BORN

HILL—To Mr. and Mrs. John Hill Friday, July 16, 1915, a boy. Both mother and son doing very well.

Speaks at Flag Hall.—Rev. G. LeRoy Hall will speak at Flagstaff school house tomorrow evening at 7:30 p. m.

Special Sermon.—"Signs of the Times, in Relation to Speculation and Prophecy," will be the subject of the sermon in the Episcopal church tomorrow at the 10 a. m. service.

More Cottages.—Dr. Ira B. Bartle is figuring on building two more cottages near Mirac Cove on South Coos River which he will lease during the summer months.

Sunday Services.—The rector of Marshfield Episcopal church will conduct a service of the Holy Communion at St. Mary's Chapel, North Bend, at 8 a. m. tomorrow and an evening service at St. Luke's church, Empire.

Plans Trip.—Dr. Wm. Horsfall is planning an auto trip to California as soon as he recovers sufficiently from his recent illness. J. J. Clinkenbeard and Pete Anderson of North Bend may accompany him.

Repair Dock.—Workmen today are repairing the dock in the rear of the Ekblad Hardware Store. The timbers in many places had worn through to such an extent that the dock became unsafe. Heavy planks are being put in there.

Christian Church Service.—Rev. J. S. Nichols, of Portland, will preach tomorrow morning and evening in the Christian Church. The morning subject at eleven o'clock is "Blind Bartimaeus" and for eight o'clock in the evening, "Naaman, the Leper."

Sells Timber.—W. A. Reid today closed a deal for the sale of a half interest in forty acres on Daniels Creek belonging to W. H. Morgan, to A. T. Haines. This is the last of Mr. Morgan's holdings. Mr. Reid having disposed of the ranches some time ago.

Withdraws Name.—In conformity with the action of the Masons and the other night, A. J. Savage appeared before Recorder Butler yesterday and withdrew his signature from the petition asking that Pine street be graded and planked.

Services at Beach.—Rev. G. LeRoy Hall will have charge of the Sunday school exercises at Bastendoff Beach tomorrow morning at eight o'clock for the benefit of all families down there camping. In the evening Mrs. Hall will have charge of services to be held at Empire.

Bankruptcy Hearing.—July 29 is set as the date for the meeting of the creditors of B. R. Keller, formerly of the Orpheum Theater. Par-pers have just been received here by Judge C. A. Sehlbrede, referee in bankruptcy, from the Portland court where they were sent for adjudication. The liabilities are totaled at $2,890.25 and it is said the assets amount to $200 or $300.

Gets Collar.—No 16 has been awarded tatted collar made by Mrs. Nettie Saling of Eastside. Owner can get it from her or by phoning 322.

Made Good Time.—Charles Doane, Jr., and Henry Webster who made the trip to Roseburg on horseback write back that they reached Roseburg Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, having left here Tuesday morning. The boys were in time to see the Liberty Bell and expect to visit in the vicinity of Roseburg for several days.

Directories Out.—The new telephone directories are just out and today are being distributed through the county. There are approximately 2800 issues. It is said the consolidation of the farmers lines at Myrtle Point has offset other gains through the county and the books printed this time are about the same number as printed in December.

Last of Phillistines.—Local readers of the Phillistine, formerly edited by Elbert Hubbard, are bemoaning the fact that the last issue has reached here. With the drowning of the great writer the feature of the issues has been lost. To Coos Bay this is the visible end of Elbert Hubbard, publication of his work being suspended after 20 years and two months.

Fishing is Good.—The crew of the Gjoa, arriving here this morning from Rogue River, report that fishing on the river has been very good during the past few days and that both canneries there are kept busy. The men on the gasoline boat Relief in this morning from the Siu-law report little halibut fishing off the coast there lately. They say they went out two days ago and the results were far from being successful.

Has Brother at Front.—Fred Chestnut is expecting to hear most any day that his brother has reached the front with the second Canadian contingent, ready to begin fighting in France. It has been several weeks since he has heard a word from him, but he knows that he is on his way there. Nothing is known about where the Canadians will be stationed but it is presumed they will enter the fighting zone in northern France with what is left of the other troops that have been sent from Canada.

Want Adv. Recovers Pin.—Mrs. A. Abbott, who is now located in Powers, recently lost a beautiful agate pin on Hall avenue, Marshfield. Like everyone else on Coos Bay when anything is lost, she immediately thought of The Times and sent a want adv. to this office. The want adv. was read by Mrs. B. C. Welp, who found the pin and promptly brought it to The Times and it will be restored to Mrs. Abbott who valued it very highly. Although a reward was offered, Mrs. Welp refused to accept anything. Ties want advs. get results because everyone on Coos Bay reads The Times.

PERSONAL MENTION

E. W. GOULD of Coos River was here last evening on a visit.

SCHAPERS IS GUILTY

JUDGE PENNOCK LEVIES $50 FINE IN ELK HORN CASE
Attorney for Defense Says 1913 Statute is Ex Post Facto Law and Will Make Appeal

GUILTY with a fine of $50 was the sentence imposed this morning by Judge Pennock, in the justice court, against Jordan Schapers, of Allegany, charged with having elk horns unlawfully in his possession. The attorneys for the defendant immediately gave notice of an appeal to the circuit court.

In passing his opinion Judge Pennock declared that the law of 1913 is indefinite in that it asserts "It shall be unlawful at any time to have in one's possession any elk or portion thereof, except for breeding or scientific purposes." The law does not state any time limit, he says, after which it shall be unlawful to have elk horns in possession, and, therefore he argues, the law must mean all elk horns. He qualifies this statement saying horns, mounted and hung in homes and edge rooms, surely must be exempted.

Hunters and those owning elk horns declare that no matter if they brought them from another state, nevertheless they are amenable to the law and subject to an arrest and fine.

"I don't think it will go this far," said Judge Pennock. "The law should be more clear. If it is lacking or is unconstitutional this is a good chance to find it out." This is exactly what they intend to do, say the attorneys for the defense.

They say that the elk, the horns of which were in Mr. Schapers' possession, was killed prior to the enactment of this law in 1913 and therefore this is an ex-post fact law and can not hold in this case. Further they state that no one, under this construction, can retain any horns they may now own.

Send Horns Away
Deputy Game Warden Thomas has already received orders from the Master Game Warden to ship the horns to Portland. There are 13 pairs of them and they go into the possession of the state. He said they might be sold later. These horns were owned, at the time of their seizure, by Alfred Bayne who said he was making a collection for the

The Magic Crystal

It is just as important to our daily health and well being that the soap we use to cleanse the outside of our body should be as pure and healthful and free from impurities as the food we put inside our body. To this end every reputable manufacturer of toilet soaps aims to give in his soap the highest purity.

In Boraxo, the 20-Mule Team Toilet Soap, the purest and most excellent materials are manufactured in most convenient and satisfactory form. Combined with absolutely pure soap Boraxo contains a very large percentage of Borax. This Look for the 20-Mule Team Trade Mark adds to the soap a softening quality, resulting in much more effectiveness, with better effects on the skin. Perfectly safe for even baby's delicate skin, invaluable to the housewife, useful for removing grease, oil, and ground-in dirt. Boraxo is the safest, most effective, most convenient of modern toilet necessities.

Put up in a powdered form, it lathers easily and quickly, gets into the cracks and brings out the dirt. Convenient to use and absolutely sanitary. It can be obtained at the groceries in ten and twenty-five cent sifting-top containers.
