Wants His Pay.—Geo. W. King

has begun suit against W. A. Hakala who was employed in one of the Smith-Powers camps for $24.85 which King says is due for meat furnished the Hakala family.

On Auto Tour.—C. O. King and wife who motored to Medford recently are now touring the Crater Lake section, according to a message received by V. C. Gorst today. They will not return for a couple of weeks.

Will Have Outing.—The Ladies Aid Society of the Swedish Lutheran Church will have an outing at the Alex Matson place on Catching Inlet next Wednesday. The members will go on William Bjorkquist's boat.

Buys Lots.—Henry Koski who recently took over the Russian baths at Bunker Hill from Otto Richter has purchased two adjoining lots from Ernest and Hilma Grandell. Richter is now running a little store in North Marshfield which Koski traded him.

Will Submit Briefs.—The lawyers in the Sneddon case wherein the present guardians are asked to be removed and another guardian appointed, will submit their arguments to County Judge Watson in the shape of briefs. Until these have been presented and considered the case will not be decided. The attorneys for Mr. Sneddon have until September 10 to file their briefs.

W. C. T. U. To Meet.—The members of the North Bend W. C. T. U. will meet Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Presbyterian church. Arrangements will be made for the county convention which will be held August 9 and other business will be transacted. The state president, Mrs. Jennie Kemp, will be present. She is expected to arrive on the next trip of the F. A. Kilburn from Portland.

School Year.—The Marshfield public schools will open September 13 for the new year.

Leaves Tuesday.—Miss Elizabeth Topping who recently resigned as Marshfield city librarian, will leave Tuesday for Salem where she will spend most of her vacation. She has not yet accepted a position.

Denies Report.—It was reported today that Miss Flossie Lattin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Lattin, was soon to become the bride of a Portland man. Mrs. Lattin said the report was erroneous.

Funeral Today.—The funeral of Mrs. Coffelt, a well known Coos Bay woman who died at her home in North Bend, was largely attended today and many accompanied the cortege to the South Coos River cemetery where interment took place.

Hard Trip.—Tom Harvey who returned yesterday from a long auto trip with Capt. Dunson reports that the coast road from San Francisco to Crescent City is hard driving. On one stretch, the hill is so steep and long that a team had to be hired to haul up machines. A man living there devotes his entire time to helping stranded autoists. They had a pleasant visit with J. H. Milner, formerly of Marshfield who now lives at Petaluma and who has a machine and is an auto enthusiast.

PERSONAL MENTION

DR. E. MINGUS was a Beaver Hill visitor today.

J. D. LAIRD came in from Sitkum yesterday on business and pleasure.

J. G. MULLEN of North Bend was here this morning on legal business.

MRS. ELLEN SAVAGE of Coos River is the guest of Marshfield friends today.

MRS. FRED HANSON of Sumner was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Wm. Kardell today.

CLAUD HOCKETT came up from Empire yesterday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Olson.

MISS GRACE KRUSE, Madge Barry and Florence Alken, left this afternoon for 'The Nook' where they will spend Sunday.

J. D. CULVER came in from Powers yesterday on business. He will have a candy, ice cream and news stand in the new postoffice there.

MRS. E. GEORGE SMITH and son who have been visiting relatives in North Bend for the past week, have left for their home on Coos River.

A. B. DALY who went to Bandon yesterday to catch a boat for San Francisco returned last evening and left from here on the Nann Smith today.

HERBERT LOCKHART and family are spending a few days at their summer home on South Coos River. Mrs. Emma Nasburg accompanied them there.

C. R. PECK, accompanied Mrs. Peck to their summer home on South Coos River this afternoon. They will have Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Jennings and J. Albert Matson as over-Sunday guests.

DR. G. W. LESLIE expects to leave tomorrow for Portland to attend the Osteopaths National Convention which will be held there next week. He has only missed two national conventions since he graduated at Kirksville, Mo.

A. J. STEPHAN who is now ranching in the Haynes Inlet country came in today and brought a sample of some Alaska potatoes that he is growing. He says they do fine on high ground but that on the lowland they grow too large and are hollow.

DICK ROGERS who has been driving a Gorst & King car steadily for the past year, is taking a vacation of a month and today left on the Nann Smith for San Francisco where he will see the exposition and meet relatives from the east who will visit the coast. He had intended going back to his home in the east but has decided to return to Coos Bay.

ROBERT RUSHO, cashier of the Bank of Taylor, Taylor, Nebraska, has been looking over Coos Bay this week and investigating its advantages, present and prospective. Yesterday he was driven over the city by W. A. Reid, and he was so favorably impressed that he announced that he expected to close out his business in Nebraska and bring his family to Coos Bay to make their future home.

TO STOP SPEEDING

POLICE WILL CHECK AUTOISTS FROM EXCEEDING LIMIT

Complaint Made Against Gorst & King Car for Hitting 35-Mile Clip on Roadway

The Marshfield police are to inaugurate another crusade against speeding inside the city limits. About a year ago, a number of autoists and motorcyclists were arrested and fined for speeding and it checked fast driving for a long time.

Recently there have been many complaints about speeding especially on North Broadway and North Front street.

Today complaint was registered at the Police station against Car No. 1901, said to belong to Gorst & King, and the driver will be haled before Recorder Butler later. It is charged that the car was hitting a 35-mile clip on North Broadway.
