Address all communications to COOS BAY DAILY TIMES. A LESSON IN ECONOMY

IN MY OPINION the advertisements are far from being the least valuable part of the paper, remarked a Marshfield citizen and, continuing, said: I look them over carefully and save at least five times the subscription price of The Times through the business advantage I gain from them.

There are special exigencies in the daily history if every store which Times' advertisements tell about. A merchant finds a special opportunity to buy a large lot of valuable goods at a low price. No other store has them. To make a profit on the transaction, however, he must turn the lot over at once. He cannot wait for the goods to be picked up as customers drift in by chance.

Changes like these are coming up all the time. The people who do not follow them through The Times are adding to their cost of living. The time to buy is when some one wants to sell. And if a man has anything that he must sell promptly, and at a price advantageous to the customer, he will not keep still about it, nor wait for the public to happen into his store by chance.

WITH THE TEA AND THE TOAST

GOOD EVENING Endurance is the crowning quality, and patience all the passion of great hearts. James Russell Lowell.

ON THE FIRING LINE

You must leave the Land of Nowhere, Where they never rise and shine; The world will run Where the things are done, And that's on the Firing Line.

'Tis the strife of Toil, far ringings, Of strength and courage fine, The brave and true Where the work's to do, And that's on the Firing Line.

There is a Coos Bay man so stingy that he saves match stubs for kindling.

Every Coos Bay girl thinks she could play the role of coquette all right if she cared to.

When a Coos Bay woman who hasn't any stylish clothes sees a neighbor woman all decked up in a movie picture actress she snorts and says: 'Puh! I suppose if I ran up a lot of bills and didn't pay them I could have good clothes, too!'

Lost faith is one of the few things that may not be recovered by a Times want adv.

Prayer is a good thing. But it would help some if we would put as much energy into fighting temptation as we do into praying for forgiveness after it has happened.

When eight or nine Coos Bay women are talking at the top of their voices at the same time they are not fighting. They are having a good time.

QUESTION FOR THE DAY What has become of the old-fashioned grandmother whose skirt was a foot longer in the rear than it was in front?

The reason why a fat woman knows that she is getting thinner is because everyone else can see that she is getting fatter.

The old-fashioned girl who used to believe it was sinful to paint the cheeks now has a daughter who has to use a dime's worth of cold cream to get the enamel on her face soft enough so she can peel it off before she goes to bed.

A few hard cases are apt to make a lawyer case hardened.

Most of the sympathy you get in life is almost as sincere as is the sad look on the face of Fred Wilson when he is conducting a $300 funeral.

We are all willing to give Carnegie's and Rockefeller's money to the poor but we get highly indignant when some fresh individual hints that we might donate a little of our own coin.

DOWN Beware of the meek cucumber, man! For fighting it has no renown, But it puts up a battle when it finds you have got it down.

OH, JOY! The Coos Bay girl is all smiles, the dear, For this there is a reason: She knows full well the time is here To start the hammock season.

He is a wise dentist who is able to draw his own conclusions.

Home made advice is just as satisfactory as any of the other brands.

A difference between husband and wife is not as dangerous as indifference.

A Coos Bay man can't necessarily crooked because he is unable to keep his face straight.

In after years a man is apt to be ashamed of the life he might have led but didn't.

There are times when a man doesn't think he is getting his money's worth. One is when he invests in a monument.

A Coos Bay man who falls at everything else can succeed in making a woman of 49 believe she looks young enough to be tripping off to high school.

EXPRESSIONS HIMSELF Friend wife can gab both night and day When she and he are sore, But hubby has the final say— He goes and slams the door.

LOTTIE PICKFORD, IRVING CUMMINGS, CHARLOTTE BURTON, WILLIAM RUSSELL AND EUGENIE FORD IN AN INTERESTING SCENE IN 'THE DIAMOND FROM THE SKY' $10,000 PRIZE PICTURIZED ROMANTIC NOVEL BEING FILMED BY FLYING 'A'

Of the most interesting and absorbing scenes which crowd one upon another throughout the many chapters of 'The Diamond from the Sky,' the picture which is most impressive. It is taken from Chapter V, depicting the arrival of the 'Arthur Stanley' (Irving Cummings) under arrest for the murder of 'Lee.' In the lower left hand corner, Lottie Pickford, as 'Esther,' the adopted daughter of the gypsy queen, 'Hagar,' is seen in an effort to convince 'Arthur' that she believes in his innocence. 'Hagar,' the gypsy queen, portrayed by Eugenie Ford, is shown to the right of the picture, and 'Blair Stanley' (William Russell),

MRS. HADLOCK IS DECLARED QUALIFIED AS DIRECTOR

Eastside Discussion Regarding Election is Brought to Close—Shows She Owns Property

By producing receipts showing herself the owner of shares in a corporation paying taxes within the city limits of Eastside, Mrs. Irving Hadlock was last night duly declared a legal member of the Eastside school board. This ended a discussion that has waxed since the election of ten days ago.

Intense interest centered about the meeting of last night and there were between 75 and 100 persons present at the meeting of the board that was called expressly for the purpose of reaching a settlement of the difference.

Representing Raymond E. Baker, county school superintendent, who is busy with the teachers' examinations in Coquille, Judge Hall attended the meeting of the directors.

Mrs. Hadlock brought with her receipts showing that on April 15, 1915, she had secured the ownership of three shares of stock in the Kenwill telephone line at Cooston. The board then passed a resolution according to Judge Hall, stating that, this being the case, Mrs. Hadlock has been legally elected school director of Eastside.
