ling the various farmers asking that they bring in bundles of their best crops that they may be placed in the rooms of the Chamber, artistically arranged. An appeal is also made for big pumpkins.

Play With Tigers.—Norman Johnson, Mike Burke and some other Marshfield ball players have been drafted by the Hatcher team and will play the balance of the season with them. Johnson will be in the box against the Blue Ridge Tigers next Sunday at Daniels Creek and a fast game is expected.

To Log Tract.—It is announced that Sam Carmichael, a well known timber cruiser, and his brother, M. J. Carmichael, will log a 1,000 acre tract between Haynes and North Inlet. The land belongs to the Southport Land Company and is not heavily timbered, there being some cedar and some fir. The logs will be taken out via North Inlet.

Powers Postoffice.—The Post Office Department has at last formally established a postoffice at Powers and appointed Gustavus A. Brown postmaster. Application for this was made several months ago and it will simplify the mail service to and from the new town. Mr. Brown has long been with the Smith-Powers Co. A new building was built for the postoffice.

WEATHER FORECAST
(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

Minimum 54
At 4:43 a. m. 56
Precipitation since Sept. 1, 1914 68.74
Precipitation same period last year 66.54
Wind—Southwest, partly cloudy.

Suits Are Filed.—Suits were filed in the Justice Court this morning by the Oregon City Manufacturing Company against E. Barger for the sum of $65.50, said to have been due for goods, October, 1914. Also Willard Brothers are suing August Pederson for the sum of $53.75. Constable Cox went down to Empire this afternoon to serve the papers on Pederson.

Use Few Booklets.—A letter from J. A. Ward states that he has disposed of 50,000 Coos Bay booklets, the small folders printed a few weeks ago. There are still 150,000 on hand and part of these will be sent south to him. The cranberry plant sent there by J. H. Pinkerton, of North Inlet, arrived in good shape and has been given a place in the exhibit.

Choir Rehearsal.—The choir of the Episcopal Church will meet for rehearsal Thursday evening this week instead of Wednesday.

Ship Coal.—About 400 tons of Beaver Hill coal will be shipped to Portland in sacks on the Breakwater the next trip or two. This is the first outside order for coal received for some time past.

Machine Is Attached.—Deputy Sheriff W. C. Laird went up to Lakeside this morning with papers to attach a machine owned by John Vanburger on proceedings brought by Milo Pierson who claims there was a note of $363.04 due him July 1, 1915 that has not been paid.

Greeks Go Mining.—There arrived on the steamship Santa Clara today from San Francisco a crew of 20 Greeks. They said they had been hired to work for the Sixes Mining Company. They left on the afternoon train with their blankets for Curry County.

Stage Man Here.—Homer G. Johnson who with Mr. Laird is maintaining the auto stage service between Coos county points and Roseburg via the old Coos Bay wagon road was here today on business. He says the road is in excellent shape now and they are making good time.

Finishing Bridge.—H. G. Butler expects to complete the Bay Park bridge, for which he has the contract, in a few days. He has been delayed somewhat by non-delivery of lumber but has made very fast time in the construction and has done an excellent job.

Father Dead.—Mrs. J. E. Ford, whose husband is one of the owners of the Union Meat Market, received word today of the death of her father, Mr. Reiger at Newago, Mich. He had been afflicted with paralysis for some time. Owing to the great distance, she will not return home now.

Pipe is Broken.—A large eight inch water pipe burst this morning on Central avenue between Front and Broadway and when workmen made an excavation they found a small-sized geyser in full play. The water was turned off for a short time this afternoon while the break was being repaired.

Fingers Mashed.—Miss Mable Lang, an employee at the Coos Bay Laundry, received a painful injury this morning while feeding the mangle. Her left hand slipped under her hot rollers and the four fingers were badly mashed and burned. No bones were broken and she was given immediate medical treatment.

End of Term Set.—Judge Coke is said to have announced from the bench that August 5 is the last day of the present equity term and that cases not heard at that time will be held over until the September term, following the circuit court session. Judge Coke will probably take a short vacation at that time.

Would Have Display.—Displays, of wheat, barley, oats and hay are to be shown at the Chamber of Commerce and Secretary Motley is cal-

Yes; Why is it that THE J. C. PENNEY CO. can sell you first-class merchandise for the same, and in many instances, for less than our competitors are asking you for seconds? Think of the enormous amount of merchandise that we use in a year in our 83 busy stores scattered over 13 Western states. Then it is easy to see why we are able to sell you the same merchandise from 25 to 33 1-3 per cent less. Better think this over.
