Pointers on Port Barnum

One customer said this week, 'I never saw a finer location for suburban homes than PORT BARNUM. Have you been out to look over this ideal location? If not, why not? It is worthy of your careful consideration and will only cost a few minutes of your time.'

FRIZEEN & DUNCAN 68 CENTRAL AVENUE

Marshfield. It is said the company is planning on moving the pipe to conform with the lines of the plant.

To Give Play.—The Marshfield Moose Lodge is planning to put on a home talent play 'Brown of Harvard,' under the direction of Jas. Mott, July 10 and 11.

Berries Ripen Early.—Will Elckworth came in today from Millicema with a box of ripe blackberries and red huckleberries. He says it is the earliest the wild berries have ripened in years.

Peaches on Market.—Local merchants today have peaches on the market the first shipment to be received here from San Francisco. Apricots made their appearance a few days ago.

Flowers to Graveyard.—All day today there were great armfuls of flowers, roses, lilies and vines and hosts of wreaths taken to the cemeteries to be placed on the graves of the dead soldiers and departed relatives. Many others will be out early tomorrow morning with flowers.

Kretzer Better.—Thayer Grimes wired yesterday that Dorsey Kretzer continues to rapidly improve at Chicago, news that will be most gratifying to the many friends of the family on the Bay. That his condition is most favorable is further indicated by Mr. Grimes' intimation that he will soon return to New York City where he and Miss Jessie Hinsdale are to be married soon.

Seek New Bridge.—It is said that a petition has been circulated at Powers and on the Morris ranch asking the County Court to build a wagon and pedestrian's bridge across the river between Powers and the Morris ranch. It was understood that the railroad objects to people crossing on its bridge where the company would be liable for accidents. The cost of the bridge, if erected, is expected to be between $5000 and $6000.

Bicycles Are Recovered.—J. F. Tandler and A. T. Lewis are both the proud possessors of bicycles after mourning the loss of the machines and having the police on the lookout. The wheel of Mr. Tandler was found about five miles up Istimus inlet where the police say it was discovered standing alongside a fence. Mr. Lewis found that some member of his family was playing a little joke on him and took the bicycle home and placed it in the cellar for a few days.

Close to Firing Line.—A picture is reproduced in one of the Portland papers of Dr. E. V. Morrow, formerly of Marshfield, taken together with other members of the American Red Cross about to leave London for the Belgium hospital at La Panne. Dr. Morrow writes 'that he is but 15 miles from the firing line. Because of the dangerous position, he says, there is some talk of moving the hospital farther to the rear. Letters from there are "highly" censored, he adds. Dr. Morrow left Marshfield about nine weeks ago for the front.'
