The Noble Theater

TODAY

Newspapers, EVERY NEWS THAT... and her son, WILLIAM HARVEY TOAK, in a wonderful show in the persons of Mr. and Mrs. Mackintosh.

MEMORIES OF MACKINNON

This is a house where the best of the city's sights are enjoyed. It is the home of the famous "THE FAST NASH BANG". It is a business of the highest order.

This is a program that will please the mind.

Attention, dear boy, for the children, it is too much...

This week Wednesday night, Parliament Avenue, East. Room 25, by wealthy, and the first hour, Alonzo, to the Free News in five parts.

Wednesday and Friday nights, "Americanization," (the form of the evening) in "Americanization." A world, indeed, the most wonderful show in seven parts.

MEMORIAL PERSONAL MENTION

LUCY PENDERGRASS was a vaudeville star of the early days.

C. L. TAYLOR of the Comiskey herald was in Baltimore yesterday.

J. J. WELCH was over Saturday and Sunday from his home at 131, 8th Avenue.

MATT L. MAY is at the Sunday morning train to call on his brother in New York.

A. C. KENDALL is a citizen of this city in the morning.

SCHOOLS, VICTORIA B. A. JOLLY is the principal of the school in this district.

Steamship, 1st class, to Cuba.

CARL BADIS, of the South-Western company, went up to Powers this week.

E. J. MANNING, of the Western Union, was here yesterday.

CARL ALDERSTEIN returned yesterday from a business trip to Portland.

H. H. CLAYTON, and family, D. H. LANE and family, went back to Bremer Valley.

AND MRS. A. TOBERN's son, L. H. TOBERN, has returned from a business trip to Portland.

JOHN LODGE and son Lefton left the early morning train yesterday for California where she will travel with the family.

DAVE ROBERTSON and son, left yesterday for California.

MAX TERRY and J. B. TERRY were in San Francisco yesterday.

CARL WATSON is a visitor in Cleveland this morning, 1100 W. 3rd Street.

CARL MALICK, a visitor in Cuba this morning, 1100 W. 3rd Street.

CARL BADIS, of the South-Western company, went up to Powers this week.

E. J. MANNING, of the Western Union, was here yesterday.

CARL ALDERSTEIN returned yesterday from a business trip to Portland.

H. H. CLAYTON, and family, D. H. LANE and family, went back to Bremer Valley.

AND MRS. A. TOBERN's son, L. H. TOBERN, has returned from a business trip to Portland.

JOHN LODGE and son Lefton left the early morning train yesterday for California where she will travel with the family.

DAVE ROBERTSON and son, left yesterday for California.

MAX TERRY and J. B. TERRY were in San Francisco yesterday.

CARL WATSON is a visitor in Cleveland this morning, 1100 W. 3rd Street.

CARL MALICK, a visitor in Cuba this morning, 1100 W. 3rd Street.

CARL BADIS, of the South-Western company, went up to Powers this week.

E. J. MANNING, of the Western Union, was here yesterday.

CARL ALDERSTEIN returned yesterday from a business trip to Portland.

H. H. CLAYTON, and family, D. H. LANE and family, went back to Bremer Valley.

AND MRS. A. TOBERN's son, L. H. TOBERN, has returned from a business trip to Portland.

JOHN LODGE and son Lefton left the early morning train yesterday for California where she will travel with the family.

DAVE ROBERTSON and son, left yesterday for California.

MAX TERRY and J. B. TERRY were in San Francisco yesterday.

CARL WATSON is a visitor in Cleveland this morning, 1100 W. 3rd Street.

CARL MALICK, a visitor in Cuba this morning, 1100 W. 3rd Street.

CARL BADIS, of the South-Western company, went up to Powers this week.

E. J. MANNING, of the Western Union, was here yesterday.

CARL ALDERSTEIN returned yesterday from a business trip to Portland.

H. H. CLAYTON, and family, D. H. LANE and family, went back to Bremer Valley.

AND MRS. A. TOBERN's son, L. H. TOBERN, has returned from a business trip to Portland.

JOHN LODGE and son Lefton left the early morning train yesterday for California where she will travel with the family.

DAVE ROBERTSON and son, left yesterday for California.

MAX TERRY and J. B. TERRY were in San Francisco yesterday.

CARL WATSON is a visitor in Cleveland this morning, 1100 W. 3rd Street.

CARL MALICK, a visitor in Cuba this morning, 1100 W. 3rd Street.