"He Started in Life a Poor Man"

Read about the lives of rich men and you will find as a rule the statement, "He started in life a poor man." Competency was only acquired when the habit of saving was formed.

No man who exchanges his labor for money is too poor to start a bank account.

Wealth depends upon what you save-not on what you earn. This bank accepts savings accounts in any amount—the small depositor is always welcome.

It pays interest on time deposits. Start that account now. Having is the result of saving.

THE STONING

The best three-reel feature ever shown in The Noble Theater. This is saying a great deal when you stop to think of the great Paramount productions we are showing every week. This picture has no equal for a picture play and is being repeated tonight by requests from several people who had the pleasure of seeing it last evening. Don't miss it. It's more than a picture.

Passengers waiting for the jitney bus were 11.39 drenched in a downpour about nine o'clock this morning while in the city there was not a sign of rain.

> > Teddy to the Front.-Capt. Cornwall who came up from Berkeley this morning on his way to Gardiner said that last week "Teddy" Roosevelt was at the exposition and outdid any of the Zone attractions as far as the crowd drawing was concerned. This was the time that Mr. Roosevelt made his "pink tights" illusion to the Angel of Peace.
