LOCALS BREVITIES

JULY TIDES

Time and Heights of tides at Marshfield. The tides are placed in order of occurrence, with their times on the first line and heights on the second line of each day; a comparison of consecutive heights will indicate whether it is high or low water. High tide on the Bar one hour and 54 minutes earlier than at Marshfield. At North Bend 34 minutes earlier than at Marshfield.

WEATHER FORECAST
(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

OREGON — Showers tonight; Friday fair, except showers in Northwest; southwesterly winds.

LOCAL TEMPERATURE RECORD

For the 24 hours ending at 4:43 a. m., July 29, by Benj. Ostlund, special government meteorologist:

Maximum	64
Minimum	56
At 4:43 a. m.	57
Precipitation	0.00
Precipitation since Sept. 1, 1914	68.74
Precipitation same period last year	66.54

Wind—Southwest, cloudy.

Plans Home.—L. L. Gorr is planning to erect a $2,500 bungalow on his lot in Perham Park. Plans have been made and bids are being asked on it now.

Medical Meeting.—A meeting of the Coos and Curry Medical Society is being held at Myrtle Point today and a number of Coos Bay physicians will attend the late sessions.

Divorce Hearing Up.—This afternoon before Judge Coke in his office here was being heard the divorce case of Florence Dolan against Ed Dolan, the charge being cruel and inhuman treatment. Both principals are now residing in Marshfield.

Work On Station.—Rolf Nerdrum, formerly with the Coos Bay pulp mills, came up today from Charleston where he is in charge of the concrete work on the new life saving station. He says that they are getting along nicely with the work.

Is On Ranch.—Hjalte Nerdrum and family, formerly of South Fifth street, are now on his fruit ranch near Vancouver, Wash. He has 40 acres which he bought three or four years ago and is planting more fruit and putting the place in fine shape.

Rain Hits Hay.—The rain of this afternoon fell on much hay that is cut in the fields and curing. The farmers for several days have been very industrious getting it up but it is said that a great deal is still down and may be a heavy loss if the rain continues.

Becomes One of the Herd.—Richard W. Rogers was initiated into the Elks lodge last night, becoming one of the antlered herd. He says the third degree was not administered, whatever that is, but he doesn't feel any too certain yet. He is expecting any too certain yet. He is expecting to leave on the Nann Smith this week for a visit at the Exposition.

Fine Picture.—"The Madonna of the Lilies," one of the best paintings ever shown in Marshfield, is attracting much attention at the Walker Studio where it is being exhibited in the window. It is the work of Mrs. M. F. Wood of 129 Twelfth Street, Portland, and is the property of Rev. Father McDevitt of Marshfield.

Hearing Postponed.—The hearing of Dwight E. Hodge on the charge of assault on Dr. Straw was postponed in the police court yesterday because of the absence of J. C. Kendall from the city until August 15. No decision has been made by Judge Butler in the case of Dr. Straw whose hearing was held some weeks ago.

Owner Gets Keys.—Frank Truesdale picked up a bunch of keys on the street and brought them to The Times office. A found ad was inserted and Asher Wilcox quickly claimed them. Times want ads get results.

Inspects Restaurants.—G. H. Fullenwider of the Oregon Pure Food and Dairy Commission is making his annual inspection of the restaurants here. Next year the health of the employees of restaurants will be inspected, their general appearance and a doctor's certificate being taken into consideration.

Is a Bankrupt.—William B. Sullivan, a Myrtle Point logging contractor, has been adjudged a bankrupt in the U. S. court in Portland and on August 9 will have a hearing before Judge Sehlbrede, referee in bankruptcy. The liabilities are said to be $2,150 and the assets practically nothing.

Want Ad Sold Boat.—H. R. Brinkley of Eastside had a launch for sale and ordered a for sale ad inserted in The Times want column three times. The first insertion brought a buyer, a man from the Coos Bay creamery. This is the usual experience of parties using Times want ads.

Sells Many Bibles.—Rev. G. LeRoy Hall sells many Bibles during his trips through this section. His sales of Bibles one month recently totaled $200 which brought a letter of congratulation from the director of the missionary field work. He does not get any commission for selling Bibles, it being part of his duties in the missionary field.

Venison Feast Early.—Attorney H. L. Murphy today received an announcement of a big "Corn and Venison feast" at Langlois August 6 and 7. As the deer season does not open until August 15, he is puzzled about how they are going to get the venison. He plans to be in that section about that time and says he will be disappointed if Game Warden Thomas get on the job and shuts off the venison supply.

Newlyweds Find Rice.—"We found the old shoes and the rice," writes W. E. Sharon from Portland to Chief of Police Carter. He received there a few days ago on the steamship Kilburn from Marshfield with his bride, who was formerly Miss Minnie Harkness. Before leaving, many friends of the young couple invaded their stateroom and decorated it with shoes and rice, even putting some in their grips. They are now on their way to Puget Sound.

Represent Astoria Mill.—Matt L. May, the well known representative of the wholesalers in this territory, has just been appointed agent of the Astoria Flouring Mills Co. for this section. The Astoria firm has gained a great reputation for its "Astoria Patent" flour and for its mill feeds. Mr. May will represent the firm in addition to his other lines.
