THE HOMESTEADER

My stakes are driven deep into the soil. My plow has turned a furrow thru the loam. My tent gleams where the cactus flowers nod; That's all—but, stranger, it is Home.

OIL IN WESTERN OREGON

APPARENTLY well founded reports of oil indications are not infrequent in Western Oregon, and these reports have led to the hopes that oil strikes of importance may some time be made here.

There isn't anything in the world nicer than a pretty Coos Bay girl who can manufacture a blush without digging into her hand bag for the rouge.

INFLAMMABLE gas escapes from coals and swamps along the coast and has been reported in one or two deep wells.

THE gas that is found in deer wall is regarded by the government geologists as more significant, because it comes out of the solid rock just as does the gas in the large producing field.

WITH THE TOAST AND THE TEA

GOOD EVENING You will find as you look back upon your life that the moments that stand out above everything else are those when you have done things in a spirit of love.—Drummond.

A PRAYER I ask not for a selfish joy, O Lord. But rather let me joy to others bear; Use Thou my hands to grant their humblest prayer;

When a man remembers there are 2,000,000,000 people in the world he wonders why trouble happens to pick him out and make him the goat.

If some Coos Bay men would devote as much energy to hard work as they do to cursing their luck they wouldn't have anything to cuss about.

A woman's mighty queer, by Jng! For, he she thin or stout, She'll wear herself out worrying About what she'll wear out.

QUESTION FOR THE DAY

The baker may a wonder be, And what I say is so. But when he has the money, why Is it he kneads the dough?

The executive committee of the Marshfield Chamber of Commerce and the general meeting of the Chamber will be held Friday evening, June 4th, 1915, at 8 o'clock.

WELL, LOOK WHO'S HERE! WRONG, IT'S NOT JOHN D.

No, it isn't John D. The furrowed brow of this strange individual, the sharp, sparkling eyes, the wide mouth, the thin lips and last but not least, the almost total absence of hair where the hat is worn, are all striking characteristics of the world famed "Oil King," but it isn't he.

NOT JOHN D.—HE'S ONLY THE MEDICINE MAN APPEARING IN 'THE HURON CONVERTS' (MUTUAL RELEASE)

stated that the accompanying photograph is that of a "medicine man," a member of the tribe of Reliance-Majestic Indians who figure prominently in the photograph, "The Huron Converts," filmed by the Reliance studio for release in the Mutual program.

Be Sure How Your Meat is Kept

With the approach of the summer season, our Cold Storage plant becomes more than ever a factor that every meat consumer should consider. The Cold Storage plant at all seasons of the year permits the meat to be properly kept and ripened before being delivered to the consumer but in the summer season when the flies and sunshine threaten fresh meat, you should be sure about the kind of meat you are getting. In addition to our usual excellent meat supply, this week we have some very fine chicken, spring lambs and fresh pork.
