PROTEST ONE RACE

F. P. NORTON'S BONNIE JUNE DECLARED TOO FAST

Big Crowd Witnesses Second Day's Racing at Myrtle Point—Good Time Made in Some Events

(Special to The Times.) MYRTLE POINT, Ore., July 4.—The last day of the mid-summer race meet in Myrtle Point Saturday was witnessed by one of the largest crowds that ever gathered on the course. The weather and track were fine and some of the races usually good. Other side sports and events made the day most enjoyable.

The first race on the card was protested after the first heat, it being charged that F. P. Norton's Bonnie June had a mark better than 2:35 and was not eligible to enter it. Norton offered to bet $1000 that Bonnie June was eligible and finally showed the judges his bill of sale for it. Even then the contestants would not race against her and the second heat was entered only by Norton with Bonnie June the other entries not started. The results:

Half-mile trot or pace, 2:35 class, purse $100. Bonnie June (Norton) 1:11. Wahke (Allen) 2:22. Bill Murray (Eyland) 3:33. Jim Baldwin (Slagle) 4:44. Time 1:14; 1:21.

Five-eighths dash — Rogue River (Lee) 1:05. Abella (Trip) 2:10. Time, 1:05.

Mile trot or pace, each heat a race, purse $150. Harry N. (Seeley) 1:11. Bonnie June 2:22. Wahke (Allen) 3:33. Time, 2:28; 2:29; 2:32.

Mile and an eighth dash, purse $200. Veloski (Mitchell) 1:05. Gift (Wilson) 2:10. Greenlaw (Trip) 3:15. Time, 2:00. Consolation dash, purse $75. Charley Foster 1:10. Greenlaw 2:15. The two-year-old dash was won Zee.

Amil Matson defeated Shannon Mitchell in the four-mile motorcycle race. The mile and an eighth dash was one of the best races of the meeting. Greenlaw and Veloski fought it hard for the lead for the first three quarters when Gift shot into the lead for a time, but then Veloski jumped into the lead. Veloski was a $10,000 horse in Montana when a two-year-old, but suffered an injury and has not raced until last week. He is in fine form.

AUCTION SALE

GREAT SUCCESS

BIG CROWDS TAKE ADVANTAGE OF WONDERFUL VALUES IN JEWELRY AT RED CROSS—TWO AUCTIONS DAILY. Despite the talk of hard times and no money the store has been crowded at every sale. When the announcement was made that this great stock was to be sold at auction there were many comments of an apprehensive nature. Strong friends of the store looked upon it with misgivings, there was even in the mind of Manager Birch a feeling of uncertainty and trepidation. It was an innovation in business methods of this city and section, but Frank Birch had confidence in the auctioneer, Mr. Harding, and the sale was started. Uncertainty soon gave way to confidence the best people of Marshfield came and entered the competition for they soon learned that it was a clean clear cut business proposition and they bought what they wanted with absolute confidence. Mr. Frank Birch, the manager, and Mr. Harding, the auctioneer, have been congratulated on all sides in the way they have conducted this sale, the management of this store determined at the outset that here should be no misrepresentation as to the quality of the goods and that nothing should be sold that the house could not absolutely guarantee. Only a few more days of this, the greatest of all slaughter sales. Two sales each day, 2:30 and 7:30 p. m.

SCORED BY JUDGE

NEVA HATCHER GIVEN SEVERE LECTURE WHEN SENTENCED

Must Go to Penitentiary for Term of From Three to Twenty Years

Neva Hatcher found guilty of a statutory crime involving Pauline Stillwell, a minor girl of Bandon, was sentenced to the penitentiary. The girl has been ordered sent to the Good Shepherd Home at Portland.

Judge Coke, in passing sentence upon Hatcher scored him severely. Hatcher has a wife and child. The Coquille Sentinel in telling of the case says: "It was lamentable," he said, "that his wife and child must be left to suffer for the delinquency of the husband and father. At the same time he was not sure but they would be better off without the championship of a man who was engaged in ruining young girls or contributing to their downfall. It was better, too, he believed, that no more children should be born a man who does such things.

"You, he went on, with a wife and family, owe them a duty and you haven't done it. I don't feel that the court is called upon to show leniency to a man who commits crimes of this character with fifteen year old children. It is not a pleasant duty to sentence, but it is one which the court is not disposed to dodge. The balance of humanity is entitled to protection against such men as you. Every man who has conducted himself as you have with this girl should be punished. It is very unfortunate that you should be guilty. The sentence of the court is that you be confined in the penitentiary for the minimum term provided for the offense of which you have been convicted—from three to twenty years."

FATHER MUST PAY. John Stillwell, father of Pauline Stillwell, was found guilty of contempt of court for not paying alimony to his wife. He was sentenced to 60 days in jail but the sentence was suspended on the condition that Stillwell would remain in the county and try to support his family.

MAKES AN APPEAL

BRYAN SPEAKS AT THE EXPOSITION CELEBRATION

Says Troubles Should be Settled by Applying Simple Standards of the Moral Code. (By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.) SAN FRANCISCO, July 5.—William Jennings Bryan, orator of the Independence Day celebration at the Panama-Pacific Exposition, appealed today to the American people to solve the international and domestic difficulties by applying to them the simple standards of the moral code, and to return to their proper, inferior places, money as compared to man, might as compared with right. "If man's rights are trampled on," he said, "rights of property will have no defender."

CURRY INTERESTED

WOMEN, TOO, WANT TO KNOW ABOUT MODERN DAIRYING

Probably Will Be Another Series of Farm Picnics Before Summer Is Over Says J. L. Smith

Even the lame, the halt and the blind take an interest in modern farm methods in Curry County, according to J. L. Smith, county agriculturist, who last week attended the dairymen's picnic near Denmark.

"They came in wagons and took more interest in the talks than most people would in a first class show," said Mr. Smith. Especially interesting to the men was the stock judging. And because of the keen interest that was taken throughout the county by the picnickers in these "get together and talk over our business" meetings there probably will be another series held before the summer is over.

Mr. Smith was delighted with the Star ranch near Langlois, which is conducted by Dr. Wetherbee. His stock is first class and he has three of the largest concrete silos in the county," said the agriculturist. Reports from the one cow testing association of Curry County indicates a rapid growth and a tendency to enlarge the association next year with the addition of several more herds.
