of Boat Containing Winches and Other Equipment Taken Off and Brought Ashore,

Capt. John Swing, of the gasoline schooner Tramp, has saved a portion of the wreck of the Claremont. He removed from the jetty the bow of the boat. It was sawed off in a leagth of about 60 feet and lowered onto a scow and safely landed. Cap-tain Swing bired a force of men to him and it was quite a mechan-

The portion which was saved contained five winches and other equipment of the vessel and is said to be worth several thousand dollars. Whether the portion of the wreck will be held outright by Captain Swing or held for salvage from the owners is not known, but at any rate it was saved by Captain Swing and is now in his possession.
