KENSINGTON CLUB

Mrs. H. E. Kelly was a delightful hostess yesterday afternoon when she entertained at her home the ladies and two special guests of the Kensington Sewing Club. The hours were spent very enjoyably in sewing and social chat at the afternoon's close, Mrs. Kelly served a delicious luncheon. Mrs. C. W. Cumbers and Mrs. R. M. Jennings were present as special guests of the club and the regular members present were: Mrs. H. J. Lupton, Mrs. N. S. Matson, Mrs. A. O. Rogers, Mrs. C. F. McGeorge, Mrs. H. H. Harris, Mrs. C. S. Hoffman and Mrs. Kelly.

NORTH BEND SURPRISE PARTY

The Ladies Aid of the North Bend Presbyterian church tendered Rev. and Mrs. F. S. Shimian a surprise party at their home in North Bend Thursday evening, the event being in honor of the worthy couple's first year wedding anniversary. A pretty feature of the evening was a big bride's cake which the ladies had prepared and which was presented to Mrs. Shimian. E. F. Russell, toastmaster of the occasion, made some appropriate remarks and was responded to by Rev. Shimian, who read humorous selections from "Why Did He Marry Her?" This brought forth much laughter. The remainder of the evening was spent in a social way and later very appetizing refreshments were served by the ladies.

Those of the party were: Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Shimian, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Mandigo, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hazer, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Russell, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Rose, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Everitt, Mrs. W. R. Simpson, Mrs. B. B. Weldy, Mrs. V. E. Watters, Mrs. J. Mendo, Mrs. R. C. Holmes and Mrs. Robert McCann.

INTERESTING LODGE PARTY

Monday evening of this week at the I. O. O. F. hall was the scene of a jolly session of Coos Bay Circle No. 164, when their fraternal neighbors, Women of Woodcraft, of North Bend, were guests. The ladies had chosen sides and each side was to prepare a "stunt" as a surprise for the other side. A sumptuous banquet and an invitation to the North Bend ladies composed the stunts of one side while the other stunt was a very comical take off of some of Marshfield's leading citizens.

Following is the caste of characters:

Postmaster Hugh McLain
.....Mrs. F. H. Story
Ex-Mayor StrawMrs. J. L. Brown
Henry Sengstacken and the Port CommissionMrs. D. C. McCarty
South Slough Representative
.....Mrs. J. W. Chapman
Mrs. Tom Coke, Miss Annie Smith, Mrs. G. A. Bonebrake, Mrs. W. Sullivan and Mrs. Barnidge under the leadership of Mrs. John Pitman represented a delegation from the Coos Bay band and rendered some splendid music on cooking utensils.

Altogether the meeting was one of much merriment and one that will long be remembered by all who were there.

Among those present from North Bend were:

Mrs. Tom Chapman, Mrs. Julia Evans, Mrs. Kate Freeland, Mrs. E. Farrin, Mrs. N. G. Hames, Mrs. Henry Kern, Mrs. Walter Livingood, Mrs. John Lennon, Mrs. A. Martin, Mrs. J. Maska, Mrs. R. Marshall Mrs. A. H. McKay, Mrs. Stewart McDonald, Mrs. J. Tompkins, Mrs. W. Smith and Mrs. R. Dewar.

EASTERN STAR SOCIAL

Last Tuesday evening, the Eastern Star lodge enjoyed a very pleasant evening of cards and dancing. Delicious refreshments were served at a late hour. The affair was a delightful one. Miss Frances Frane having charge of the entertainment and Mrs. J. H. Stadden, the refreshments. These socials are given by the lodge once each month and are attended by a large number of the members.

ELKS' DANCE JUNE 23

Invitations will be issued next week for the Elks annual ball on the twenty-third of June in the Eagles' hall. Martin's ten-piece orchestra furnishing the music. Each member will be allowed the privilege of inviting one guest. The hall will be profusely decorated with the lodge colors, purple and white with woodland greens forming a charming background for the gay festivity. The general committee, Messrs. Catterlin, Conrad, Bultman, Gardner and Crosthwaite, are making extensive plans for this dance to excel any they have formerly given.

FOR MISS DUNNING

On Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. R. E. Irwin entertained at a very delightful sewing party at her home on South Fifth street for the pleasure of Miss Dunning of Berkeley, who is spending several days on the Bay. Choice roses were arranged artistically in the living room and den while red geraniums graced the tables. Social chat and fancy sewing were enjoyed until the afternoon's close when the hostess served a dainty luncheon.

