We have just received a fresh shipment of NATIONAL BISCUIT CO.'S CRACKERS and sweet goods, also of HEINZ' products. Vegetables and Fruits in entire variety. Agents for Chase & Sanborn's Seal Brand Coffee and Canister Teas. If you want really good coffee, try Seal Brand in 1, 2 and 5-pound tins.

SAY, YOU CENTRAL AVENUE BOOSTERS, AND ALL OTHER SPORTSMEN:

Take a look at our window. We don't mean the one with the mops, washboilers, etc., but the one showing our SAVAGE rifles. That new Savage 250-3000 is the latest model of the take-down hammerless, and believe me, boys, she's jake. Come in and examine it.

WOUGH!

Said a ranch hand, "I sure hate to plough.

For it always brings sweat to my brow.

When I am asked this year
If a plough I can steer
I'll say, "No sir, I do not know hough."
—Clay Church.

SMILE-A-WHILE

A CLAY PIGEON

The pigeon is a funny bird, it flies, but has no wings;

But it can fly "to beat the cats," and deliver a charge of s' t. But McKeown gets the "every time" —he's "Johnny on the spot."
A. E. NEFF.

SMILE-A-WHILE

Wants the Booster.—Claude Giles, who is sum booster from Myrtle Pt. delegated himself to make overtures to Ye Editor last week to move The Booster to M. Pt. He says that he is sure that if we would, two or three Myrtle Pt. fellers who borrow his Booster every week, might become cash subscribers. Such an inducement and such boosting from a man of such scholarly attainments and appreciation of the literature in the Booster are hard to resist, but we have determined not to move on until all our readers pay their subscription to The Booster. So we guess we'll stay awhile.

SMILE-A-WHILE

Tried to Stop His Paper.—H. J. McKeown visited The Booster office last week madder a wet hen and told us we could stop his paper instanter, being as he didn't want it no more in the future. When we asked Harry what objection he had to The Booster, especially when he hadn't paid a cent for same during the past three years, he said the reason he wanted it stopped was because we hadn't his name in the paper for nearly three weeks. Then we told Harry we would stop his paper providing he would pay us up to date and be glad to stop it into the bargain, but Harry refused to do this and so the paper is still going to him. When we can get time we shall look up Harry's past very careful to see if we can't find something concealed in it that will make scandalous reading for our subscribers and we will publish same with great cheer—unless of course Harry comes up to the scratch and pays for his paper and continues to be a subscriber as heretofore.

SMILE-A-WHILE

Back Again.—Doc. Toye, our tooth artist, has returned from the fair. Contrary to our expectations about Doc using his pull and bring a big piece of the expo (we forgot how to spell the rest of it) back to Central Avenue, Charlie Moore seems to have got to him while Doc was lookin' at the Zone, 'cause Doc only ways about 200 when he uster way about 2 forty five.

SMILE-A-WHILE

Poetic Notice.—Mel Duncan, our pome writer whose pomes has appeared in the Booster from time to time and also in the co seat papers, tuk a walk out into the woods alone last Sunday where he could commune with Nature and let poetic genius loose as we might say.

Mel accidentally sat down on a pitchy log and was stuck. Mel says this gives him a inspirashion to write a pome which he is now working on for the Booster. It is entitled "Stuck Again". We pesson this will be a reglar masterpiece. Look out for it in the Booster as soon as Mel sits it finished.

SMILE-A-WHILE

Medical Talk.—Some Central Avenue men find that operations for appendicitis start in with the rear pocket.

War.—And now the Central Avenue War College has placed billiard balls on the list as contraband of war. They say they have too much English on 'em. Scat!

Still Minus.—Our assist, fighting ed, ain't back from the fair yet although hiz money must he run out some time ago. Mebbe that's the reason that he ain't back yet.

Some Philosopher.—Charles Morse, at the Smoke House, is a keen observer of human nature. He says some people play pool like pinchushions—they always are getting stuck.

Weather Conditions.—It has been quite wet this week, but it maybe wetter next week—no one kin tell what else rainy weather might perdue.

