BIDDING IS LOW

MUSIC CONSERVATORY TO BE BUILT AT ONCE.

Modern Structure to Contain Auditorium and Ten Rooms—Complete by August 1.

Bids for the erection of the Henrik Gjerdum Conservatory of Music have been opened in the office of Benjamin Ostlund, architect. Construction begins today and the structure near the corner of Eighth and Central avenue will be complete before August 1.

Refeland & Son, of Banker Hill, were the low bidders for the general contract, C. Kaiser, of North Bend, for the plastering; Pennock Brothers for the plumbing and heating; the Marshfield Electrical Construction Company for the wiring and electrical fixtures; Frank Hermand, painting; Pioneer Hardware, finish hardware, and Goring & Harvey, for the shades.

The building is to contain ten rooms and a large auditorium. It will also comprise living quarters on the second floor.

In speaking of the building Mr. Ostlund declared the bidding and the cost of material at the present to be lower than it has been for years previous to this.

BOOSTING COOS BAY

J. H. Bayliss of Marshfield is quoted in a Portland newspaper regarding Coos Bay as follows:

"Great things will happen our way when the Willamette Pacific and the Roseburg and Eastern railroads are built into Coos Bay. The Roseburg line will bring to tidewater the vast timber resources of Douglas County. When the jetty is built, our port should become the most important lumber shipping port on the coast."

THE SATISFIED CUSTOMER

Every storekeeper knows that the best advertisement he can have is a satisfied customer.

For that reason the modern merchant frowns on the practice of substitution.

When a customer sees an article advertised in The Times and calls for it by name, the alert storekeeper will be ready to provide it.

Indeed, the more up-to-date the minute retailers, co-operate directly with reputable manufacturers, and when the latter's advertising appears in The Times they show the goods in the window.

THERE IS NOTHING LIKE ADVERTISING. A SHORT TIME AGO A BOSTON NEWSPAPER HUNTED UP ONE OF THE PRETTY GIRLS OF THE 'HUB' CITY AND PRINTED HER PICTURE, DECLARING SHE WAS THE MOST BEAUTIFUL WOMAN IN MASSACHUSETTS. WITHIN THE NEXT THIRTY DAYS SHE HAD EIGHT HUNDRED OFFERS OF MARRIAGE. A PAPER IN VIRGINIA TAKING THE HINT FROM THIS, PRINTED THE PICTURES OF TWO FAMOUS BEAUTIES AND OFFERED A PRIZE TO THE ONE RECEIVING THE GREATEST NUMBER OF MARRIAGE OFFERS WITHIN TWENTY-FOUR HOURS AFTER THE PUBLICATION OF THE PORTRAITS. THE OFFERS POURED IN BY THE DOZEN, ONE BEAT BY THREE, AND THE PRIZE WAS DULY AWARDED. ALL THIS SHOWS THAT THE ORDINARY MORTAL DOES NOT RECOGNIZE A GOOD THING UNTIL AFTER ITS MERITS HAVE BEEN TOLD BY THE PRESS. THIS HOLDS GOOD IN EVERYTHING. IT HAS LONG BEEN SHOWN TO BE TRUE OF THE DRY GOODS MARKET, THE CLOTHING TRADE, WITH BOOTS AND SHOES AND REAL ESTATE, GROCERIES, THE DOCTOR AND THE DENTIST AND IS EQUALLY TRUE OF HUMANITY ITSELF. THEY COULD FIND JUST AS CHARMING BEAUTIES IN THEIR KITCHENS, BUT THE CHORUS GIRLS ARE ADVERTISED AND THE KITCHEN GIRLS ARE NOT; THEREFORE, THE FORMER CLASS ARE TOASTED AND FETED, WHILE THE POOR KITCHEN GIRLS ARE SNUBBED AND NEGLECTED. --- ARMOUR, S. D. HERALD.

IT IS A MATTER OF ADVERTISING. THAT WHICH IS ADVERTISED SELLS. THAT WHICH IS NOT ADVERTISED IS NEGLECTED.
