

The "Duke"—correct style in every detail—select materials—"Natural Shape" lasts for comfort.

Pay $5

for your next pair of shoes—it's like making an investment—in footwear. The initial outlay for a pair of Florsheims may be more than you have been paying for shoes but the returns will show a larger percentage in length of service, added comfort and individual style.

Woolen Mill Stores Marshfield North Bend

LOCAL BREVITIES

JUNE TIDES Time and Heights of tides at Marshfield. The tides are placed in order of occurrence, with their times on the first line and heights on the second line of each day...

Table with 4 columns: Time, Height 1, Height 2, Height 3. Rows for 7 Hrs, 8 Hrs, 9 Hrs, 10 Hrs, 11 Hrs, 12 Hrs, 13 Hrs, 14 Hrs, 15 Hrs.

WEATHER FORECAST [By Associated Press in Coos Bay Times.] OREGON—Fair, Northwest winds.

LOCAL TEMPERATURE RECORD For the 24 hours ending at 4:43 a. m. June 7, by Benj. Ostlund, special government meteorologist: Maximum...68 Minimum...49

Hold Bazaar.—The Ladies Aid of the Norwegian Lutheran Church will hold their semi-annual bazaar in the church parlors Saturday evening, June 12th.

Erecting Bungalow.—D. McIntyre is making preparations for the erection of a modern one story bungalow on his property on Second street north, near the top of the hill.

Council Will Meet.—The city fathers are to meet this evening, having for the time being abolished the meeting every two weeks plan because they say the late hours are not a good way to set an example for the rest of the city.

Excursion popular.—A large number of people took advantage of the Sunday excursion to Coos River yesterday and the Rainbow was crowded with picnickers who witnessed the ball game in the afternoon.

Court Reopens.—The circuit court at Coquille reopened again this morning after a weeks recess. The case of Moon and Barclay versus Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Barry was resumed.

Launch Strikes Snag.—The gasoline launch Atlantic operated by Captain Lloyd and with his family aboard struck a snag yesterday in front of the Seaman ranch on the South Fork and was badly damaged.

Are Guests of City.—Charles Meyers enjoys the lights of the city. He says he likes the Great White Way

MARSHFIELD-BANDON AUTO STAGE Via Coast Road Leave Marshfield daily at 8 a. m. 3 p. m. Leave Bandon daily at 8 a. m. 3 p. m. FARE $2.00 and all that sort of thing. Anyway he wobbled down it last night and for the next two and one half days will sojourn in the Carter Rest Cantarium. N. C. Brown came better prepared.

To Open Store.—L. D. Cole, time-keeper at the Hennessey mine and postmaster at Delmar, is figuring on opening a general store there.

Plan Picnic.—The members of the Coos Bay Cow Testing Associations will have a big gathering at the Sealander place near Sumner June 6.

Meet Today.—Orvil Wilson came down from Sumner today to attend a regular meeting of the directors of the Coos Bay Farmers Exchange.

Car Accident.—Saturday night, a party of Coquille autoists met with a mishap on a curve between Coal-Edo and Coquille. The Overland car skidded and two wheels were broken off.

Slow Trip Up.—P. M. Wilbur has returned home from a visit to the San Francisco Exposition. He came up to Bandon on the steamer Elizabeth. The vessel was from Wednesday until Sunday making the trip from San Francisco to Bandon on account of bucking heavy winds.

Cuts Wrist.—While splitting kindling at his ranch at Beaver Hill this morning, Mr. Madden's axe slipped, cutting a bad gash in the wrist. An artery was severed. Several stitches were necessary to close the wound.

O. A. C. Commencement.—Invitations have been received by The Times from the Oregon State Agricultural College for the exercises of the forty-sixth annual commencement June 6 to 8.

Dredge Deepens River.—Captain H. E. Edwards is enthusiastic over the work being done by the bucket dredge Oregon. He says that with the work of last week completed there is now five feet of water 300 feet below the landing at Allegany during low tide where before there was only between three inches and a foot.

Seek the Wily Fish.—In quest of the wily trout that lurk in the deep holes, Dr. Vaughn, Charles McClees and Ferd Painter arose and left at 2 a. m. yesterday morning in a machine for Brewster Valley where all day they fished returning last night reporting success.