Sportin' News.—There might be good fishing up Coos River or out at Ten Mile if it would only quit rainin' long enuf fer a feller to try it.

SMILE-A-WHILE

More War.—We stop the press to say that Captain Macgeann has just come over to Central Avenue to announce that the War College will issue no diplomas to graduates this spring, because the Austrians are back after Przemysl and the ceclegians will have to take the course all over again.

SMILE-A-WHILE

Needs Sunshine.—Ed Meade, our poet larlat, sez he can't furnish us a pome this wk. becu every time he gits something to rime with "Gentle raindrop" the sun has been sneaking out and he's afraid it would not be appropriate but we are satisfied to go without the poetry if he kin only make the sun shine.

SMILE-A-WHILE

Hinders Nuse.—Lest our readers think we are not furnishing them all the good accident news that they are entitled to, we beg to state that there ain't nun since Clay Church ain't got enuf munny yet to fix up his motorcycle and he ain't bin able to trade it to Dave Stafford for ice cream sodas. And we don't know how Dave wud get a machine unless he swapped a lot of fix water and beat Frank Pugsley out of his ice cream bill.

SMILE-A-WHILE

Some Booster.—Russ Tower was bribed over from Front Street the other day with a new Ford story. A friend of his, it seems, met a man by the roadside, standing looking up into a tree where a Ford car reposed in the branches. The man held a crank in his hand. "What's the matter?" queried the friend. "Oh, nothing much, my hand slipped, is all." Russ says he can't go to bed until he hears a new Ford story because the Ford always gets there—whether it is in a story or on the road.

SMILE-A-WHILE

Still Ailing.—Jack Harrigan is still on the absent sick list, but he is not so much on the sick list as he was last wk. Some wks. Jack is more on the sick list than other wks and some wks he is not so much. However, as 'Allie Neff is banking all the firm's profits instid of putting it in his jeans, Jack kin afford to be sick and enjoy trips to California and Medford and besides when he iz away he ain't so sick as he would be ef he'd to listen to Henry Sengstacken tell him how the Kaiser wuz liekin the Allies.

SMILE-A-WHILE

Geo. Cook, our est. Councilman, will look fine headin the big parade at Frisco whin our Howdy Pap goes to the fair. Our George is still our most popular politician even if Harry Kimball tried to edge in on him by movin' his desk over from Front street. However, Harry spins too much time, even if nothin else, in our rival communitie.

PERSONAL MENTION.

H. GORDON is now able to see sum improvement in his bad lamp so he ain't so blind as the big glasses made him luk.

SMILE-A-WHILE

JAY DOYLE sez business is too pressing fur him to give us eny news this week. Guess it is mo' ways than one from the way that Jay seems to be following in Art Peck's footsteps.

SMILE-A-WHILE

GEO. SEELIG, pop. first assist. to Ivy Condon, our enterprisin grocer, has been so bizz readin the war news that he ain't furnished us much news this wk. He sez that the way them German Turks are making a submarine navy fur the Allies Darnede's ain't slow.

SMILE-A-WHILE

FRED WEAVER sez that he got the edge on Ray Ollivant on wearin out the firm's bicycle becu he moved out into the suburbs a long time before Ray even had enybody to make him move. Fred's not so slow even ef he has ambishun to becum a raucher.

SMILE-A-WHILE

H. NASBURG, our newest Central ave. bizness man, ain't gone to Frisco yet as we sed he was going to last wk. He got off the jury, but evidently he didn't save enuf munny fur the trip yet and walkin' ain't good. Even 2 dollars a day pay don't enable a good jurymen to get rich fast even in Coquille.

SMILE-A-WHILE

AUGUST PRIZEEN was down to the reek of the Claremont and brot back as a souvenir an oil can. He is now wondering if all this talk about pirates is directed toward him, and if so, what can be done about it. He says he can't stand all of this talk about a can, and he asks help from those who can, to can it, and if they can't can it, who can?

LOU THOMAS come mighty near gitting over to Front st. this wk. whin he decided to move his planner and talking machine and a sheet of music in between Ivy Condon and Al Neff. But he didn't and we are still the music center.
