

BONDS ARE SOLD WANT WATER PLANT DISPUTE ELECTION MUST GO TO JAIL

NORTH BEND SELLS $26,000 WORTH LAST NIGHT

James M. Wright and Co., of New York, Take Them at Par With $237.60 Premium.

Twenty-six thousand dollars worth of bonds to take up the warrant indebtedness of North Bend were sold last evening by the city fathers to James M. Wright and Company, of New York. Theirs was the lowest of 10 bids submitted, bidding at par with a $237.60 premium and at 5 1/2 per cent. interest.

The other nine bids were as follows: Keeler Bros., of Denver, 6 per cent. with $725 premium or at 5 1/2 per cent. less $512 for expenses.

C. H. Coffin and Company, of Chicago, 6 per cent. with $150 premium. Western Bond & Mortgage Company, 6 per cent. with $150 premium.

Lumbermen's Trust Co., six per cent. with $736 premium. Stitzer & RorK Company, 6 per cent. with $120 premium.

C. H. McNear, 5 1/2 per cent. with a discount of $25 or a premium of $1,296 at 6 per cent.

Security Savings Bank and Trust Company, 6 per cent. with $512 premium.

R. M. Grant & Co., 6 per cent. with a premium of $1,003.

J. E. Price Co., 6 per cent. with a discount of $700.

Money in July.

The money from these bonds will probably not be brought into the treasury of North Bend until some time in July, according to C. E. Maybee, City Recorder, as they must be investigated by bonding lawyers in New York.

Printing is Low.

Printing of the city's notices for the six months beginning July 1 and ending January 1, 1916, was awarded to Edgar McDaniel, owner of the Harbor, who put in the low bid of one-sixteenth of a cent a line, or 16 lines for a penny. The bid for the work at two and one-half cents a line for the first insertion and two cents per line for every subsequent insertion. This is the lowest that printing has ever been let in North Bend, it is said.

Extend Building Time.

The building of the Willamette Pacific into North Bend was extended from July 1 of this year to any time within the next 18 months. C. F. McKnight, appearing for the railroad, declared that it had been impossible to complete the line within the given time and that, according to the franchise, a continuation would be necessary. This was unanimously granted.

Paving Plans.

Plans and specifications for the paving of Virginia avenue from near Pony Slough to the city dock will be ready next Tuesday evening. It is expected when a special meeting of the city fathers is called for their adoption.

Mr. Maybee states that two bids were received after the time limit had expired, hence could not be considered by the Council. This in reality brings the total up to 12 bids for the North Bend bonds. The companies were H. T. Holtz & Co., and Cummings & Hoehler.

She is a highly attractive young lady and for a time was employed as assistant to Postmaster Russell when he was in office. Coming in contact with the public in the post office she made a wide acquaintance. The young couple will make their home in North Bend.

Elizabeth, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Ross of Catching Inlet was moved yesterday from the Mercy Hospital where she submitted to an operation some days ago, to the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Black on South Fifth Street.

EASTSIDE ADOPTS PLANS FOR MUNICIPAL SYSTEM

$25,000 Bond Issue Thought Necessary—Secure Coos Bay Town-site Company

At a meeting of the Eastside city council last night, the plans and estimates of City Engineer S. B. Cathcart for a municipal water system for Eastside and Cooston were received. Mr. Cathcart stated in his report that an adequate supply of water for many years to come could be secured on Willanch Inlet and that a $25,000 bond issue would enable them to put in the system at once. It is likely that the council will take immediate steps looking to the financing of the project.

Improve Cooston

Mr. Cathcart was ordered to prepare plans and specifications for improving about twenty blocks of streets in the Cooston district. Six thoroughfares are affected. It is proposed to plank the streets sixteen feet wide where graded and where it will be necessary to build elevated roadways, bridges twenty-two feet wide will be put in. The streets to be improved are Sether street, Seventh Avenue, G Street, H Street, Tenth Avenue and Eleventh Avenue.

Scores Townsite Company

Tom Bennett of Marshfield was present and in behalf of the Coos Bay Townsite Company entered objection to the proposal to establish street grades on a number of streets in Cooston, along which the company owns most of the property. No steps had been taken towards improving but Mr. Bennett wanted an expression as to the attitude of the council.

Councilman Meeks arose and said that he would give him an expression. He proceeded with one of the most severe arraignments heard in many a day. He scored the Coos Bay Townsite Company for its dog in the manger policy, for impeding development and trying to bleed the country. He said that he knew the company well as he formerly represented it. When he concluded, the other councilmen indicated that Mr. Meeks had correctly presented their view.

Fight Improvements

Those who attended the meeting of the Council at Eastside last evening state the Coos Bay Townsite Company objected to the improvement of the Cooston streets on the ground that it would mean practically the confiscation of their property.

At this juncture the sale price list of the company's property was quoted to show the price at which the lots are being held for sale and one man said that "it was enough to make the oldest inhabitant stand up and take notice," as he said many of the lots went into prices of several hundreds of dollars.

It was stated that a Mr. Robinson, one of the purchasers of Crawford Point addition said he favored the improvement of streets on his property for the reason it would materially increase their value.

Engineer Cathcart will establish grades on Sether street, on H, G, street, and on Tenth and Eleventh avenues.

