Mrs. Elizabeth Adams will entertain the club at an all-day picnic at her ranch on South Coos River August 5.

INFORMAL CHAT

Mr. and Mrs. Jens Hansen and family spent Sunday at the Goodwill place on South Coos River. It was 28 years since Mr. Hansen had visited that section of the country and he says that the growth of the timber along the upper river in that time is marvelous.

D. V. Stafford and wife and Mrs. C. K. Perry and their guest, and Mrs. Will Chenoweth and daughter, of Deatur, Ill., were Sunday guests at the A. P. Owen summer home on South Coos River.

David Mussen and wife and son, Story, spent Sunday on South Coos River.

Mrs. D. J. Rees and daughter Elma, and niece, Matie Smedden, visited for several days at the R. A. Church home at Coos River last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wiggins, who have been visiting at the Lando home left this morning for their home in Hoxie, Kansas, going via Canada where they will visit at the home of their daughter.

Mr. Tomkins' office will be closed until further notice.

LINNEA LODGE HOLDS ANNUAL GATHERING YESTERDAY

Strang's Grove on Catching Inlet Is Scene of Festivities—All Have Good Time

More than 100 members of the Linnea Lodge of the Order of Vasa went aboard the Alice H and the Mae yesterday morning, with well filled lunch baskets, bound for the Strang grove on Catching Inlet. There they spent the day in their annual picnic, returning home about 7:30 last evening.

TWO COUPLES OBEY WISHES OF CUPID

Edla M. M. Johnson Weds A. Grantstrom and Edla Erickson Bride Of William Henry

At the home of Rev. Bengston at five o'clock on Saturday afternoon, Miss Edla M. M. Johnson became the bride of John Alfred Grantstrom, a well known young carpenter of North Bend. Albin Johnson and Selma Kjellman appeared as witnesses. The young couple will make their home in North Bend where they both have a large number of friends.

A few days ago a surprise was sprung on the friends of William Henry, who conducts a shoe shop on Front street, and Mrs. Edla Erickson, when these two were united in marriage at the home of Rev. Bengston. They are making their home on Commercial avenue.

ENJOY A BEACH PICNIC

Members of Judge Sehbredre's Bible Class Pave Bonfire on Beach Until Late Hour

There were 65 persons aboard the launch Alice H when she went down the bay at 7:30 Friday evening under charter to the Bible class of Judge Sehbredre at the Christian church. The picnic was given in the honor of Mrs. Albert Custer, Mrs. Harold Bargett and Miss Laura Lancaster, all of whom have had birthdays lately.

A huge bonfire was built on the beach, a picnic supper was served and it was after 10 o'clock before the party thought of turning homeward. They arrived here about 12:30 a. m.

of Mrs. Wiggins' sister for awhile, Mrs. Wiggins was formerly Miss Siebelt, a well-known Marshfield teacher. Yesterday Mr. and Mrs. Lando entertained them at an outing at the Goodwill place on South Coos River.

J. T. Harrigan and wife were over Sunday guests at the W. P. Murphy home on South Coos River. Saturday evening Mrs. the new Murphy home was formally christened "Kilmarney" and the sign erected, a number of the cottagers joining in the celebration.

G. W. Kaufman and wife and daughter, and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Greenwood, of Seattle, were over-Sunday guests at the C. R. Peck summer home on South Coos River.

GETS CARLOAD OF FORD CARS

I. R. TOWER RECEIVES ANOTHER SHIPMENT OF POPULAR MACHINES TO SUPPLY DEMAND IN THIS TERRITORY.

Another carload of the popular Ford cars was received by I. R. Tower today. This makes a total of fifty-two Fords that Mr. Tower has handled since he took the Ford agency last January.

In talking over the automobile situation this morning Mr. Tower was very enthusiastic. The Ford car has so thoroughly proven its economy and satisfaction in this territory as well as the balance of the country that the selling of the car presents no particular difficulties.

When you can operate an automobile at a cost of two cents per mile, no one can afford to be without one. As in all forms of business today, the automobile is practically a necessity. From the standpoint of pleasure alone there is no way to secure more for the money expended. But indulging in the call of the open road gives more than pleasure; it tends toward health and is really insurance against lost time and doctor bills.

For touring cars, phone 20, Chandler Hotel.

MARSHFIELD BROTHERHOOD ACCEPTS CHALLENGE

To Play North Bend Methodist Brotherhood Thursday Afternoon In North Bend

The baseball bug went buzzing about the Bay and lit on A. G. Raab, of the Methodist Brotherhood in North Bend and straightaway he gathered his followers and issued a challenge to the Brotherhood at Marshfield. The flung gauntlet was taken up and the game is scheduled for 2:30 p. m. next Thursday afternoon in North Bend.

