Dr. H. E. KELTY, DENTIST—Phone 112-J, Room 204, Coke bldg.

Is Recovering.—Stanley Broggs, who submitted to a surgical operation at Mercy Hospital last week, is getting along well and is recovering. He will be confined in the hospital for several weeks yet.

Married at Coquille.—Logan S. Kay of Coquille and Miss Lucy Smith were married last week. The groom is known to many in Marshfield who visit the valley who have met him as mail carrier on the boats Norma and Telegraph.

Receives Diploma.—Miss Isabella Macgenn, daughter of Capt. and Mrs. T. J. Macgenn, is one of the students of St. Francis' Academy at Portland who recently received eighth grade diplomas. The commencement exercises were held this week.

Daughter Better.—G. H. Ripley received a telegram yesterday stating that his daughter, Miss Mildred, was greatly improved after a rather serious illness in Portland. Miss Ripley visited her father, who is connected with the Coos Bay Water Company offices here, last fall.

To Start Home.—Having been delayed by the dredge in getting his lumber through to where he is to build, Captain John Mounson, of the Messenger, yesterday took a scow load of lumber up Haynes Inlet. He is intended to build this summer and will put up a modern bungalow on his place.

Sportsmen Shoot.—Several members of the Marshfield Gun Club went out yesterday afternoon to the trap for a shoot. The following scores were made, each man shooting 90 shells: Frank Laise, 45; Dr. Dix, 73; Albert Matson, 56; William Ekblad, 67; W. J. Conrad, 66.

Is Chef Up North.—Gordon Smith has received a letter from his old friend, H. C. Gordon, better known as "Bunny," who was for a long time chef at the Palace Restaurant. Now Gordon sends his card as chef at the Hotel Gearhart at Clatsop Beach. He writes that he enjoys it there immensely and expects to remain all summer.

New Farm Home.—A four-room cottage for Mrs. Kronquist is being erected on the A. Hongell ranch on Catching Inlet.

Plenic Wednesday.—The Coos Bay Women's Club is giving a picnic Wednesday at Seaman's Grove for the benefit of the Public Rest room. Str. Rainbow will leave Market St. Dock at 8 o'clock.

Auxiliary Formed.—The Women's Auxiliary of the Owls Lodge was formed last evening when 16 women gathered in the rooms of the Owls Lodge. Meetings will be held hereafter every other Thursday evening and it is expected that the membership will be greatly increased.

Boat Excursion and picnic for benefit of Public Rest Room to South Coos River, Seaman's Grove, Wednesday. Rainbow leaves Market St. dock at 8 a. m., returning at 6 p. m. Adults 50 cts, Children under 14, 25 cts. Children under 6, no charge. Everybody invited.

Pharmacists Meet.—The Coos County Pharmaceutical Association held a meeting at Bandon last night attended by druggists of the five cities of the county. A standard of prices was arranged following which the members enjoyed a sociable time. Those who attended the meeting were J. Lee Brown and Harry Winkler of Marshfield, M. E. Everitt, of North Bend, Fuhrman and Knowlton of Coquille, N. G. Perkins, of Myrtle Point, and N. J. Craine, W. S. Wells, H. L. Houston and C. Y. Lowe.

To Pay Judgment.—A wire has been received here by Stoll and Hodge from Beverly L. Hodghead, an attorney of San Francisco and general counsel for the Satabrook Company, saying that the company has paid Gus Warthum a judgment of $2,900. Warthum claimed that timber was cut from his land and W. T. Stoll tried his case in Portland. John D. Goss appearing for the Estabrook company. The attorney for the plaintiff claims that before the case was tried he proposed its dropping, each side to pay its own cost and that this was refused. Mr. Hodghead was here a week ago looking into the merits of the case.

Cases in Court.—A suit of Dan Barklow against the Willett & Burr Company was up this morning in the Circuit Court, according to J. C. Kendall, who went to the county seat today. He said that Barklow is suing on a contract. Immediately after this case comes a hearing of the appeal of Mrs. Sarah Yoakam from the County Court, asking that she be allowed $7500 from the estate of George Blood, deceased. She claims that as early as 1887 Blood, a Civil War veteran, promised her a good share of the estate providing she would take care of him. She claims she did this for years. In the County Court Mrs. Yoakam recovered $2400.
