dance at the Simpson Park on Sunday, July 4. The dance will begin at 2 o'clock and continue all the afternoon and night.

Father Dead.—Word of the death of his father, Robert Hill, at Chaska, Minn. has been received by Walter Hill and Chas. Hill of Marshfield. Their parent was over eighty years old and had been residing with their sister, Mrs. M. Driscoll.

Will Not Move.—C. C. Riggs, of North Bend, states that he is not expecting to leave North Bend and furthermore has had no intention of this sort. He said the rumor should be corrected as he is still in the plumbing business there, has a house there and expects to stay.

Will Work at Powers.—Albert Haines returned from San Francisco yesterday on the Kilburn. He went directly there at the close of the University of Oregon which he attended. He spent several days in the south and this morning went up to Powers where he will work this summer.

Want Ad Did It.—Mrs. W. H. Foley of Bunker Hill telephoned yesterday that a few insertions of a want ad in The Coos Bay Times had brought purchasers for nearly all of their household effects, enabling her to dispose of them at a decided advantage. Mr. and Mrs. Foley are planning to leave soon on an extended trip.

Recovers Charm.—Through a Times found ad, R. K. Booth yesterday recovered a valuable Knights Templar charm. The charm was picked up on Front street by Mrs. H. J. McKeown who promptly sent it to The Times office, knowing that a Times ad would quickly find the owner. One insertion of the found ad did it.

Not Candidate.—Mrs. Percy Peet of Eastside says that she did not intend to be a candidate for school director at Eastside. A number of friends urged her to run and some insisted on placing her name in nomination. However she told them she would immediately withdraw and this deterred them from nominating her.

To Play Sunday.—Coos River and the Hatchery nines are to cross the willows on Sunday at the grounds on Daniels Creek, according to the announcement from up the river. At the game played last Sunday at the Hatchery the locals managed to eke out a three to two victory over Eastside in an exciting game which was well attended.

Hold a Barbecue.—Peter Mirra-soul, Fred Montgomery, Bill Montgomery, C. W. Cumbers made a trip to the low-Montgomery made a trip to the low-bay and had their supper on the beach. They had beef steaks two inches thick which they broiled over the coals of a beach fire in real barbecue style.

For New Manager.—W. J. Clarkson, manager of the Estabrook company at Bandon returned home this morning after a short stay here on business. He expects to leave Bandon in about two weeks for San Francisco to take a position in the head office. Sid Williams, now in Bandon, will succeed him as Coos county manager of the company.

Not Coming Here.—Superintendent Dawkins, of the Newport schools, writes that he is not coming here to establish a business college as he had anticipated. He was aboard the steamship and ready to come here when a telegram reached him that he had been elected to a principalship in Nevada and he is now going there for his wife's health.

Start Young War.—Ed Kronholm, claiming sympathy for the Belgians and Gus Anceon, a Greek, clashed last night on Front street near the National Saloon and for several minutes they charged, counter-charged, and bayoneted each other with short arm jabs. Both were arrested and this morning fined a five spot apiece. There the Belgians won a decided victory for Kronholm had the money while Anceon went to jail.

CHARLES HALL, J. E. Montgomery and Claude Thompson expect to leave in the morning for Curry County where they will be gone for several days, taking in Port Orford, Gold Beach, Wedderburn and they may get down to Brookings.

WHY? WHY? WHY? Why buy the LEFT OVERS anywhere when you can buy from the owner, the FIRST CHOICE LOTS, in the FIRST ADDITION to MARSHFIELD, Oregon, for original cost, plus taxes and interest? Your own terms. I have bought a ranch and need money to stock the farm. Write me today. SNAP. Prices will advance soon. MEIGS, J. CAMPBELL, Box 10, Herrick, Idaho.
