North Bend Service.—There will be a service in North Bend Episcopal Church this evening at 8 o'clock. Hold Service.—There will be prayer meeting in the Baptist Church tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock when Mr. Simmons will lead. Moves Offices.—George A. Baines has moved his office from 186 South Broadway to the Allen and Lewis building where his fixtures have been installed in the quarters formerly occupied by Shipman Bros. Takes Position.—W. T. Merchant has taken a position as salesman in the Woolen Mill store at North Bend. Earl McCrea, who has been employed there is now in the Marshfield store of the company. Case Still On.—The case of the trustee of the First National Bank of Roseburg versus W. E. Pike, Anna Pike, P. L. Phelan and W. B. Hammitte was still on today in Judge Coke's office. Moving Camp.—Clarence A. Gould is today moving his logging camp above Allegany where the men have been at work for the past year. The equipment will be shipped on scows from Allegany. Has Own Office.—E. Lothard McClure, attorney, has announced that he is no longer connected with the firm of Bennett, Swanton and Bennett and has removed his office from the Flanagan and Bennett bank to the Lockhart building. Returns from Nevada.—W. O. Wimmer has returned from Nevada where he has been for some time past. He says that many have gone into Nevada lately with the result that there are more people in the state than there is occupation for them. Liberty Car Girls.—The girls who are to take part in the Liberty Car feature of the Fourth of July parade will meet at the home of Mrs. P. M. Wilbur Monday morning at 9 o'clock. The girls must be above the second grade in school. Will Wed.—According to a report here, Claude C. Noon, formerly of Coquille, but now in charge of the Red Cross branch store at Powers, and Miss Margaret Wiseman, daughter ter of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Wiseman, formerly of Marshfield, will be married early in July. Is Newly Married.—Frank Pugley has received an announcement of the marriage, June 24, of Charles G. Frampton to Miss Grace Marguerite Myers, of Starbuck, Washington. Mr. Frampton was for some time an employee at the pulp mill and has many friends on the bay who wish success for both himself and bride. The young couple expect to make their home in Camas, Washington. Here from Coquille.—H. J. Keough wire chief for the Coquille Valley Telephone company, accompanied by Mr. Minton, a prominent farmer of that part of the county, visited the city last night. Mr. Keough was formerly wire chief for the local telephone company and installed much of the new equipment here. He says he has been working on the lines of the valley company until he has the system now in fine shape.

Sorority Has Convention.—This week the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority of which Madge Barry and Mrs. Ben Chandler are members, is holding its annual convention at Gearhart. A special train bearing 300 delegates from the 37 active chapters of the sorority in the east arrived in Portland on Sunday, enroute to Gearhart. During the week's meetings there will be a daily paper giving the details of the day's business and the progress, issued by three young women of the University of Oregon, students of the Department of Journalism.

We've got 'em talking.

Who? Why Everybody, including the merchants. And what are they talking about?

Our Prices!

One brother merchant even told one of his customers in confidence that we were selling things below cost. If we are selling below HIS cost shows our ability to buy right, for we are willing to sell goods all the time for the prices that we are getting and all we ask is cash for them and you can depend on it that the PRICES ARE RIGHT and that you will not need to send to Portland in order to buy your groceries as cheaply as anywhere on the coast. WE MEET ALL COMPETITION and no matter what the other merchants may have to say about us, remember that we will be selling goods and attending to our own business. We find that this keeps us busy all the time.

We will open our store JULY 1, on a strictly cash basis, sending phone orders C. O. D.

We want to see you, as we know that we will be mutually benefitted.

These are some of our regular prices. Look them over and compare them with what you have been paying and then come in and see.