Mrs. Irwin's invited list included: Miss Dunning, Mrs. A. T. Haines, Mrs. F. A. Haines, Mrs. A. B. Gidley, Mrs. F. E. Allen, Mrs. Geo. Murch, Mrs. Geo. Mandigo, Mrs. A. H. Powers, Mrs. F. W. Powers, Mrs. W. S. Nicholson, Mrs. B. W. Olson and Mrs. C. R. Peck.

AUCTION BRIDGE CLUB

Mrs. J. S. Lyons was hostess last Wednesday afternoon to the Auction Bridge Club, roses and carnations predominating in the parlor decorations. A delicious luncheon was served at one-thirty o'clock and was followed by an afternoon of bridge. Mrs. Frank Catterlin winning high score prize. In two weeks, Mrs. A. O. Rogers will entertain the club ladies. Those out were: Mrs. A. E. Adelsperger, Mrs. Carl L. Davis, Mrs. J. S. Hanson, Mrs. Frank Catterlin, Mrs. A. O. Rogers, Mrs. W. H. Kennedy, Mrs. E. Strohwaite and Mrs. Lyons.

STUNT PARTY

F. E. Conway took a notion that it would be nice for friends to collect and entertain themselves for an evening. There was no program arranged for only that each guest was to do something toward the program. Everything was impromptu and carried out to perfection.

There were about 125 people present, everyone declaring the party a grand success.

Merritt Conway opened the program with a reading that he had learned for the occasion. This he carried out beautifully in his little childish way. He also sang the little song, "A Bee Once Lighted on a Flower." Mr. Bugge asked permission to do his part next as he was very proud of his ability to play the clarinet, having studied with Sousa 50 years ago. After a lengthy speech, telling where he had received his education, etc., with great contortions of the face and body, some very beautiful tones were heard from the clarinet, but when he stopped to wipe his brows, that had become tired in his efforts, the music played on and Mr. John Ross came from behind the scenes, telling the tale that Mr. Bugge had deceived the audience. This was thoroughly enjoyed and the grand performer took his seat with a pompous air and was flattered to think he had played so well, having been in training only fifty years.

Dr. Morrow gave an original poem entitled "Moving Day." It was very true to life in many instances. Mr. Harry Gordon told a story about a "Ford."

Mr. Starr, who has spent ten years in Russia gave the correct pronunciations of some of the troublesome war names. This was a very instructive part of the program. Mr. Peck told some interesting stories. Little George Kelly, who has been speaking the English language but a few months, having lived in Mexico, spoke a little piece entitled "Going Back to Grandpa" without a foreign accent, and in a very cute manner. Mrs. Conway sang a child's song about a kitten, and also "I'll Take My Hat Off to You, Mr. Wilson." In the chorus she unfurled Old Glory, covering herself with it. This made a very effective scene.

Mrs. Kelly read a poem giving advice as to judging the ability of a workman, which was of great benefit to those who heard it.

Miss Florence Flanagan entertained with a very pretty and graceful dance, wearing a very becoming blue costume. Mrs. McMullen read a poem entitled "Myrtle's Arms," mentioning the vocation of the tenants. This was very clever and enjoyed immensely. Mrs. Bugge read some humorous numbers in her exceptionally fine manner, showing well her ability of power of expression. Mrs. McKnight sang a song with alliteration. She tried to teach the others but there were too many s's to learn. Mrs. Motley and Mrs. Ballinger played piano solos that were very greatly enjoyed. Mrs. Wilson gave a selection, very amusing, and heartily encored. It was in negro dialect, entitled, "Drawing the Society Line."

The five cent piccolo solo by Mr. Ross, Sr., was very clever and the old familiar strains found their way into the feet of the listeners who patting out a chorus on the floor.

Miss Bess Ayre was requested to sing "Parla," by Arditi, the song that she did so beautifully in Mrs. Conway's pupil recital last week. Mr. Jno. Ross gave a selection in Negro dialect, "Plain Presshin."

The young people gathered around the piano and sang Tipperary and other familiar songs, after which the guests danced until departing. Everyone went out with "the smile that never comes off."

During the program, Gill Barber and Thompson played a joke on the performers, presenting each one with cauliflower and cabbage.

DOMESTIC SCIENCE LECTURE

Miss Anna Turley, in charge of the Extension work of the Domestic Science Department of the Oregon Agricultural College was in Marshfield this week and spoke on Monday and Tuesday evenings at the Methodist hall, to about fifty women the first night and between thirty and forty the second night. As guest of the Coos Bay Women's Club, Miss Turley attended the Chaminade concert and praised very highly the musical work of the club.

