

WHAT SOCIETY IS DOING

WAYS OF WOMEN

You may boast of lovely womanhood and sing about her praise. And remark her cheery manner and her optimistic ways. But a woman is a woman—hard to fathom as the sky! She can do a dozen women's work and never bat an eye! But she can't be optimistic in a faded summer hat. When the frost is on the window and the rent is on the flat! She will soothe your wounded feelings and assuage your sudden fright. When a flock of ghostly butcher bills jumps out at you at night! She may be as bold and fearless as a lion full of roar. When your pulse is like a fritter and the wolf is at the door! Still, she can't endure the torture of that faded summer hat. When the frost is on the window and the rent is on the flat!

Yes, the ways of subtle woman are unsearchable and strange, And her sunny disposition is susceptible to change; She can be as sad and silent as a doughnut on a plate, Sigh and seek her quiet chamber in a melancholy state, Then rush on you like a sunburst in a forty-dollar hat— Hang the frost that's on the window! Hang the rent that's on the flat! —Selected.

body who wants to marry need be discouraged. The process of marrying is the easiest thing of all. It's the staying married that I am talking about—the staying married willingly—joyfully—gladly. And that's what I said in the first place. Men don't know how to make love. They only know how to get married.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

A merry party was that held on Thursday afternoon when a number of small friends of Harry Gettins aided him in celebrating his seventh birthday. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in playing games, after which refreshments, which only boys can appreciate were served to the following guests: John Butler, Gifford Friedberg, Wilder Immel, Harry Gettins, Audrey Lyons, Mrs. L. L. Thomas and daughter Louise, Mrs. W. A. Reid and Helen and Warren Reid and Mrs. F. K. Gettins and Mrs. J. S. Lyons.

MARSHFIELD CLUB PROGRAM

The Progress Club of Marshfield is among the first of the women's clubs in the state to issue its year book for next year. The officers of this club are as follows: President, Mrs. W. S. Nicholson; vice-president Mrs. A. E. Adelsperger; recording secretary, Mrs. Ben Chandler; corresponding secretary, Mrs. F. W. Payne; treasurer, Mrs. A. B. Gidley. The club will take up two distinct lines of work during the coming year, civic problems and women in French history. The first meeting will be devoted to women in politics, the next two to public health and the fourth to public markets, this introducing a debate on whether or not Marshfield should have a public market. Under this general head of civic improvement the following general topics will be discussed: Road and street construction, municipal ownership, harbor improvements, philanthropic enterprises, what can be done for Marshfield boys and girls. This part of the year's work closes at the meeting February 21 with a review of the earlier work. French women in science, in literature, in intrigue and politics, French salons and their influence political, social and literary, covers the study of the French woman in history. May 1 is scheduled for the annual business meeting and election of officers and May 15 for the annual luncheon. —Portland Journal

THIMBLE CLUB

Mrs. J. G. Mullen was the charming hostess at a most delightful meeting of the Thimble Club at her home in North Bend yesterday. A profusion of sweet peas and dahlias converted her attractive home into a bower of beauty for the occasion. In serving, she was assisted by her sister, Mrs. W. J. Conrad of Marshfield. More Improvements

The REYNOLDS DEVELOPMENT CO. in following out its original policy; namely, to make FIRST ADDITION the most ideal and most desirable residence section in the City of Marshfield has again started extensive improvement in the form of street grading and clearing.

Some of the most ideally located lots, both for investors and home builders, will be graded and terraced so as to be easily accessible with a level of only two to four feet above the street.

There are very few such bargains left in FIRST ADDITION and the one who takes advantage of the bargains now offered will reap the benefits.

FIRST ADDITION IS THE ONLY SECTION IN WHICH MODERN IMPROVEMENTS ARE BEING CARRIED ON TO ANY LARGE EXTENT. Because of this it must continue to be Marshfield's foremost residence section.

Remember these facts and invest your money where returns are certain.

Lots 50x120 $300 each. Your own terms.

AM about to give away the secret of 10,000 girls. I can do it in just one little sentence of eight words.

Men do not know how to make love.

Now here is a queer thing, and I call your attention to it, not because I care a bit whether you agree with me or not, writes Lillian Bell.

Girls all know that what I have just said is true, yet few of them will be brave enough to admit it to any man.

Nor to any other girl. But they will to ME.

Why?

To admit to a man would be either to discourage a possible mate, or to dinner.

To admit to any other girl would give her the chance to raise her eyebrows and say, "Have you had luck? I haven't (Which would be a fib.)"

But to tell it to me is like the feel of the kimono after the front laces have been to tight.

Girls don't mind telling me things. That's why I know so much about them. And that's why I know how men make love. The girls tell me.

No. Men seldom make good lovers and men never make perfect lovers. I never could understand why a man who plays a good game of whist should not know how to make love. There are so many points in common. You can play a game of whist so badly your partner will think lovingly of murder, or you can play it with a science which would make even "Hoyle" respect you.

Now, I am not a good whist player.

Ask anybody who ever played with me and listen to what they say—if you can.

They will tell you that I can take any number of tricks—yet I am not playing whist, I am just winning the game, that is all.

If my partner says, "Let's beat 'em!" we do. But it is like saying to a cab driver, "You make that train." We make the train and say nothing about taking off a wheel or two in the process.

Now, you must not think me either stupid or blundering. I play with magnificent efficiency, but somehow efficiency is not the best qualification for a whist player. I am too lucky at holding cards and I play each one to win. I am lavish with tempo and often had them first time round.

I have no skill in delicate moves, in finesse, in subtlety. To tell the brutal truth, I play my own hand.

Could any statement sound worse to a whist player?

Yet my manner of playing which is the way most men make love. What?

You don't understand me? You say you do not know? And you point to a perfectly satisfied sweetheart or even a contented wife to prove it?

I never said you couldn't get married.

On the contrary I state it as my positive conviction that any man—and
