Speak Tomorrow—Dr. Woody and Rev. O. C. Wright, of Portland, will speak at the First Baptist Church Sunday morning and evening.

Child Very Sick—Myrtle Olson, the five year daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Olson, is seriously ill at the family home. The child is suffering a severe attack of inflammation of the bowels and her condition is regarded as extremely critical.

Misses His Step—Jack Adams forgot to watch his step last night and the pace became too lively for his constitution and that is why he woke up this morning in a choice room of the Hotel Carter. A bottle, half unladen, appeared as mute evidence of the night before and Adams was ordered to deposit a five in the general fund.

Baseball Tomorrow—At 2 o'clock in North Bend tomorrow afternoon the Marshfield nine is scheduled to cross bats with the North Benders for the supremacy of the Bay. It is known that the neighbors have put a team into the field that is exceedingly strong and the locals are making preparations for a vigorous onslaught into the enemy's trenches.

Get's New Job—Friends here have been advised that J. E. Gardner, who recently completed his work as assistant engineer on the Willamette Pacific construction near Gardner, has taken a position as City Engineer of Napa, California. He recently went South to join Mrs. Gardner.

Funeral Today—The funeral of Eli Forsman, a wood cutter of the McDonald and Vaughn camp at Blue Ridge who died at the Mercy Hospital Wednesday as the result of a paralytic stroke was held this afternoon at the Wilson Undertaking Parlor, Rev. Bengtson officiating.

Gillespies Coming—Lew Price was down from his Summer ranch today arranging to secure a home in Marshfield for the summer for Mr. and Mrs. Lew Gillespie and the twins, who are expected here about July 1 to spend three or four months. They have been in California for several months.

Tramp to Sunset Bay—Taking their packs and food with them, James T. Brand, assistant superintendent of the Presbyterian Sunday School, with ten boys, started out yesterday afternoon on a hike to Sunset Bay. They expect to return this evening. The party expected to camp out last night by the seashore and cook their own meals over camp fires.

Long Motorcycle Trip—Wesley Seaman returned yesterday afternoon from a motorcycle trip that extended from Coquille to Myrtle Point and thence to Powers and back to Bandon, from which place he came here yesterday via the coast road. He said that everywhere he found the roads in good shape and experienced no trouble in getting through. He left Coquille on Thursday afternoon, having been called there as a witness in the Church case.

Booklets Go East—That the Coos Bay booklets disappear like hot cakes is the word received from J. A. Ward, at the exposition. He says there are two booths from which the booklets are being given out and that many times a day inquiries come from interested parties. The cranberry plants sent by J. H. Pinkerton, of North Inlet, have attracted much attention, he states.

From Old Home Town—On a visit to the coast Mrs. Myrtle Davis has arrived here from Warsaw, Missouri, for a couple of weeks will visit with her old friend Mrs. F. E. Wheeler, on Third Street. In July they are both intending to go south together and take in the Exposition. Mrs. Wheeler formerly lived at Warsaw, Missouri, and there knew Mrs. Davis very well. Yesterday they went with Mrs. E. C. Drees in her machine to Sunset Bay and to Shore Acres, returning in the evening.

Praises Bolt—Supt. F. A. Teidgen, of Marshfield, has written the school board at Lebanon a highly commendatory recommendation of Eric Bolt who is being considered for the high school principalship next year. Mr. Bolt is a graduate of the Marshfield High School and recently finished his course at Willamette University and is regarded as one of the ablest young men of Marshfield. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. N. Bolt.

Loses His Stake—Peter Mirasoul has discovered that Dick Maak, the seaman who swam ashore during the Claremont wreck, has little appreciation of favors or of making his word good. Maak was without money and had very little clothes and Pete staked him to $29 to get back to San Francisco on, Maak promising to send the money back as soon as he got his insurance from the sailors' union. No remittance was forthcoming and Pete wrote to the sailors' union only to discover that Maak had drawn his $59 there and disappeared.

Cypher is Freed—C. W. Cypher, who some time ago sailed from here on the Speedwell and was arrested when he landed in San Francisco on a charge of stealing some articles from a room in the Central Hotel, has been released from custody, according to Deputy Sheriff Laird. None of the articles were found on Cypher or in his possession, he said. Regarding the freeing of Mrs. Watson in Portland, Mr. Laird says that is a new law which requires an order from a local Justice of the Peace or other court officer before a woman can be removed from one town to another. He says that this law is not applicable to males.

TIGERS MOURN LOSS 'GLAD TO BE HERE'
McDONALD-VAUGHN CAMP SHUT DOWN IN RESPECT
Funeral of William Cross to be Held Tomorrow—Was Crushed Between Two Logs on Train
 Practically every member of the Blue Ridge Tigers will tomorrow pay their last respects to William Cross, for seven years an employee in the McDonald & Vaughn camp. Cross was killed yesterday on a logging train. The camp was closed immediately after his death and the body was brought here last evening.

The funeral will be held at 1 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the Wilson Undertaking Parlor. Rev. G. LeRoy Hall will conduct the services at the parlor and the Blue Lodge of Masons at the grave. The deceased was a Mason, being a member of the Composite Lodge No. 168, at Lagrange, Maine, his old home before coming West.

Merritt Hill, foreman of the logging train, witnessed the accident yesterday afternoon. He said that for some unknown reason Cross was riding between the cars of logs, something he very rarely did. The train was loaded and on its way down when a bunk chain on the car car ahead of Cross broke. One end of a large log fell to the ground and a moment later Cross was crushed between the end of this log that remained on the car and the butt end of a log immediately behind him. He died instantly.

There was gloom in the camp when the news was brought down. For seven years Cross had been a logging brakeman. He came there from the Porter Mill where he worked for the Simpson Company, and was one of the best-known employees of the camp.

Was War Veteran.
 Mrs. Cross and her two children were taken last evening to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Stora in North Bend. The deceased was a Spanish-American War veteran, having served in the New York Coast Artillery. At the close of his service he received a very creditable discharge.

GREETING OF BISHOP SUMNER IS ENTHUSIASTIC
Is On Coos Bay for First Time—Has Heard Wonderful Things of This Country, He Says
 "Glad to be here!" exclaimed Rt. Rev. Walter Taylor Sumner, Bishop of Oregon, as he stepped from the launch Gaago this morning on his first visit to Coos Bay. He was met by Rev. Browning, whose guest he will be for several days.

"I have been hearing wonderful things about your country here," he continued, "and now that I am here I can see why it is." He had an enjoyable trip in from Eugene and the beach route proved a new mode of travel to the Bishop.

"The next time I come it will probably be on the train," he said. "and then I can't write to my friends in the East and tell them of hardships. There are none."

Since January Bishop Sumner has been a resident in Oregon, coming here to take the place left vacant by the death of Bishop Beauding, so well known on Coos Bay.

"I am vitally interested in the welfare of Oregon," he continued, "for the upbuilding of the state means a better opportunity for the church." He was extremely pleased with the Episcopal Church building when shown through it by Rev. Browning.

Last Sunday Bishop Sumner delivered the baccalaureate sermon at the University of Oregon. "The state can pride itself on both the University and the Oregon Agricultural College," he said. "We of the East, with our old established institutions have known nothing of the struggles of the seats of learning in Oregon. It has been a hard fight for appropriation, but I believe that now the end is in sight and that their future progress will be rapid."
