Remington-UMC

—the Deliberate Choice of the Great Body of American Sportsmen

Nowhere else in the whole field of sport do you find the like of the strong public opinion in favor of Remington-UMC.

This Remington-UMC public opinion has been growing for ninety-nine years. Partly it is due to the achievements of Remington-UMC in the design or construction of Arms and Ammunition. But back of these achievements stands the fact that your American is the most practical-minded sportsman in the world—and the most loyal to the arms and ammunition that give him the service he knows he ought to have.

He it is who is holding up the hands of the Remington-UMC dealer—making the Red Ball Mark of Remington-UMC the Sign of Sportsmen's Headquarters in your town.

GERMANS PUBLISH SEIZED BELGIAN OFFICIAL RECORDS

Seek to Prove that Germany Maintained a Peaceful Attitude Until the War

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)
BERLIN, July 30.—The Norddeutsche Allgemeine Zeitung began publication today of a series of documents purporting to be the secret Belgian diplomatic reports found in Brussels by the Germans and describing international political events from the time of the Moroccan crisis until the beginning of the present conflict.

The purpose of the publication is to prove that Germany maintained a peaceful attitude throughout this period while England conspired to isolate Germany.

ENGLISH WOMEN ARE DOING FARM WORK

College Girls and Those of the Fashionable Set Are Among the Volunteers

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)
LONDON, July 30.—Farm work for women has become fashionable. College girls from Newham, Oxford, and almost the entire enrollment from Sheffield University are among the volunteers for war work in the fields, and girls who had previously devoted all the energies to sport and fashion are making a fad of it.

A special costume for women farmers has been designed and exhibited at a women's farm work show given by Lady Cowdray at her London home. The suit is made of tough brown linen fashioned into a long coat buttoned down the front. Knickerbockers of the same material are worn underneath, buttoning below the knee. This costume is not only cheap, but allows as much freedom of movement as man's dress. Because of the knickers, the women farmers can climb trees for pruning or picking fruit. At Lady Cowdray's exhibition, every branch of farm work was represented, dairying, gardening, orchard work and work in the fields.

Some prejudice is encountered on the part of the old-fashioned farmers, when they receive an application for work from a girl who looks like the dairymaid of a comic opera, they are inclined to give a refusal on the spot. They think of a rose covered cottage, with tea served in the garden among the flowers and an Arcadian existence. But they are willing to learn about pigs, chickens and stock, and generally do well at fruit picking and hay raking.

WAR CAUSING THEM TO LOOK DIFFERENTLY AT WORLD

Events Have Awakened Them to New Interest and They Get Used to Conditions

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)
CONSTANTINOPLE, July 29.—The city has thoroughly accustomed itself to the war and follows its pursuits as if the allies were as many thousands, as they are hundreds, of kilometres away. Business has increased a little and the supply of carpets put up for sale by needy families has diminished, which is interpreted as a meaning that once more money can be had from friends, or loans from business acquaintances. Much of this money is spent in the open air cafes, but it is spent in the humble plaster. Nightly without regard to political inclinations, the people gather in the cafes, sip coffee, and absorb whiskeys and sodas—if of triple entente leanings—listen to indifferent music, and generally enjoy life. The feeling now is, let the allies take care of their business as best they can. Even the Greeks and Armenians here who formerly prayed secretly that the English and French would force the Dardanelles are now quite indifferent whether they do or not.

The Turk is getting away from himself—creeping out of his shell. The war has brought to the mind of many Turks that the separatism of old was not as desirable a thing as was believed. The Turk, so say many, is coming into contact with the west by being obliged to read the communiques from Berlin and Vienna. He has acquired a real interest in the fate of two other political aggregates, and in so doing he had widened his mental horizon to the extent of feeling that his fate is not the only one over which Allah presides.

A few grumble because the ferry service to the Asiatic shore has been limited. Outside of that nobody minds the presence of allied submarines. Having the allies hammer away at the Dardanelles has become a condition in the mind of the Constantinopolitan, a condition which gives interest to each day, because tomorrow may bring another of the many surprises which the undertaking has so far provided.

PROSPEROUS IN EAST

Kansas City Man Tells of Good Conditions There

Harry Feasel, who has been operating on the Kansas City Board of Trade for the past few years, arrived here this week to visit Lew Gillespie. He reports that section of the country prosperous, the bank deposits increasing about $133,000,000 in the past year. All of the country banks are overloaded with money. With the prices of grain and livestock at a high notch, the farmers are enjoying such prosperity as they never dreamed of before.

NO DEER HUNTING UNTIL AUGUST 15

Game Warden Is Sending Out Notices To Deputies Throughout the State

(Special to The Times.)
ROSEBURG Ore., July 30.—Notices are being sent out by the State Game Warden's office that the deer hunting season this year does not open until August 15, which is 15 days later than has been customary for a number of years. Deputy Wardens throughout the state are being instructed to give all possible publicity to the change in the opening date.

"The purpose is to carry on a campaign of prevention of law violations rather than make arrests, says F. M. Brown, chief clerk for the State Game Warden. "We want all hunters to remember the change in dates for deer hunting made by the last legislature so none will plan a trip before the legal season opens. The bag limit is three buck deer with horns in one year and it is unlawful to hunt deer after October 1"

Carl D. Shoemaker, the Game Warden, is in Canyon City today on his trip of inspection. He has been out one week, having visited Southern Oregon and then gone across the Cascade Range to Klamath Falls, Burns, Bend and other Central Oregon points. He will stop at a number of Columbia River points and also inspect the hatchery at Bonneville.

At all the places visited Mr. Shoemaker held conference with the deputy Game Wardens and made plans for a campaign of prevention of unlawful hunting and fishing.

WRESTLING AND BOXING EVEN AT BANDON SATURDAY NIGHT

New Athletic Club There Will Hold Public Opening With a Good Program

(Special to The Times)
BANDON, Ore., July 30.—The Bandon Athletic Club will hold public opening Saturday night with there will be several good bouts for the entertainment of those who attend. There will be both wrestling and boxing on the program.

The main event will be a boxing match between M. G. Lutsey and Jim Wilson for $100 side bet and the winner take all. Lutsey for a year has been the undisputed champion of Coos and Curry Counties and his admirers will back him strongly, but it is said that in Wilson he will meet a dangerous opponent.

There will be a four round boxing event as a curtain raiser and the chief boxing event on the program will be between George Sutton of Port Orford and Frank Martin of Everything has been arranged to make the opening event of the club one which will please all those who attend.

EXPECT BIG CROWD

PORT ORFORD ARRANGES AGATE CARNIVAL

U. S. Senator Chamberlain Will Be In Attendance and Visit In Curry County

Big preparations are being made by the people of Port Orford for their Agate Carnival which will be held August 19, 20 and 21. Roderick Macleay who has large interest on Rogue River and who is in the city today says that the entire county will turn out to help make the gathering a success and that the people are expecting the largest crowd that they ever entertained before in that place. Many are expected from Coos County and outside points as the Agate Carnival, held as a regular annual event, has become widely advertised.

United States Senator George T. Chamberlain is to be one of the guests of the city. He will attend the carnival and from there will probably go on the Rogue river to make a visit in that part of the county. It is probable that the senator will stop off at Coos Bay for a day on his way to Port Orford.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)