MISS MARTHA DONALDSON, daughter of Captain and Mrs. Donaldson, with her brother Robert Donaldson, a student of the University of California, are here visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Williams.

Calling cards printed at The Times office.

ORPHEUM "Where Motion Pictures Look Better" TONIGHT LAST CHANCE TO SEE SHORE ACRES as strong a feature attraction as has ever been shown in Marshfield.

PERSONAL MENTION

MRS. J. D. GOSS and Roger Goss are at Ten Mile Lake visiting for a few days.

B. IVERSON, of the dredge Seattle, motored over from Bandon and back today.

O. M. DAVIS, of Bandon, was a visitor here in the city Saturday and Sunday.

MRS. H. S. LARSON, of Allegany, was down yesterday visiting with friends for the day.

C. W. WOLCOTT left yesterday for Portland, where he will take in the Rose Festival.

CAPTAIN J. R. LIGHTNER is under the weather, having been indisposed for a few days.

MRS. G. M'COMB, of Myrtle Point, was an over Sunday visitor in the city this morning.

COL. ROSA of Bandon has returned home from San Francisco where he has been on a visit.

ADAM PERSHAKER who has been at Oakland, California, during the past winter has returned to Bandon.

JOHN D. GOSS returned Saturday from a week's trip to Salem where he argued two cases before the Supreme Court.

WILL HENNESSEY came in from Delmar Saturday to spend Sunday. He reports everything going fine at the mine.

MR. AND MRS. FRANK HEATH yesterday left on the Kilburn for a visit to the Fair expecting to be gone for a few days.

MRS. P. M. WILBUR went down to Empire on Saturday to visit for a short time with Mrs. James Magee, returning today.

MRS. P. M. TULLY and two children left this morning for Los Angeles where she is called by the death of her mother.

MAJOR C. B. ZEEK, of Bandon, came over from there Saturday and yesterday went to Portland on the Breakwater.

MRS. MARY E. THOMPSON, who has been teaching at the Eastport school, went to Portland yesterday on a vacation trip.

DEPUTY SHERIFF ANDREW DAVIS came over from the county seat this morning on business and returned this afternoon.

MISS ALMA EKBLAD went north on the Breakwater yesterday and will be in Portland in time for the Rose Festival this week.

TOM JAMES, Frank Catterlin and J. Q. Jarvis returned Saturday evening from a week's business trip to Gold Beach and Wedderburn.

MR. AND MRS. A. G. HAINES left yesterday for their home in Port Dodge, Iowa, after visiting here with Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Haines and Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Haines.

MISS DAGMAR FLEISBURG finished with her high school work, left on the Breakwater for Portland yesterday where she will visit during the Rose Carnival.

COACH ROYAL NILES, of the Marshfield High School, left on the Breakwater yesterday morning for Portland where he states he intends to spend the summer. He will return here in the fall.

DR. JUNE MARTIN who was called to Boone, Iowa, by the illness of her mother, expects to leave there for Coos Bay June 29. Her mother has entirely recovered from her illness.

G. T. TREADGOLD returned to his home in Bandon Saturday night via the old Coos Bay wagon road from Salem, where he has been attending to matters before the Oregon Supreme Court.

JUDGE COKE and Court Reporter A. B. Loud went back to Coquille on the morning train to resume the term of the Circuit Court adjourned a week ago to give the jurors a chance to go home.

MR. AND MRS. W. F. IRISH left yesterday on the Kilburn for San Francisco where they will spend their vacation and take in the

J. C. Penney Co. Next Door to the Marshfield Post-Office. LEATHER COUNTER POCKETS, SOLE LEATHER COUNTERS, FULL VAMPS, LEATHER PULL STRAP & BACK STAY, SOLID LEATHER HEELS, SOLID LEATHER SOLES & INSOLES. Have you tried a pair of the OLD HONESTY, the shoe that is all leather. Just the thing for ranch and mill work.

Fair, Mrs. Irish has just finished her school year in the North Bend schools.

MRS. E. CAREY of Empire was a Marshfield shopper today.

MRS. J. T. COLVER of Catching Inlet is a Marshfield shopper.

MRS. J. A. GOODWILL of Coos River spent the day in Marshfield.

L. F. CROUCH was here today on a short business trip from North Inlet.

FRED HOLLISTER of North Bend was a Marshfield business visitor this afternoon.

