Fruit Crop.—C. H. Dungan was down from South Coos River today. He says that the continued rains are bad for the strawberry crop. However the apple and plum prospects are fine and the smaller berries are also bearing well. The pear crop is good in streaks only, some orchards are looking fine while others are not doing so well.

Is Implying.—Jas Landrith was down from his Coos River ranch today on business. He states that a letter received a couple of days ago from Los Angeles stated that his brother, Phillip, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis is getting along fine. It was expected that he would be able to return to Monrovia before this. The physician expressed the belief that the appendicitis was an injury responsible for his broken health as tubercular trouble.

Finds Chain.—Through a Times' lost ad a gold watch chain and locket which Mike Kojo lost on Broadway the other day has been recovered. He advertised for it in The Times' want column yesterday and before 5 o'clock the missing locket had been brought to The Times office by Miss Elizabeth Flanagan, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Flanagan, who has found it. Kojo offered $5 reward for the recovery of the chain and locket and this will be paid to Miss Flanagan. Mr. Kojo, not expecting such quick returns from a lost ad, had not called at The Times office yet today to secure the chain and locket which he valued as a keepsake.
