hall of the Episcopal church to combine the eating of eblcken with the talking over the troubles of the business men. This will be the quarterly meeting.

Joins Society.—At a meeting of the Sons of Norway, R. Bugge was initiated to membership. A social time was also enjoyed.

Lecture Tonight.—There will be a confirmation lecture in the Episcopal church at 7:30 this evening, according to the announcement made by Rev. Robert Browning.

Able to Be Out.—Dr. Burmeister of North Bend has been confined to his home by illness for some time past was able to be at his office today for the first time since taken sick.

Everybody Sober.—Judge Butler is wondering what has happened to the city and if everyone has turned good. It is at least four days since anyone has appeared before him charged with drunkenness, something that has not happened for several months. The hinges on the doors of the jail are said to be rusty from lack of use.

Knows Man Who Was Killed.—Word was received yesterday of the killing of James McCowan, an escaped convict from the Nevada State Penitentiary. He was shot at Reno, R. Starr of this city at one time lived in Nevada and knew McCowan when he was hauling freight between Wonder and Fallon. At that time Starr was driving a stage there. He did not know for what reason McCowan was sent to prison.

Silver Medal Contest.—A silver medal contest has been scheduled for Saturday evening at the M. E. church in North Bend in which all participants will be young women. They are Louise Elmsinger, Ida Neilson, Bertha Chapman, Olive Phillip, Ruth Gunera, Lillian Johnson and Opal Powell. The high school band will appear on the streets immediately before the contest and later march to the church where they will play several selections.

Mentions Coos Bay.—Peter B. Kyne's new story of Matt Peasley in the last issue of the Post contains particular mention of Coos Bay, speaking of it as a coal and lumber port and of the coasting ships that come in here for this trade. It is believed that the Lion and the Unicorn that he speaks of have direct mention of the Nann Smith and the Adeline. In many of his stories of this coast, Kyne makes use of local characters and features.

Two More Wheels Stolen.—Two more wheels have been stolen from the streets and the police are on the trails of the guilty parties. These make seven that have disappeared within a period of five weeks. One has been recovered. A young boy declared a man in front of the Blanco Hotel had given it to him. J. F. Telander left his bicycle standing at the curb by the Williams building and came out to find it gone. A wheel went from in front of the Art Decorating Company's place of business. It was at first believed a gang of outsiders was at work, but the officers are now inclined to believe it the work of boys.

Rubbers Go Down.—At least the shoe men are optimistic these days for they are pointing to the fact that rubbers are going down and that in all probability they will be on the market next year at a five per cent or better reduction. This, they say will be occasioned by the removal of the tariff on rubber. And so little Willie and Susan, his sister, and dad and grandma and even the dog, if necessary, can afford to keep their feet dry. And then, too, it is pointed out that, with this fact obtaining, here will be less rheumatism, less colds, pneumonia and similar ills and therefore it should not be said the Democratic party has not done a little toward making the world a wee bit happier.

Edwards and Ott new passenger launch. Cadillac leaves Marshfield at 8 o'clock Sunday morning for Allegany, returning at 6:00 p. m. Also, the Millicoma will leave here at 5:30 a. m. for the convenience of those desiring an earlier start. Round trip, 75 cents.
