FIREMEN TURN DOWN OFFER OF FOURTH CONCESSION

Say Expenses Too Great. Seek Races Here Of Horse Cart Companies of The County

Marshfield firemen will not take over the dance concession for the Fourth of July according to their decision at a special meeting of the department in their hall last evening. A race of the county volunteer hose teams as one of the features of the celebration's athletic events will probably be scheduled.

At the last meeting of the Chamber of Commerce a committee from the fire department asked a free concession to give an open air dance. Chairman Jennings, of the celebration committee, then stated this that there would probably be discord among the donors of funds if they knew any concessions were being given away.

The concession was offered the firemen at $50 and it was pointed out that they would be able to clear a good sum in excess of that amount. They stated their use of the money would be the purchase of a fire alarm system for the city which was not a private matter but a cause of benefit to all.

Offering of the free concession with the understanding they would erect a band stand and put in the seats for an open air dance platform at the corner of Market and Second streets was made to the firemen last night.

They declared the expenses for this would amount to over $200 and thereby make a profit uncertain and the matter was voted down.

An effort will now be made by the fire boys to have a purse of about $50 put up here as an inducement to the horse cart teams of the county to come here and race. Challenges are to be sent out at once, it is stated.

At the present time Marshfield has possession of the cup and has had for two years. They must win it a third time before it becomes their permanent possession.

START INJUNCTION READY FOR FOURTH

FRIENDLY SUIT BEGUN TO TEST RAILROAD BONDS

Action Will Hasten Construction of New Road and Mill at Roseburg.

ROSEBURG, Oregon, June 11.—Harry Pearce, through his attorney, O. P. Coshow, has filed a petition in the Circuit Court, asking that the Council be enjoined from entering into any contract with Kendall Brothers and from issuing any part or all of the bonds which were authorized at the election held here last Thursday.

This suit is regarded as a friendly one to test out the validity of the election and the bonds and is filed at this time in order to expedite the work of railroad construction. A decision on the injunction is expected within a few days from Judge Skipworth, who will hear the application. As soon as his decision is announced the case will be appealed to the Supreme Court where a decision will probably be handed down within a very few weeks. A suit of this nature is necessary before bond buyers will purchase municipal bonds of this character.

Capital a Million.

Articles of incorporation of the Roseburg-Eastern Railroad Company, capital stock $1,000,000 which plans a line from Roseburg eastward to a point where the North Umpqua river intersects with the western boundary of the Umpqua National Forest Reserve, have been filed with Commissioner of Corporations Schulerman at Salem.

The incorporators are Joseph McCell, J. F. Barker, A. T. Marshall, B. W. Strong, O. P. Coshow and John W. Oliver.

Will Enter Contract.

The next step will be for the city to enter into contract with Kendall Bros. for the construction of the railroad. The Mayor will appoint a committee to arrange the contract.

PLAN BONFIRE SOCIAL.

Eastport Sunday School Will Entertain Saturday Night

The members of the Eastport Union Sunday school will give a bonfire social tomorrow night at the foot of Idaho street in First addition. If the weather is not favorable and there is rain the event will be postponed for one week as Saturday night is the only time convenient to hold the picnic.

There will be a bonfire to make good cheer and it will be a strictly out of doors affair. The ladies will bring baskets of lunch and these will be sold and the proceeds of the sales will go toward buying a new organ for the Sunday school.

The organization now has a building in which services are held and there is an average attendance of 42. A new organ is needed and the social is to help the organ fund.

MRS. CARL SMEDBURG was among the visitors in the city today from Catching Inlet.

The Bandon stage now leaves at 7 a. m. and 4 p. m. from Marshfield. Fare $2.00.

COMMITTEES FOR CELEBRATION ARE MADE PUBLIC

Some of Cleverest and Most Exciting Events Ever Held on Bay Stated for Anniversary

The eleven committees to take charge of the Fourth of July celebration were announced today by the chairman of the executive committee of the Chamber of Commerce, R. M. Jennings. In most cases only the chairman of the committees were chosen, the purpose being to allow the heads to choose their own working partners. Though the program is not announced yet, it is understood there will be on it some of the cleverest and most exciting events ever held on the bay.

J. C. Kendall, as head of the water sports, is now preparing for fast motor boat races, for swimming events and also for a surf board riding contest. It is expected that these features will be given a front rank place on the final program.

Two parades have been arranged. George Goodrum will arrange for the automobile parade and Fred Wilson for the scenic exhibit of floats. The committees are as follows:

Finance—A. J. Mendel, George Rotner and Harry Kimball.

Advertising—Dr. G. W. Leslie, T. F. Bennett, I. S. Kaufman and E. A. Tiedgen. This same committee will also have charge of the program and the attractions, the belief being that the two activities should be grouped together and will result in better work.

Decorations—Irving Chandler.

Water Sports—John C. Kendall. It is understood he will be assisted by A. H. Powers and A. O. Roger.

Field Sports—Arthur McKeo.

Concession—Frank Horton.

Rest Room—Coos Bay Women's Club.

Music—A. J. Mendel and George Rotner.

Automobile Parade—George Goodrum.

Civic Parade—Fred Wilson.

With these committees appointed it will soon be possible for them to have outlined the activities of the two days' celebration, July 3 and 5.

PLAYS THE VILLIAN MAIL COMES EARLY

BEN DAVIS TAKES IMPORTANT PART IN MOOSE PLAY

Tickets for "Brown of Harvard" On Sale Tomorrow At One Price of Fifty Cents

Although "Brown of Harvard," the most famous college play which the Moose will present here next Monday and Tuesday, is a comedy, it nevertheless has one of the most villainous villains that dramatic author ever conceived of.

Victor Colton in "Brown of Harvard" is a scoundrel that any audience would enjoy hating. He is responsible for all the trouble in the play, and almost succeeds in letting the English crew defeat his alma mater.

The part of Colton will be played by Ben Davis. To look at him off the stage you would never guess the amount of rascality he is capable of portraying behind the foot lights. He gets himself thoroughly hated before he has finished his first speech and from then on until the end of his villainous career he keeps on doing one mean thing after another; getting meaner every minute.

You must not think from this description that Colton is a blood and thunder melodramatic villain. He is exactly the reverse. There is no more natural and logical character in the play than Colton. His meanness is a part of his make up. Colton couldn't be natural if he wasn't just as mean as he is.

No better villain than Ben Davis ever appeared in amateur production here or anywhere else. He is born actor, and the director could have searched the county over without finding a better man for the famous scoundrel of "Brown of Harvard." Ben Davis as Victor Colton next Monday evening will be one of the big features of the best amateur performance ever staged in the state.

The seat sale for both Monday and Tuesday's performances of "Brown of Harvard" will open at the Busy Corner tomorrow morning at nine o'clock. Be there early if you want your choice of seats. The price for all seats is 50 cents—no higher. Seats may be reserved by telephone after 9 a. m.
