LOCAL TEMPERATURE RECORD
For the 24 hours ending at 4:43 a. m., July 8, by Benj. Oatlin, special government meteorologist:

Will be at Eastside.—Rev. Mr. Abbott of the Methodist church will hold quarterly conference at Eastside Saturday evening and will preach there Sunday morning.

To Meet Redmen.—L. H. Hamig, Great Chief of Redmen of the Redmen of Oregon, arrived here last evening and on Monday will meet with the local lodge at a special meeting. He will be here on business for several days.

Jack is Like Clam.—Garrulous was Australian Jack when interviewed yesterday by District Attorney Liljeqvist concerning bootlegging at Powers. He was put in the cooler for the night and this morning, having recovered, closed his mouth like the proverbial clam and refused to divulge a thing to the officers.

Has Frock Flower.—S. B. Cathcart exhibited at the Times office a freak flower. It is double pink dahlia. There are two distinct blooms back to back making a large complete ball of bloom.

Was in Mexico.—Miss Violet Henderson, formerly secretary of the Marshfield Chamber of Commerce but who has been residing in Oakland for the past two years, writes to friends that she recently made a trip east to see her mother. On the way she visited Brownsville and made a trip across the Rio into Mexico.

Had to Leap.—Judge Hall was a visitor for a few minutes at the county court yesterday afternoon just after the bids for the night ferry between here and Eastside had been opened. He said that the contract had been awarded but that he was told the lowest bid for the work was $48 a month. This means the ferryman must furnish, in addition to his services, a gasoline boat and fuel. The figure has been $100 for this service.

Working Elaborate.—William Kaler returned yesterday from Spokane where he went to attend the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hanner. He said that the affair was very elaborate and that the young couple are now on their way south. The Spokane papers stated they would make their home in St. Paul and Mr. Kaler said it is not known definitely yet whether or not Kenneth Hanner will return here.

Attach Money.—Deputy Sheriff Laird served an attachment on J. W. Bennett, Tom Bennett, Bennett Swanson and the Flanagan & Bennett bank in the case of the First National Bank of Madison vs. C. A. Swanson and A. S. Swanson of Madison. The bank holds a judgment for $414 and a $10 attorney fee against the Swanson family which was affirmed this week by the Oregon Supreme Court.

Go to Coquille.—Carl Walker left on the train for Coquille this morning where he will join his father T. A. Walker and in his car go to Roseburg. From there Carl Walker is expected to take the train for Canada where he expects to look about over the country. On the trip to Roseburg they will be accompanied by Hark Dunham who is going out to the state training school with the Stillwell girl and two boys.

Serve Summons.—Deputy Sheriff Laird who was here from Coquille last night served summons on several Marshfield people in a case at Spokane. The case was entitled Roberts vs. Driscoll and involved the estate of Mrs. Harriette B. S. Driscoll to which Sol Driscoll, Mr. Enola Driscoll, Minnie Driscoll and Lillian Driscoll of Marshfield are heirs and consequently parties to the action.

Sleeps it Off.—Though his name was not entered on the police blotter, loud snoring, high pitched and shrill, this morning disclosed the fact that "Australian Jack" was sleeping within the Hotel Carter. He was placed there yesterday afternoon following the attempt of District Attorney Liljeqvist to interview him, all of which was of no avail for "Australian Jack" had long since passed the point where he could recognize facts and individuals and was wandering about in "Lotus Land."