The probable line up of the North Bend team, according to Captain A. G. Raab, will be as follows: Murlin Chapelle, catcher; Earl Brown, pitcher; A. G. Raab, first base; Superintendent Coe, second base; Lloyd Rose, third base; Leonard Russell, short stop; W. H. McVay, center field; Charles Sweeney, left field; A. S. Hisey, right field; subs., W. E. Leonard, C. C. Riggs, Charles Van Zile and others.

The lineup of the Marshfield team will probably include, W. W. Langworthy, Cal Langworthy, Milo Sumner, J. W. McInturf, William Stauff, J. R. Jarvis, D. Dixon, E. H. Campbell, R. O. Graves and Charles Lyons.

BANDON ELKS WIN

TAKE FAST GAME FROM LOCAL HERDSMEN, 5 TO 2

Overthrow in Fifth Frame Breaks Up Airtight Game—Eastside Beats Tigers

With a one to one score in the fifth frame, two outs and two men on bases an over peg by Frank Catterlin to Carl Davis on third, or rather over his head, saved the day for the Bandon Elks and two scores romped home to the lively jingles and yells of the grandstands. All in all, it was a good game. The hundreds of people who watched it said so.

From the first to the fifth frame there was air tight ball as is evidenced by the one to one score until that time. Jarvis in the box for the Marshfielders did his duty in a wonderful style, twirling a splendid game of ball with the support of his eight comrades.

The lineups of the teams were as follows: Marshfield Elks Bandon Elks Frank Catterlin C. Jas. Schroeder Jarvis P. Dipple Jay Doyle IB. Miller Don Gardner SB. Lafay Phillips SS. McNair Carl Davis TB. L. Gallier William Chandler RF. Johnson-Rosa L. Schmitt CF. Geo. Laird Roy Miller LF. Best

Eastside wins from the Blue Ridge Tigers, 3 to 2, in one of the prettiest pitcher's battles seen on the river in years. Collier, of Eastside, and Ben Fisher of the Tigers fought hard and but for the attempt of Stora, of the Tigers, to steal on second in the ninth it might have been a different story.

More than 300 persons watched the game at Daniels Creek. The Eastsiders scored in the first, fourth and seventh frames. The Tigers made one in the fifth and another in the ninth when Fisher slammed out a two base hit. Collier secured three out of five hits and knocked in two of the runs for his team.

The lineups follow: Eastside Kruger LF. E. Vineyard Stora SS. Bartles Sanderson 3B. J. Tellefon Woods CF. Johnson Thomas P. Collier Griffins 2B. Was Dooley RF. E. Peterson Wilson IB. Maloney

Eastside 5 3 3 Tigers 2 3 3

Beaver Hill Wins. All about the field went the ball in the Beaver-Hill Hatchery game at Beaver Hill, the former winning by a 12-to-11 score. Up until the last of the 8th frame both sides were even. An error gave Beaver Hill the winning score, though the Hatchery team fought every step of the way.

The Hatchery secured four runs in the first inning with three straight hits. The lineups follow: Hatchery Hooley c Beaver Hill Koontz p Haris Bessey 1b Scoby Merchant 2b Anderson Burke as P. Dweese Robertson 3b A. Wilson Clark cf A. Wilson W. Wilson lf Barnett Simmons rf Reuberg & Scoby

For the Hatchery W. Wilson got one three-bagger, Merchant one two-bagger, Koontz two 2-baggers and Burke one. For Beaver Hill, Anderson made one 2-bagger and Scoby also one.

ENJOYED BY AUDIENCE

Rev. W. S. Gordon Gives Pleasing Entertainment Saturday Night

Rev. W. S. Gordon, of Astoria, gave an entertainment Saturday evening at the hall in the Methodist Church. The affair was one which was greatly enjoyed by those who made up the good sized audience. Mr. Gordon is the author of "The Western Spirit" a collection of poems and of other works. He entertained the audience by reading many of his own poems. Mr. Gordon's poetry is of a high class and his manner of reading was pleasing. At the conclusion of the entertainment he received many congratulations.

Mr. Gordon is spending his vacation on a lecture tour and left this afternoon for Coquille where tonight he will give an entertainment. He also has engagements for Bandon, Myrtle Point and Roseburg and from the latter city will go to Albany.
