Treatment Long Winded—E. Erickson was in jail yesterday because of his promiscuous imbibing but when the judge let him out there still lurked somewhere in Erickson's constitution a smoldering ember that glowed again last night and he was soon drunk and once more homeward plodded his weary way to the Hotel Carter, there to rest and rasciate. However Erickson is able to get drunk and make money at the same time. Yesterday he had but 40 cents when

Use Wrong Side—Bicyclists are protesting against riders who ride their wheels on the wrong side of the street, thereby causing collisions. Several accidents have been reported lately because of this. It is said the traffic law applies to cyclists using the proper sides of the street even as much as the automobiles.

Attend Convention—The names of Mrs. E. D. McCrary, of Marshfield, and Mrs. E. F. Russell, of North Bend, are contained on the register at the Imperial Hotel, which is the headquarters for all Masons and members of the Eastern Star now in Portland attending the annual convocation of the Royal Arch Masons and the order of the Eastern Star.

Major Kinney's Condition—C. A. Sehlbrede says that there is little change in the condition of Major L. D. Kinney, according to the last advice he has had from the Oregon State Hospital at Salem. At times, Major Kinney seems to be improving and then he suffers severe nervous spells which offsets his physical gain. He is allowed the freedom of the grounds.

Outgrows Present Quarters—The growth of Christian Science in Marshfield has caused the society to secure new and larger quarters. They have rented the Auditorium in the Public Library for their Sunday and Wednesday services, but will maintain the former hall at 237 North Third street for the Sunday school.

May Play Elks—The Marshfield Elks Lodge may arrange for a big ball game and excursion to Powers in the near future. A. H. Powers last evening was telling of the fine team that they have at Powers and how they defeated Beaver Hill eight to five last Sunday and J. W. Hildenbrand challenged him for a game. However Erickson is able to get drunk and make money at the same time. Yesterday he had but 40 cents when

This will be sent immediately to County Judge Watson. Harding, who is getting out ties on Isthmus Inlet, was married less than a year ago. He stated to the judge that his wife imagines there are women about the house, has burned up her underclothes and several times has appeared in the woods where he was felling trees and has nearly been crushed to death.