AGITATION IN EASTSIDE FOR A NEW SCHOOL ELECTION

Claim Made Mrs. Hadlock Not on 1914 Assessment Rolls—She Says She Has Receipt to Show

Agitation for the calling of a new school election was rife among some of the school patrons of Eastside today, though it is not definitely known what will be done. The claim was made that Mrs. Irving Hadlock's name was not on the 1914 assessment rolls. Mrs. Hadlock, who was elected director, declares that she has the receipts showing that she owned property and paid taxes last year.

There were only four votes difference when Mrs. McLaggan won over S. F. Bock for school clerk. The contention is made today that many of the voters were not property owners and therefore their votes were not legal.

This morning a call came to George Watkins, City Attorney of Eastside, asking if it was legal for a person to vote in a school election "who paid only a dog tax."

Considerable comment was stirred up by the election of yesterday, but the general belief, according to many of those interested, was that there will not be a special election called.

Will Show Receipts.

Mrs. Eleanor Hadlock stated this afternoon that she had her tax receipts for 1914 and would be very glad to show them to any one who wishes to see them. Mrs. Hadlock says she also has the notice from the county asking her to appear if she had any complaint against the assessment of her property.

NEW JUDGE COMING

JUDGE COKE AND JUDGE SKIPWORTH TO EXCHANGE TERMS Lane County Jurist to Preside at Coquille During September Session

Judge Skipworth of Eugene will hold the September term of Circuit court in Coos county and Judge J. S. Coke will take his place on the Lane county bench. The exchange of terms of court was arranged by Judge Coke to enable the early trial of some actions in which he was interested as an attorney before he was elevated to the bench. Judge Skipworth was appointed to the circuit bench last winter to succeed Judge Harris who was elected to the Oregon Supreme Court last fall.

Judge Coke and family will leave in July for an auto trip to San Francisco and other California points.

Long Court Term

The present term of court is one of the longest in the history of Coos county. For eight weeks, the term has been in session and seven weeks of it has been jury trials. Judge Coke has worked nearly every evening to hasten the end, missing only three nights in that time.

STATE LEADER HERE

"The interests of the farmers, my interests" is the slogan preached by H. T. French, of Corvallis, who came in here yesterday and will spend several days with the farmers in this section. Mr. French is state leader of the county agriculturist movement and is also a member of the Oregon Agricultural College department of extension.

Throughout the entire state Mr. French covers his field. He is in touch with every county agriculturist and works out with him the problems that are confronted in the different localities.

Mr. French is a pioneer regarding the installation of the county agriculturist movement. From nothing he has worked until now there are 22 of these experts in Oregon, all working for the interest of the farmers and dairymen.

In Lane county Mr. French worked strenuously with the former agriculturist, Floyd Rader, to open lime deposits near Roseburg for the purpose of supplying Lane county farmers with this product at a small expense, this for the purpose of reviving the soil of many farms there that were badly in need of it. The project is still under way.

At present Mr. French is making his "rounds". He will meet J. L. Smith, county agriculturist, and spend several days going over with him the problems that are being worked out in this section.

FANNIE O'DONNELL HAS 60-DAY SENTENCE—$150 FINE

Supreme Court Affirms Decision of Judge Coke on Charge of Selling Liquor

Fannie O'Donnell must go to the county jail for 60 days and must pay a fine of $150, according to a ruling made by the State Supreme Court yesterday, affirming the verdict of Judge John S. Coke. The attorneys today stated that she would probably begin the serving of the sentence this week.

With the final settlement of the case by the Supreme Court, there is ended a legal battle that has extended through months. The history of the case is that last summer Mrs. Fannie O'Donnell, then conducting a hotel at Empire, was arrested on the charge of selling liquor on Sunday. It is said she had no license whatever to sell liquor.

In the Circuit Court she was declared guilty and then an appeal was taken by Hoy and Miller to the Supreme Court. The grounds of the appeal was the citing as error the alleged misconduct of District Attorney L. J. Jevy in asking prejudicial questions over the objections of the defendant.

"Bud" Nosler and George Gage appeared as witnesses and stated that they had bought liquor in Mrs. O'Donnell's place.

WILL DRAIN POND

Ten Days Will Be Required to Carry Off Water

Workmen are busy completing the drain box up the north arm of Mill Slough, and, according to Engineer Robert Kellog, by the end of this week it is probable the draining will commence. He believes that it will take at least ten days or two weeks to drain the pond entirely while the crew will be busy that length of time yet putting in the supports to the drain box which is later to be covered over. It is said there are fish in the pond and the youngsters are hoping they won't all get away through the drain.

Hall-Lewis, County Road supervisor, is said to be planning on leaving Coos County when he has completed road work near Myrtle Point, which is now in progress and will go to California to indulge his ambitions to be an expert rancher. Mr. Hall-Lewis has for several years been prominent in county work and has become widely known as a road builder in this section.

MANY PIONEERS HAVE PASSED AWAY

Records Show 205 Have Died in the State and Some Were Not Reported.

According to the report of George H. Himes, of the Oregon Historical Society, there were 205 pioneers of the state who died during the year ending June 1. That this list is incomplete is shown by the fact that several pioneers who died in Coos County are not included in the list. There is found the name of Captain Alphonso Boone, of Sumner, who died March 29, 1915. This week there is being held in Portland the 42nd annual gathering of the Oregon Pioneer Association, and it is expected that on Thursday there will be present at least 1000 delegates from all parts of the state.

The Alice H left early this morning from here to meet the farmers coming down the river on the Rain-bow and the Millcooma at the Coos Bay Creamery and take them from there up Catching Inlet. This is the first of a series of five picnics that will be given over this county and also in Curry to encourage the dairy business and pure blooded stock.
