COOS BAY CLIMATE

FOR several days Coos Bay people have actually complained about the heat. The highest that the temperature reached during the past week was 75 degrees.

CROWD WELL HANDLED

THE FOURTH OF JULY celebration passed off in Marshfield without any accidents. The only unfortunate thing that happened was the drowning of the little boy, but that was outside the city.

WITH THE TEA AND THE TOAST

GOOD EVENING

It is almost as presumptuous to think that you can do nothing as to think you can do everything—Phillips Brooks.

You can always tell a good friend from the fact that he generally keeps his opinions to himself.

Lots of Coos Bay men who whip their children for telling lies will go out and use dummy ducks when they are hunting.

The man who marries a widow may not be a gardener, but he certainly removes the weeds.

A woman never knows what she wants until she realizes she can't get it.

Happiness depends quite as much on what we don't do as upon what all do do.

It's the little things that count, but don't lose sight of the fact that it's the biggest fish that always gets away.

Influence is all right in its way, but it is just as well to remember that the people with a pull don't always pull together.

It's hard to be poor, but on the other hand, it's about the easiest thing in the world.

It doesn't pay to fight the other people's battles, unless you happen to be a lawyer.

What a silent place this world would be if we should all think twice before we speak.

WILL VISIT HAWAII FOURTH WAS QUIET

MR. AND MRS. KENNETH HAUSER TAKE LONG HONEYMOON

Society Turns On Enmasse for Wedding of Popular Contractor to Miss Mabel A. Porter

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth D. Hauser have left Spokane on their honeymoon, expecting to visit in Portland and at Gearhart and then leisurely travel down the coast taking in both positions in California, following which they will go to Honolulu and thence back to Chicago and St. Paul.

The Spokane Chronicle carries a large picture immediately following the marriage of Miss Mabel A. Porter to Kenneth D. Hauser, who is well known here, having been two years aiding in the construction of the Willamette Pacific line north of Coos Bay to the Umpqua.

A string sextette concealed on the balcony played a musical program until 8 o'clock when the strains of Wagner's "Lohengrin" announced the arrival of the bridal procession.

Mrs. Porter, mother of the bride, on the arm of Rupert V. Hauser of St. Paul, led the procession into the living room, where the ceremony was performed. Mrs. Porter wore a gown of black lace over white satin with girle and trimmings of old blue.

Miss Jean Porter, sister of the bride and maid of honor, followed. Miss Porter wore a creation in pink shading from a shell pink drop of taffeta to a deep shade of the same color in silk tulle, which formed a short overdrape that veiled the skirt.

Before dancing began at 10 o'clock guests viewed the magnificent gifts which the couple received. Supper was served in the dining room, which was massed with pink blossoms. On the table was a pyramid of pink roses.

The grounds of the Porter home were brilliant with myriads of electric lights and Japanese lanterns. Ruas and chairs and great vases of sweet peas and roses were placed about the lawn. On the lower terrace was the dancing pavilion, the merriment of the guests until an early hour this morning.

Go on Honeymoon Trip. Mr. and Mrs. Hauser left over the Milwaukee railroad for an extended honeymoon on the Coast. They will stop at Portland and Gearhart and proceed leisurely to San Francisco and Los Angeles. They will visit the to Chicago and St. Paul will occupy fairs. A trip to Honolulu and thence the remainder of their honeymoon. Tansers will reside in St. Paul.

Sixty or more of the guests flocked to the train to see the couple safely off. The Dutch band, composed of friends of the bridal pair, serenaded Mr. and Mrs. Hauser at the union station before the arrival of their train.

AMONG THE SICK

Chas. McClees, of the Blanco Cigar Store, is reported to be quite ill of pneumonia. He had been ill for two or three days before he was forced to remain at home.

Dorsey Kreitzer was reported to be a little better today, having passed a fairly good night. During the last few days the doctor states there seems to have been a little improvement.

MILL Closed Down.—The C. A. Smith mill did not run today, but will open up on time tomorrow morning. It was said that the mill was short of logs because the loggers from the various camps were in the city celebrating the Fourth of July and the logging trains were not again started until today. There were some of the workmen who reported for work on the regular time only to find the notice telling of another holiday.

COTTAGE GROVE.—The Commercial Club of Cottage Grove is urging that Lane County have a special representative at the San Francisco exposition.

The Coos Bay man who minds his own business isn't so apt to have other people doing it for him.

Lots of Coos Bay people who go on the principle that it is never too late to mend their ways put it off until they forget how.

NO DISTURBANCE TO MAR THREE-DAY PROGRAM

Police Say No Trouble Made—Barkers Fold Their Tents and Depart in "Cold Gray Dawn"

A peaceful Fourth, safe and sane, say the police officers. And they are right. There was practically no disturbance on the streets at any time during the celebration of three days and only the ordinary number of persons found themselves cared for in the Carter Hotel.

Despite the fact that hundreds of visitors poured into the city and despite the fact that hundreds of visitors poured down varying quantities of sundry liquids the police had no more trouble calls than usual and the whole schedule of festivities went off without a hitch.

To be sure there were a couple of fights, a man too much in the wind tried to sleep on the car tracks, but these events did not clutter the police blotter.

Thin came at the conclusion of the long program, waiting long enough to in no way mar the festivities. This morning, "the cold gray dawn of the morning after," flags and bunting presented a dreary spectacle and the streets were heavy with paper and litter. The barkers had gone from his stall, had packed up his tents in the night and fled, and once again the daily round had settled down.

Baby Dolls Were Costly. The Baby Doll roulette wheel at Front and Commercial, was probably the biggest money-making concession here the Fourth. It had a big play and the profit was large.

One logger named Pierce is said to have spent $50 in a vain effort to win a Baby Doll. Many others secured dolls more easily, but a large percentage of those getting dolls paid well for them.

The Teddy Bear concession did not get the play it did last year, but did a large business. Four concessions of this kind are said to have belonged to a Sacramento vendor, but he took out the permits in the names of different individuals.

NEWS OF OREGON

PORTLAND.—C. W. Wiley, new marine superintendent for the Great Northern Pacific Steamship Company, will open offices in Portland.

SALEM.—The report of the State Treasurer shows a gain in the amount of money on hand as compared to the same date last year.

BAKER.—Daylight fireworks exploded too soon at a celebration in Baker, and J. P. Penrod was injured and may be blind as a result.

PENDLETON.—Carl Hoeft, a prominent German farmer, died at a local hospital, aged 56 years.

REDMOND.—Although the hot winds have done some damage the grain crop in the Deschutes county will be a large one this season. It is estimated that five bushels an acre is the extent of the damage done by the wind.