A. E. WARREN, a North Bend attorney went to Coquille on business this morning.

ANDREW ANDERSON and daughter were shopping visitors in the city today from Lakeside.

C. R. PECK went over to the county seat this morning resuming his case in the circuit court.

TOM GOODALE, Charles Powers and Judge Watters, of North Bend, went back to jury duty at the county seat this morning.

MISS MABLE FARLEY left yesterday for Portland from where she will go on to Shilpherd's Springs to visit her mother and father.

DR. BURMEISTER came back to North Bend with a good basket of fish this morning from Ten Mile where he had been since Saturday.

RAY PINKERTON, the "Cranberry King" of North Inlet, brought down a box of chanberry plants this morning. These will be shipped to the exhibit at the Fair.

MRS. GEORGE STEPHENSON, of North Bend returned this morning from a months trip to California. She was met at Eugene by Mr. Stephenson who was returning from Newport.

EUGENE CROTHWAITE, accompanied by Mrs. Crothwaite and two children left yesterday on the Kilburn for San Francisco to visit at the Fair. They are planning on a stay of at least three weeks in California.

W. O. MILNE, the wool buyer who was an annual trip through this section gathing in the fleeces, has been here for a few days. He is paying from 25 to 28 cents per pound whereas he only paid from 18 to 21 cents last year.

N. O. WELANDER, of Minneapolis, left Saturday for his home, via San Francisco, after a short visit with his brother-in-law, Hugo Quist. Sometime ago he purchased a fruit ranch in Washington and was making a western trip to see it and visit his relatives.

MRS. J. M. UPTON and son Monroe arrived Saturday night from Roseburg to visit at the home of her parents, Capt. and Mrs. Hans Reed in Ferndale. Arthur Upton and Jeanette Upton preceded them here a few days. The family will spend part of the summer with Judge and Mrs. Upton at Langlois.

ANSWERS TO WANT ADS Answers to the following Want Ads are being held in the Times office for the parties to call for them: Box "J," Address 775 So. 11th st. Box "C," Box "A," Box "H," Geo. Deeter.

NEW TODAY FOUND—Near Bunker Hill—Ring of keys. Owner may have same by paying for this ad at the Times office.

FOR RENT—Separate rooms and apartments. Day phone 413. Evening 49-L.

WANTED—Competent girl for general housework. Apply Mrs. A. H. Powers.

FOR SALE—Cheap, small rooming house. G., care Times.

FOR SALE—Lots in West Marshfield. $350 and $400. I. S. Kaufman & Co.

FOR SALE CHEAP—Trim, new cottage on Jitney line, owner must leave town. Will pay ten per cent on investment. $650. I. S. Kaufman & Co.

FOR SALE—Celery plants. Phone 3117.

FOR SALE—Dairy and stock farm reasonable. Address H. W. Snodgrass, Sumner, Oregon.

WANTED—Any kind of work by Girl. Hotel work preferred. Phone 336-X.

FOR RENT—Modern bungalow, South Seventh street Eastside. Phone 398-R.

FOR RENT—Furnished room. Apartment One, over Postoffice.

FOR RENT—Modern bungalow, furnished. Phone 247-R.

FOR RENT—Myrtle Arms, modern furnished apartments, free heat and water. $25 per month up.

FINANCIAL I AM receiving applications for 1st mort. loans on improved ranches. F. E. Conway, Myrtle Arms Apt. 4

FOR TRANSFER AND STORAGE OF HOUSEHOLD GOODS FREIGHT AND BAGGAGE Call FERGUSON TRANSFER Phone 163 Residence Phone 13-J Market Ave. and Waterfront

The Noble Theater The home of PARAMOUNT FEATURE SERVICE SEVEN REELS OF ALL NEW PICTURES LIFE OF ABRAHAM LINCOLN A splendid two-reel picture that will please the old and young alike.

TELEPHONE SERVICE TO POWERS We are pleased to announce to our patrons the extension of our long distance telephone service to Powers. A long distance pay station has been established in the Busy Corner Drug Store at Powers.

Marshfield-Coquille Auto Stage Leave Coquille 7:00 A.M. 9:00 11:00 P.M. 1:00 3:00 6:30 7:30

The MOOSE present "Brown of Harvard" See Page 2, Today's Times Orpheum Theater, June 14-15