

We've got 'em talking.

Who? Why Everybody, including the merchants. And what are they talking about?

Our Prices!

One brother merchant even told one of his customers in confidence that we were selling things below cost. If we are selling below HIS cost shows our ability to buy right, for we are willing to sell goods all the time for the prices that we are getting and all we ask is cash for them and you can depend on it that the PRICES ARE RIGHT and that you will not need to send to Portland in order to buy your groceries as cheaply as anywhere on the coast. WE MEET ALL COMPETITION and no matter what the other merchants may have to say about us, our own business. We find that this keeps us busy all the time.

WE ARE CLOSING OUR DOORS TODAY AT 12 O'CLOCK and will be closed all day tomorrow and will be open July 1 on a strictly cash basis, sending phone orders out C. O. D.

We want to see you, as we know that we will be mutually benefitted.

These are some of our regular prices. Look them over and compare them with what you have been paying and then come in and see.

Cut Auto Rate.—The auto stage rate from Marshfield to Roseburg has been reduced to $7 and there were rumors today that it might be reduced to $5.

Goes to Wedding.—Wm. Kaiser of the Hauser & Hauser company has gone to Spokane to attend the marriage of Kenneth Hauser and Miss Porter tomorrow.

Has Dinner Party.—Dr. George W. Leslie was host at a dinner party Sunday evening at the Chandler Hotel, having as his guests Miss Alice Tickell, Mrs. F. E. Wheeler and her friend Mrs. Davis who is here visiting from Kansas.

Here With Bride.—Thayer Grimes and bride arrived here today from New York, via San Francisco, where they were married a few weeks ago. Their handsome new home at South Twelfth and Flanagan was all in readiness for them.

Rents Store.—Mrs. Mary J. Elrod who recently closed out her millinery store on North Front street has leased the room in the Russell block on Central Avenue, recently vacated by L. L. Thomas, and will start a new store there soon.

North Bend Labor.—Contractor Sanberg of the North Bend sewage system today adjusted the recent labor muddle by putting a considerable number of North Bend laborers to work. Many of those put to work were men he let out the first of the week when his imported crew from Portland went to work.

Start Opening Street.—Workmen started yesterday with the first work toward the opening of Anderson Avenue between Third and Fourth streets. This project is in the hands of Johnson and Larson who at present are doing what filling is necessary to bring the street to the level of Fourth. Following this the street is to be planked.

ER's Officer Coming.—T. E. Daniels, District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler is expected in this evening or tomorrow morning from Medford and tomorrow night will meet with the Elks in an initiation and business session. It has been two years since he visited here.

Chas. Thom's Plans.—It is announced that Chas. Thom, proprietor of the North Bend brewery, is erecting an $80,000 brewery at Pleasanton, California, a short distance from San Francisco, and will have it ready for operation by the first of the year when the Oregon prohibition law will close his Coos Bay brewery. The buildings of the North Bend brewery will be occupied by an ice plant.

Close Estimate.—Dennis McCarthy made his report to the Coos County court on the stumpage cut off the Boutin tract. He had estimated 13,200,000 on the 145 acres cut over by Swayze & Hoyt but their books showed it to be about 14,000,000, the increase probably being due to the growth in the five years since he had cruised the tract. The county court is taking steps to force Frank Boutin to pay about $45,000 in back taxes.

BIG CROWDS AT AUCTION SALE

RED CROSS JEWELRY BARGAINS PROVE ATTRACTION—FOUR PRIZES AWARDED YESTERDAY

The auction sale of the $13,000 jewelry stock of the Red Cross which opened yesterday is proving a great success. The store was thronged yesterday afternoon and again last evening and the selling was lively.

Auctioneer R. M. Harding, who is in charge of the sale, by his fairness and courtesy, backed by the guarantee of every article by the Red Cross, has impressed all with the great opportunity. The auction differs from the ordinary sale in that as far as possible, Mr. Harding follows no fixed order in disposing of special lines but offers whatever anyone may ask for.

Yesterday's sales were large and the prices unusually low. Before starting the sale of the article, Mr. Harding announces the regular retail price, and the quality of the goods so that there is no misunderstanding as to its value.

Special prizes are being awarded. Yesterday Miss Spence Wilson, Mrs. L. M. Noble, Miss Bess Flanagan and Mr. Vincamp received the four prizes awarded.

The auctions will continue at 2:30 and 7:30 each day until the object of the sale, the reduction of stock and the raising of ready money, are attained.

Jewelry, china, cut glass, toilet sundries, ect., are included in the big sale.
