

TEND MARSHFIELD'S BIG CELEBRATION JULY 3--5

An Old Time
July 4 Song

Nobly our flag flutters o'er us today,
Emblem of peace, pledge of liberty's sway,
Its face shall tremble and shrink in dismay
If e'er insulted it be.
Our stripes and stars, loved and honored
By all,
Shall float forever where freedom may call.
It still shall be the flag of the free,
Emblem of sweet liberty.

CHORUS
Here we will gather, its cause to defend;
Let patriots rally, and wise counsel lend.
It still shall be the flag of the free,
Emblem of sweet liberty.

With it in beauty no flag can compare;
All nations honor our banner so fair,
If to insult it a traitor should dare,
Crushed to the earth let him be!
Freedom and progress our watchword to-day,
When duty calls who dare disobey?
Honor to thee, thou flag of the free,
Emblem of sweet liberty.

For a July 4 Luncheon.
Make the luncheon color scheme that of the national colors—red, white and blue. A cunning centerpiece may be evolved by the use of tin soldiers. Make a fort by the use of a white pasteboard box of convenient size turned inside down and marked into oblongs to represent brick. Color the bricks by the use of a red lead pencil or water colors. Place in the center a flagpole surmounted by a flag. Arrange the soldiers on top of and around about the fort. The color scheme may be carried further by the use of white place cards the corners of which are decorated with tiny flags in water colors.

THE OLD FLAG.

OFF with your hat as the flag goes by
And let the heart have its say!
You're man enough for a tear in your eye
That you will not wipe away.

You're man enough for a thrill that goes
To your very finger tips.
Aye, the lump just then in your throat
That rose
Spoke more than your parted lips.
—Henry C. Runner.
