SPECIAL FEATURE ATTRACTION VIOLA DANA The great Broadway star, in "THE STONING" A star and a play that gives the screen an undying "Camille" in power of appeal. Viola Dana, the Broadway star who riveted the country's attention as the child actress in the title role of "The Poor Little Rich Girl," has stamped indelibly on the screen in "The Stoning," a characterization of young innocence betrayed, that shall live as long as memory lives. "The Stoning" is a play of life as it is. A masterpiece in film production.

Boy Scouts

—Until the return of Mr. Niles, master of the Boy Scouts, the regular Monday meetings of the organization will be suspended. Mr. Niles is expected here about the middle of August.

Thrown From Wheel

—E. L. Hopson, while going on his bicycle to the fire at the Norton residence Sunday had an accident. The chain on his bicycle came off, throwing the rider to the pavement. Mr. Hopson was quite badly bruised.

Talks to Loggers

—Dr. H. M. Shaw spoke last evening in the Logger's chapel at Powers, before a good-sized audience of men on the subject "How to Live, from a Physician's Standpoint." Dr. Shaw returned home this morning.

Files Suit

—E. H. Joehnk has filed suit in the justice court against Fred Nieme for $35 and 6 per cent interest. He claims this amount is due for professional services rendered between May 5, 1912 and May 3, 1913.

Child Christened

—The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Lillebo was christened last Sunday, at the Norwegian Lutheran church at North Bend by Rev. R. O. Thorpe, and named Dale Thomas. The witnesses were Mrs. O. Jaren and Mr. John Elide.

Will Speak Here

—Mrs. Jennie Kemp, of Portland, state president of the W. C. T. U., will speak in Coos County early in August. She will speak at San Francisco on July 30 and will come to Bandon on the first trip of the Elizabeth after that date.

Enjoy Visit on River

—Mrs. Catherine Clarke was hostess yesterday at the Orchard, the upper A. E. Seaman ranch on South Coos River to a crowd of young people who had a very enjoyable day. Those in the party were the Misses Clarke, Adelaide Clarke, Lillian Seaman and Ursula

Farringer, and Don Lawyer, W. A. Ackerman, Frank Harlocker and Rudolph Cople. Much of the time was spent in bathing and the party returned to the city last evening.

Business Meeting

—The regular quarterly business meeting of the First Baptist church will be held this evening in the church at 7:30 p. m.

Fine to Fight

—Fine to fight; fined for fighting, tells the story of Elmer Groth's and Robert Westman's troubles on Saturday. Each paid $5 to the general fund this morning, commanded to by Judge Butler.

Finds Oysters

—Capt. Lapp of the Kid today brought in an oyster which he secured in the Bay and which he took to the Chamber of Commerce to be sent to San Francisco for exhibit. It was a big bi-valve and was evidently thriving.

Auto Accident

—Donald Charlston met with a mishap in his auto class Coquille last evening. While going up a steep grade in the road where the highway is being improved, the steep incline stopped the gasoline feeding into his engine and his car started backward. He jumped out and the car continued downward, upset but did not badly damage the machine much.

Leave on Hike

—Rev. Knotts and Ed. Bolt left on the boat this morning for Allegany, taking with them boys of the two Sunday school classes of Frank Sumner and Arthur Drews of the Methodist church, about 15 in number. They took with them their blankets and food enough for a three days' trip. They expect to reach Golden Falls tonight where they will camp. E. H. Campbell went up on the afternoon boat to join them until Wednesday evening.

Motion is Overruled

—A motion of Attorneys Derbyshire and A. S. Hammond for the school board of North Bend to secure a rehearing in the case of Miss Caroline Sibel versus the board was refused by Judge Coke on Saturday. There is an appeal in now to the Supreme Court which has not yet been acted upon. The case was argued by J. T. Brand for the plaintiff.

Had Load Rat Poison

—About supper time on Saturday evening Erland Peterson was alright; he walked straight, but soon thereafter he started taking cargo aboard and with a load of "rat poison" soon found himself swamped and was picked up by a policeman when both the lee and the weather scuppers were beginning to roll under. He was towed inside, penniless.

Birds Escape

—Two "love birds" belonging to Mrs. F. V. Catterlin, which she left at the Dan McKimmon home, escaped from the cage and have been leading a number of residents a lively chase. The birds look like miniature parrots and are still in the neighborhood but have eluded every effort to capture them so far. They are very pretty and Mrs. McKimmon will pay a reward for their return to her. The birds were accidentally released by her young son opening the bottom of the cage.

Chapel is Painted

—When Rev. LeRoy Hall figured where the paint was to come from for the Logger's chapel at Powers he found there was little use figuring and let the matter drop for a time. He was surprised a short time ago to drop off the train at Powers to find the chapel shining gleefully in a brand new coat of paint. He found A. H. Powers had been doing the good fairy stunt which is not the first time he has helped the chapel when things were needed about the building.

To Teach in Bandon

—Royal Niles, who last year taught history in the high school and also coached the athletic teams, it is understood, expects to take a similar position in September at the Bandon high school, filling the place left vacant by the resignation of Harold Quigley who has another position in the north. Prof. Granis will have charge of athletics at the Marshfield high school.