GUILD OPEN MEETING

The open meeting of the Guild took place Tuesday afternoon in the Guild hall. The paper "Savings Banks in schools" read by Mrs. R. H. Corey was excellently delivered and told of the Savings bank system in the schools. Mrs. Corey had visited several schools in Portland and told of its success there. She also told how Mr. Tiedgen intended to establish their system in the schools here in the near future.

A very instructive paper on "Church Advertising," written by Mrs. Arthur McKeown and handled by Mrs. R. K. Booth in a very capable way gave much thought along those lines and evoked favorable discussion. Mrs. Chas. Stauff and Miss Bess Ayre, accompanied by Mrs. Earl Powell, sang very pretty solos.

After the reading of the papers, refreshments were served. Mrs. Herbert Lockhart and Mrs. S. C. Small will be hostesses at the meeting next Tuesday and Mrs. Otto Schetter and Mrs. Herbert Lockhart will have charge of the Altar work during the month of June.

Those present at the meeting were: Mrs. Schetter, Mrs. L. M. Noble, Mrs. B. Ostlund, Mrs. Ora McCarty, Mrs. Raymond, Mrs. E. Nasburg, Mrs. R. Bugge, Mrs. Mary McKnight, Mrs. E. L. McClure, Mrs. Montgomery, Mrs. Morrow, Mrs. Ayre, Mrs. Eva Gammill, Mrs. Powell, Mrs. Hoffman, Mrs. C. F. McGeorge, Mrs. Arthur McKeown, Mrs. Dindinger, Mrs. Frank Saechl, Mrs. Wm. Able, Mrs. H. E. Kelly, Mrs. H. O'Mara, Mrs. Heman, Mrs. R. E. Browning, Mrs. B. R. Chandler, Mrs. Jas. Forty, Mrs. V. A. Smith, Mrs. Chas. Stauff, Mrs. A. R. O'Brien, Mrs. Eugene O'Connor, Mrs. Edna Richardson, Mrs. E. K. Jones, Mrs. Sutherland, Mrs. W. F. McDowdoney, Mrs. Alice Sneddon, Mrs. R. N. Bolt, Mrs. J. W. Flanagan, Mrs. E. P. Lewis, Mrs. Claud Nasburg, Mrs. J. W. Bennett and Rev. R. E. Browning.

ALERT CLUB SESSION

The ladies of the Alert Club were very pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. Claud Piper on North Coos River Thursday afternoon, who had decorated her home for the occasion with cut flowers and ferns.

The afternoon session was opened with singing and roll call, the members responding with Bible verses. Several able papers were read. Mrs. Mahaffy told of the demoralizing thought in the so-called Sunday comics; Mrs. Terry and Mrs. E. C. Barker gave ideas of ways in which a city youth might spend a profitable vacation in the country and Mrs. H. S. Larson told how a country youth could spend his vacation to good advantage in the City. Mrs. Barker then recited a poem. Mrs. F. B. Rood told a Bible story, followed by a song by all.

The ladies then turned their attention to fancy work and making plans for the Fourth of July celebration.

Towards evening, Mrs. Piper, assisted by the Misses Merle Stemmerman and Hazel Cowan served a very tempting repast to the following club ladies: Mrs. Chas. Mahaffy, Mrs. John Holm, Miss Lou Mahaffy, Mrs. Jas. Nowlin, Mrs. F. B. Rood, Mrs. W. B. Piper, Mrs. V. K. Rood, Mrs. J. E. Noah, Mrs. H. S. Larsen, Mrs.

E. C. Barker, Mrs. Eugene Terry, Mrs. K. L. Heap, Mrs. Jack Nowlin, and Mrs. J. H. Price.

HOMES MADE HAPPY

Three homes were made very happy this week by the advent of new arrivals—a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Baines on South Fifth street, a son to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lowry on South Fourth street and a son to Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Muloney on Commercial avenue. These parents are to be heartily congratulated.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Miller entertained at dinner last evening in honor of their first year wedding anniversary, at their pretty home on North Twelfth street. Their dinner guests included Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Kaufman and little daughter, Claudine, Mrs. Grace Neville, Miss Winifred Watson and J. T. Brand.

COTILLON CLUB

The Cotillon Club closed its dancing season with a big dance at Loggie's Hall Wednesday evening. The hall was beautifully decorated with greens, baskets of ferns were set around on tabourets to fill each nook and corner.

As usual the Paul Jones was the most popular dance of the evening. The music, which was furnished by Martin's orchestra, was as always, of the most inspiring.

Delicious punch was served to the many guests.

The Cotillon Club has had a very successful season with two auto trips to Sunset Bay and three boat rides up Coos River besides its many dances, which were always looked forward to with great enthusiasm. The club will again organize in September, with the same membership.
