NEW SHIP-BUILDING PLANT

HERE are some Americans, anyhow, who see the possibilities of American shipping. A glgantle ship-building plant is to be erected at Mobile, Ala., costing $4,-600,000 and employing 4,500 men. It will be the most southern of our shipyards, and expects to profit greatly from the South American and Panama Canal traffic.

IT MAY LAST FIFTEEN MINUTES

SSOCIATED PRESS dispatches to the Coos Bay Times last Saturday told of the launching of the magnificent new United States Battleship Arizona, one of the largest in the world and which cost $15,000,000 to build.

Some day in the event of war, a little submarine may run alongside this $15,000,000 terror of the sea, which bears guns heavy enough to splinter the rock of Gibralter and discharge a torpedo that will sink the vessel in less than fifteen minu-
