BUY IT NOW

THERE are certain lines of improvement which you have had in mind for some months past, but like many others you have been procrastinating, have been putting off the placing of your orders for materials and labor.

President Wilson, in speaking of the "buy it now" movement, says: "If you are going to buy, buy it now."

WITH THE TEA AND THE TOAST

Intellectual culture has no necessary relation to purity or excellence of character. In the New Testament, appeals are constantly made to the heart of man and to "the spirit of the intellect are of very rare occurrence."

A PROUD BURDEN

Folks come and tell me of the woe. The taxes and the wild alarms Which bend that luckless nation low Which bears the weight of war-like arms.

It may be true, I don't profess To be a statesman or a seer But, as a woodsman, can, I guess, Lay claim to seeing some things clear.

I know that when across my arm My good old rifle barrel slants. My face don't wear no blushes warm Because of patches on my pants.

That good old gun makes up for all My shabbiness, its coat and weight I feel all right, for neither's small— Such burdens make a man stand straight.

After a Coos Bay girl gives her hand in marriage she may discover later that she has put her foot in it.

Most Coos Bay people would rather blame a man for what he doesn't do than give him credit for what he does.

An ideal wife is one who will not believe anything bad on her husband even when she knows it is true.

You may be cheated, it is true. When you are buying pleasure, But when you borrow trouble, you Are sure to get full measure.

A Coos Bay husband is usually an animal who has to listen while his wife tells him how good and how attractive all other husbands are to their wives.

A Coos Bay girl may not accept a proposal of marriage but she always admires the good judgment of the man who made it.

QUESTION FOR THE DAY

Why is it that the women who do their own washing and their own housework never suffer from nervous prostration?

There are lots of queer people on Coos Bay. Sometimes you even see a woman who doesn't think there is an overcharge in the gas bill.

It doesn't seem right that a divorce should cause more joy than the wedding that preceded it, but it often pans out that way.

Before he gets her she is a clinging vine. After he gets her she reminds him of poison ivy.

Blushing is a lost art. The trouble is that the girls put on so much paint and powder that a blush can't show through.

"Well," remarked Henry von Songstaecken Wednesday after reading The Times' war bulletin of the Russian retreat, "Well, maybe Hargigan is right, the Russians will win in the 'long run.'"

A POETICAL OUTBURST

The following piece of poetry was handed to Ye Ed. The writer is not expected to live. Poor boy! He was so bright before it happened but by his last act has forfeited all right to sympathy.

The sun went down, the moon came up.

And calm and quiet reigned supreme. A monkey climbed out on a tree And picked his teeth all quite serene.

The birds crashed through the underbrush, The elephants tripped from tree to tree.

A canary bird began to roar And a lion chirped at its own front door.

'Twas a wonderful sight for one to see And one that will be remembered long by me.

TIRED OF LIFE

Constant Backache and Rheumatism

Foley Kidney Pills fixed up Texas brakeman so he's good as ever.

Almost down and out with kidney trouble, Kitchener as he had been called, scarcely got up when he sat down. Back ached all the time.

No wonder Mr. P. A. Wooley, brakeman on the road from Dallas to Jackson, Texas, "was tired of living."

"I saw Foley's Kidney Pills advertised," he said, "I took some and after a short time I was thoroughly cured and am having no more trouble."

Your kidney ills will disappear—and with them the backache and rheumatism, by the use of Foley's Kidney Pills. Once your kidneys become strong and active, aches and pains will disappear like magic.

There's nothing to equal the gentleness. Will help any case of kidney or bladder trouble not beyond the reach of medicine. Contains no harmful drugs. To them.

DOCTORS TO MEET

OSTEOPATHS WILL MEET IN PORTLAND AUGUST 2.

About 1300 Will Assemble From All Parts of the Country to Talk Work of the Profession

PORTLAND, July 23.—Between 1200 and 1300 osteopaths will be in Portland the latter part of next week in readiness for the National convention of the association, which will begin August 2 and continue until August 6. This is the 19th annual convention of the National association.

The headquarters for the meeting are to be at the Multnomah Hotel.

A popular meeting in one of the theaters of the city will be held on the evening of the opening day, at which Dr. R. Kendrick Smith, president of the Boston Browning Society, director of the public education bureau of the National osteopathic organization and well known as a lecturer and writer, will deliver a popular address upon public health.

'Specialists Will Speak.

Dr. T. J. Ruddy, professor of ophthalmology at the College of Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons at Los Angeles, will give a stereopticon lecture upon the specialty, in which he is recognized authority. Dr. Arthur G. Hildreth, president of the Osteopathic Sanitarium at Macon, Mo., will tell how it has just been discovered that osteopathy cures some kinds of insanity.

The president, Dr. C. A. Upton, of St. Paul, Minn., will preside, and in the technical sessions, which begin Tuesday, Dr. George Laughlin, the "American Lorenz," as he is known in the Middle West, will open with an explanation of the osteopathic treatment of pneumonia. Dr. Carl P. McConnell, professor of osteopathy in the Chicago College and the pioneer research worker of the profession, will discuss the cause of the displacement of bones.

Extent of Work Told

"Twilight Sleep," not the drug kind, but the pressure anaesthesia, which is the osteopathic substitute for it, will be explained by Dr. W. E. Clark, of Indianapolis, the author of the textbook on obstetrics. The establishment of osteopathic clinics in 300 churches throughout the country will be described by Dr. H. M. Vastine, of Harrisburg, Pa., chairman of the National board of clinics. Dr. C. M. Hulett, superintendent of the A. T. Still Research Institute in Chicago, will outline the latest experiments conducted in that institution.

This presents only a beginning of a week of deliberation and of scholarly addresses prepared by some of the most advanced men of the profession in the world. Each day there will be given from two to three addresses of major importance, to say nothing of numberless minor papers and addresses, which will have a great popular as well as technical interest to those who have interested themselves in this science.

HAVE IRISH GENERAL

Has Command of Troops of That Nationality

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

LONDON, July 22.—One of the new branches of Kitchener's army in training now in a camp south of London, is an Irish army, commanded by an Irish general. This is the first time in British history that such a force has been assembled. There have always been Irish troops in the British army, and sometimes they have even been in the majority, but hitherto the largest purely Irish unit has been the regiment. This is the first time that an entire division of Irish troops has been made up.

The "Irish Division," as it is technically called, received its first training on the soil of its native isle, and has only recently been brought to England. Soon after its arrival it was inspected by the King and Lord Kitchener, and the latter set his seal of approval by declaring it "one of the finest divisions in the new army."

ALBANY.—The Commercial Club has taken up the fight against the fire blight which is injuring the fruit crop.

ORRINE
