IT HAPPENED IN NEW YORK RECENTLY

Mr. Samuel Hopkins Adams, of the New York Tribune, reads an advertisement offering coats of an expensive, imported fabric at $12.

IT COULD NEVER HAPPEN HERE

Honesty, value and service are the three chief aims of this store. The truthfulness of our advertisements is as important to us as the honesty of our merchandise.

WE DESIRE YOUR CONFIDENCE

We want you to know and remember that your complete satisfaction is the only acceptable finish of a transaction here.

Teacher Injured.—Miss Elizabeth Moore, domestic science instructor, received a painful injury when she fell yesterday in the laboratory.

Elks Meet.—At a meeting of the Marshfield Lodge of Elks last evening, a proposition from Jas. Mott to put on a home talent play here under the auspices of the lodge was voted down as the members did not think it timely.

May Ask New Trial.—Ten days has been granted Graves and McInturf by Judge Coke for the filing of a plea for a new trial in the Waters-Davls case.

Alumni to Meet.—The Marshfield High School Alumni Association will meet to transact important business tomorrow night at 8 o'clock at the home of Miss May Preuss on South Fourth street.

Coin is Marked.—A 25-cent piece with a person's name stamped across the eagle came into The Times office today. W. Wettstein was the name left, presumably a mark set by a jeweler in the hopes that he might again run across the same piece of money.

More Suits.—Tom Minot, formerly a well known Marshfield man, and who has been more or less in the limelight through a number of suits started by him in connection with the old Coos Bay Wagon Road land grant, has started another suit in San Francisco.

Catch Wild Man.—Shouting at the top of his voice declaring his ability to speak seven different languages and in the same breath telling he was a wild man and dangerous, too, Professor Sedal "hippered" across the walk into the Carter Hotel this morning.

Walk 71 Miles in 19 Hours.—That he can walk a distance of 72 miles in 19 consecutive hours is the belief of L. A. Woodworth and his friends have so much confidence in his ability that they are willing to back him to the extent of $50 cash.

figures to average close to four miles an hour and will wear army walking shoes. The route will take him over the county road toward Myrtle Point.

In Los Angeles.—W. F. McEldowney writes that has located in Los Angeles. Mrs. McEldowney and daughter, and Mrs. Sutherland expect to leave Marshfield about June 1 to join him there.

Sues For Board Money.—John Arbos, formerly interested in the Ideal Restaurant, today filed a suit against James F. Boyles, trainman on the logging road, for $50. This Arbos claims is due the restaurant for meal tickets allowed Boyles.

Moves Into New Store.—Stock is being moved today by Manager Diment into his new two story store at the corner of Eighth and Hemlock streets. The business is being moved from the old location on Eighth street.

Australia Jack Visits.—"Australia Jack" came home today. He was picked up about noon and put in the Carter Hotel to sober up. This is his first appearance since about Christmas time and it is said he has been logging. Jack is a well known character about town and scarcely ever comes in without visiting with the city officials.

Steamship Man Coming.—Charles P. Doe, head of the North Pacific Steamship company, is expected in tomorrow from Portland on the Santa Clara, returning to his office in San Francisco. Mr. Doe was here once before, coming last June on the first trip of the George W. Elder.
