light they thought they could see in the sky. This was due to the fact that the waste burner at one of the North Bend mills was burning high. At times the light from this burned reflects in such a way that it looks as though there was a big fire north of here and such was the case last night.

Buys Song—Capt. Macgenn says that while he was in Portland the Weinhard brewery placed an order with him for 200 copies of his song "When Oregon Goes Dry."

Put in Big Tank—Workmen today completed putting in a large under sidewalk gasoline tank for the Marshfield Hardware company. This was placed under the paving according to the city ordinance.

Each Fined $5—Mike Mullen, in a sullen mood last night walked down Front street and, meeting E. L. Viers is said to have accosted him with caustic remarks that the latter resented. It is said a sign board was demolished and both men were put under arrest by Officer Shoup. Mullen became a guest of the city. Both were fined $5 this morning and sentence was suspended. Mullen was told to hurry on and get to work at once. He said he would.

Look and Read
 Did it ever occur to you that by saving a little on every purchase of meat it is reducing the cost of your living. Why not then come and talk it over with us at the PALACE MEAT MARKET, where you can get the best refrigerated meats a few cents a pound cheaper than you can buy elsewhere. Ask your neighbor who probably trades here and see what he has to say as to the price and quality of our meats.
 We will have tomorrow (Saturday) some nice Bay City grain-fed chickens at 20 cents a pound.
