If a woman can't keep a secret, ole Mother Nature ain't a woman. 'Cause Nature ain't ever told how she puts flavor into tobacco.

WE can't explain exactly how VELVET becomes so smooth mellow and fragrant. That's Nature's secret.

But we do know that if VELVET did not age for two years in wooden casks, Nature could not finish her work.

We have first call on the finest Burley tobacco that comes up through the soil of Kentucky. But that isn't enough.

This wonderful pipe tobacco—without a superior in the world—is allowed to bring out its own rich natural goodness.

All the inventors combined, couldn't improve on Nature's way—the only way—the VELVET way.

All the words in the dictionary couldn't convey the full meaning of the Smoothest Smoking Tobacco.

Smoke a pipelod of VELVET! We cannot print aroma and fragrance and "bitelessness." Your part is to prove it in your pipe.

LOCAL GRADUATES OF OREGON UNIVERSITY OPPOSE ABOLITION

Not in Sympathy With Faculty Move At Eugene to Abolish Inter-Collegiate Sports

Abolishment of inter-collegiate athletics at the University of Oregon will be vigorously opposed by local alumni of that institution, according to their statements. From over the entire state graduates are flocking to the standards of the school and lining up on the side of inter-collegiate contests which are now in the lime light and may be suspended by faculty action.

Before the faculty last Saturday Dr. Barnett, of the Department of Political Economy, threw a bomb into the camp of the students and athletic instructors by introducing a resolution to after next year do away with any sort of games off the University campus.

The mere introducing was not the only surprise the resolution was passed. Now the student body and the alumni say that they are opposed to cutting down athletics and say that they will stand by their guns.

Of more than 20 prominent graduates of Oregon that were interviewed in Portland only one stood for the abolishment of inter-collegiate athletics. On Coos Bay not a graduate favors the faculty move.

Robert Kellog believes it will mean a direct loss of students to the institution. The same belief is voiced by both Ben and William Chandler and Sid Clark, just returned from Eugene, states that the students are highly incensed over the move.

Prof. Graham Mitchell, of the University who is now on the bay, says that he is opposed to the move.

For several years certain members of the faculty have declared that athletic contests with other institutions in the Northwest mean a loss of time from study, also of interest and is costly.

Others are more moderate in their beliefs and say that they stand for a regulation and not an abolishment of inter-collegiate athletics. When the move is again before the faculty at Oregon it is possible that the local alumni will send a letter stating their position on the matter.

HUBBARD CUTS OFF FIRST WIFE'S CHILDREN

Value of Estate Not Given in East Aurora Editor's Document—Mrs. Hubbard's Testament Identical

BUFFALO, N. Y., June 22.—The wills of Elbert Hubbard and his wife who lost their lives in the Lusitania disaster, were filed for probate here today. The documents were drawn by Mr. Hubbard and were almost identical.

Both provided that in case one survived the other the estate should be divided equally between Elbert Hubbard II, son, and Miriam, daughter. Several other children by Hubbard's first marriage are not mentioned in the will.

The value of the estate is problematical, although it is known that Mr. Hubbard carried insurance policies amounting to over $100,000. He owned considerable real estate at East Aurora.

SEN. HARRY LANE OR L. J. SIMPSON WANTED JULY 4

Plans Are Complete for Election of Goddess of Liberty and Names Are Sought By Committee

GODDESS CANDIDATES

- the following are the candidates for Goddess of Liberty at the Fourth Celebration.
- Adelaide Clark.
- Ann Holland.
- Ruth Gilbertson.
- Marjorie Graham.
- Virginia Lester.
- Bruce Kelley.
- Elma Macdonald.

Senator Harry Lane or L. J. Simpson to deliver the Fourth of July oration is the aim of the celebration committee, according to their plans formed late Saturday afternoon. R. M. Jennings, now in Portland, will call personally on Senator Lane and endeavor to get him back to his old home for the National Holiday. L. J. Simpson, mayor of North Bend, is now in San Francisco and the matter will also be taken up with him at once.

All plans for the election of a Goddess of Liberty have been perfected and the contest will formally open tomorrow evening.

Every young woman wishing to enter the contest must hand her name in to one of the committees. They are Robert Dillard, chairman, Ben Fisher, Claud Thompson and H. A. Buserud. It is expected that there will be many entries and close competition. No names will be accepted after 12 o'clock on next Wednesday.

Show Tickets County

On Thursday evening there will be two shows at the Noble Theatre. Each ticket sold will equal 100 votes. Every one entering the theatre will be shown a list of the candidates and asked to mark a cross opposite their favorite.

Then the votes are to be counted after Tuesday night and on Thursday there will appear on this list the names of the five young women with the highest number of votes. Tickets will again be sold and the voting this last time will be for the final selection of a Goddess of Liberty.

The committee members believe that this finally solves the problem and will mean the election of a popular young woman and will not necessarily mean that any one must have financial backing. Not more than 10 tickets will be sold to any one person.

Look for Speaker

Senator Harry Lane is a Coos Bayite and Mr. Jennings said that every effort will be made to get him here for the address on the Fourth. At the time of his visit here last fall Senator Lane met many of his old friends and talked over with them the times when he was a deck hand on one of the boats in the bay.

BIG MILK SUPPLY.

Creamery on Coos River Handling Large Amount of Dairy Products

The Coos Bay Creamery on Coos River, is having a big run right now and is handling an enormous amount of milk. About 17,000 pounds of milk a day is being used for making cheese. About 3500 pounds is being separated to secure the cream for butter making and in addition a large amount of cream is brought to the creamery by farmers who separate their own milk.

MORE COMPLAINT ABOUT CURRY MAIL

Lays Over at Langlois and is Slow For Points South of There

Recently the mail service to Curry County was changed so that mail from Coos Bay need not lay over at Bandon all night. The mail stage instead of leaving at 7 a. m. now waits till the Coos Bay mail arrives and leaves at 1 o'clock in the afternoon. But it is still slow for points south of Langlois according to the following from the Port Orford Tribune:

Under the new mail schedule that went into effect yesterday, the mail leaves Bandon at 1 o'clock in the afternoon for Curry county points. The Langlois mail leaves at the same hour for Port Orford and thus the mail arriving in Langlois at about 2:30 one day must lie there until 10 o'clock the following day. During the summer months, when the mail can be carried by auto, there is no reason why it cannot come through from Bandon to Port Orford in the afternoon, which would make it arrive at all points in Curry south of Langlois 24 hours earlier than it is now doing.

Talk the matter over and then take it up with our congressmen. Every community is entitled to the most adequate mail service practicable and Curry county is no exception.

—and now for the short cake

The old-fashioned strawberry short cake which mother makes in the modern gas range is about the most delicious delicacy which was ever baked. In the old days when grandmother made the short cake it was a day-long task. The fire in the coal range had to be just right. She had to wait for the oven to come to the correct temperature. Now it is a question of minutes to get the oven right. The modern cabinet gas range makes baking a real pleasure. It has removed all of the guess work, all of the drudgery; there is no longer an over-heated kitchen and a tired mother at the dinner table.
