Is a Graduate.—Among those who graduated from the Oregon Agricultural College this year was Miss G.
Gretchen Sherwood, of Coquille.

Club Changes.—The Kensington Club will meet Friday with Mrs.
C. F. McGeorge instead of Mrs. A.
E. Jensen.

Back on Old Run.—Wm. Kardell who is the oldest conductor on the local railway and who has been serving on the North Bend-Marshfield run since that was started, has resumed the old run to Myrtle Point.

In Carter's Hotel.—Six feet slipped last night and three guests were given quarters in the Carter Hotel.
They were A. D. Aiken, W. Ingram and H. Strummers, two of whom appeared before Judge Butler to answer for their transgressions, the third man promising to be good.

Mineral Investigation.—Prof. Mitchell of Eugene and G. M. Butler of Corvallis are expected here the last of the week en route to Curry County to make an investigation of the mineral deposits in that section for the Oregon Bureau of Mines.
They expect to spend about six months on the job.

On Big Boat.—Mrs. C. H. Mears is in receipt of word that N. H.
Mears, a well known Marshfield young man, has taken a position on the Newport, one of the Pacific mail ships plying between San Francisco and Panama. Mr. Mears sometime ago was honored by his rapid mastery of wireless telegraphy.

Ready for Race.—Harry Scott had A. H. Powers' speed boat, the General II, out for a trial spin Sunday, getting her in readiness for the Fourth of July races. Mr. Scott will operate her this season. Sunday he made the run from Daniels Creek to Marshfield in a little less than 35 minutes, indicating that she is in good condition.

Will Wed.—Announcements have been received here of the coming marriage of Oscar Stauff, of Coos-ton, and Miss Rishia Prye of Corvallis, which will take place June 16, at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. Stauff is a graduate of Oregon Agricultural College and the nuptials terminate a romance begun in college days.

[Eastside Service.—Rev. O. C.
Wright, Supt. State Missions for the Baptists, will speak at Eastside Wednesday at 8 o'clock.

Mail Contractor Here.—Joe Laird, the mail contractor between Myrtle Point and Roseburg, was in Marshfield today. He hoped to get the through auto stages started in another week or so.

Will Take Pilot.—The gasoline boat Gjoa which left here for Rogue river, will stop at Port Orford and take on Henry Colver who will act as pilot for the boat going in over Rogue river. Carl Walker of this city made the trip down on the Gjoa to look over the fishing prospects.

Allegany Service.—D. L. Foote said today that he hoped to get the Coos Bay-Allegany-Drain auto line service started about June 20. He had hoped to start today but the roads were none too good and the threatening weather caused him to postpone the service.

Wed Wednesday.—The marriage of Grover A. Williamson and Miss Edna McIntosh, a well known Marshfield young couple, will take place tomorrow at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Fred Weaver, in West Marshfield. The Rev. R. E.
Browning officiating. The young couple will reside at the Wireless station where the groom has just completed a cozy cottage.

Barbers Picnic.—With baskets of goodies the barbers of Coos Bay boarded the boat Cadillac this morning and hurried away for Ten Mile where all day long they have enjoyed themselves. They are expected home this evening. And while they were gone hubby went without a shave and rued the day the barbers went away on a holiday jaunt and put the "closed" signs up at their doors.

Dedicate Church.—The Loggers' chapel at Powers was dedicated Sunday by Rev. O. C. Wright, secretary of the Baptist Home Mission Society. The pastor, Rev. G. LeRoy Hall, returned yesterday with Rev.
Wright. Tomorrow evening there will be an address in the city hall at Eastside at eight o'clock by Rev.
Wright and a good attendance is expected.

Surprises Relatives.—John J.
Vreeland arrived here today from Pearl River, N. Y., to visit his cousin George Campbell, a Coos Bay plover.
They had not seen each for nearly forty-five years and their meeting today was one of the happiest ever. Each is well along in years.
Mr. Vreeland is a second cousin of A. B. Campbell and will also visit him. He has been making a general tour of the country, taking in the exposition and visiting friends and relatives in the west.

AMONG THE SICK

The little child of Mr. and Mrs.
Stonlake, of West Marshfield, who was quite sick following the accidental drinking of kerosene, is now improving. There was the third child to drink coal oil within a few days, one case resulting fatally.

Mrs. F. K. Gettins, who has been quite sick for several weeks, is much improved.

Mr. Bowlish, of Camp Five, who has been laid up at Mercy Hospital for several weeks by a broken leg, was able to leave yesterday. The injury having healed in good shape.

Peter Dahl, a Smith mill hand who sustained a broken leg one night last week, supposedly by a fall from an automobile, has gone to Mercy Hospital for treatment.
He has been staying at the Lindahl boarding house.

Mrs. George Hennessey is reported quite sick at their home in Bunker Hill.

Mrs. Frank D. Cohan has sufficiently recuperated from her recent operation at Mercy hospital to return to her home in West Marshfield. She is getting along fine.
